A Girl in Disguise.

The citizens of Berkshire county, Massachusetts, are just now excited over a sudden and singular death which occurred in Lanesboro' recently. A boy giving the name of Henry E. Goodwin, recently made application to the Briggs Iron Works for work, and, although they were not in need of help, he pleaded so hard that employment was finally given him. His superior intelligence, modesty, and freedom from profanity and coarseness, and his great industry, all conspired t, win the favor of his employers, who spoke of it to several gentlemen of the village, who also became interested in his appearance. Shortly after commeneing work he was taken ill, and repaired to Munson's Hotel, where, in order to be apart from other boarders, he had a bed Best TONIC in the WORLD. made in the garret. The care he received was not the best, and the patient grew rapidly worse, when a physician was finally sent for, who wished to examine his bowels, to see if they were bloated, but Henry objecting, the doctor en o'clock on Tuesday morning. An inquest was held, at which it was ascertained that the deceased worked about a week for a Mr. Barton in Dalton, at farming, then came to Pittsfield and worked for Amos Shepardson, farming, at a dollar and a half a day, four days, but left as she could not do haying.
