The 155th Regt. of one hundred day men arrived in Harrisburg on Wednesday night last. The Columbia company is expected home to-day.

NEW MILLINERY.—Mrs. E. Felix opens, to-day, a splendid assortment of new and fashionable millinery. Call and see the new Fall and Winter styles.

Mr. Henry Suydam advertises in to-day's paper a fine assortment of new and seasonable groceries, etc. Mr. S. has got quite a reputation for keeping new and cheap goods—he is always, first in the market with his luxuries—give him a call.

WM. U. HESS, the great periodical and stationery dealer, is always the first to receive the new publication of the day. Among those received during the week is Mme. Demore's Mirror of Fashion. It contains all the latest styles of ladies dresses, coats, hats, &c., for winter wear. Call and get this great fashion gazette.

THANKSGIVING.—Governor Curtin has issued a proclamation setting apart Thursday the 24th day of November, as a day of general thanksgiving for the many blessings bestowed upon us. This is the same day as the National thanksgiving recommended by the President. We have no doubt it will be generally observed throughout the Northern States.

CAPTURED.—We are informed that Lieutenant William Wright of this Corps, Adj't of the 150th Reg't, P. Y., was captured in the late reconnaissance near Petersburg. He was in the act of carrying dispatches to Gen. Bragg, of the 3d Div., 5th Corps when captured. Lieut. Wright is a brave and fearless soldier, and was highly popular in his regiment. His loss, (we hope only temporary,) will be universally regretted.

DIVIDEND DECLARED.—It will be seen by an advertisement in another column that the Columbia Bank has declared a dividend of 4 per cent, which we learn, like the dividend of 3 per cent, declared in October last, will be paid in gold. This with the 3 per cent dividend declared last May in currency, at the present rate of gold, will net 2 1/2 per cent, to the stockholders for the current year.

LOCKED UP.—On Wednesday evening constable McGinnis escorted a son of the Emerald Isle to the lock-up. He had been indulging in a "drop of the cruet," and was in for a fight. On the way to his quarters his wife made her appearance and the scene became animated; she pulled her abuse thick and fast upon the head of the devoted constable, and he, not relishing her efforts, took her in charge, and gave her quarters, for the night, in the same place with her husband.

FRANK LESLIE.—This splendid gazette of Fashion and Literature for November has come to hand. We have repeatedly spoken of its peculiarities, and have never been untrue to its excellencies. We notice, however, that it is steadily improving in its literary contents while it still takes the lead in its fashion department. This number contains the usual large colored fashion plate besides numerous fashion cuts, diagrams, patterns, &c.—W. U. Hess has it for sale.

AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST.—The November number of the Agriculturist comes to us this month laden with good and interesting matter, not for the farmer only, but for men and women in every station of life. It is illustrated with numerous engravings. It too, feels the pressure of the times, as on and after December 1st, the subscription price will be $1.50 a year; four copies for $5.00; ten copies for $12.00. We have often wondered how such a work could be kept up at $1 per annum. Orange Judd, Publisher, 41 Park Row, New York.

HOLLOWE'EN.—Monday evening last being Hollowe'en, was celebrated by the young of both sexes in the usual manner. Some were compelled to have their shutters for fear of having the windows broken by furious strikers of corn. Steps were removed and placed in the middle of the walk, causing near-sighted pedestrians to stumble. We passed a couple of young ladies on Locust street, having their mouths full of water, hoping to hear with whom they were destined to be united. One young lady on Front street remained up until midnight and looked down to see to the face of her "true lover." She drew back alarmed and rushed into the house, almost frantic, saying she saw the image of a man who was in Fisher's Hundred Day Regiment. The old time customs of Hollowe'en are among the things that were.

ATLANTIC MONTHLY.—The November number of this sterling magazine is out with its usual interesting table of contents. Rev. T. W. Higginson contributes some "Leaves from an Officer's Diary," written during November and December, 1862, in which he endeavors to prove the aptitude of the freed slaves for military drill and discipline, their ardent loyalty, their courage under fire, and their self-control in success. He writes from Beaufort, S. C. Francis Parkman, in "The Vengeance of Dominic de Soto," contributes an item of historical interest which would have been valuable to Theodore Irving, as it will be to other historians. The fourth paper, containing some of Charles Lamb's uncollected writings, will be of much interest to all the admirers of gentle Elia. Tackerman sends a pleasant postal address to Bryant on his seventeenth birthday. Mrs. Stowe contributes the tenth number of her "House and Home Papers;" Gail Hamilton, "The New School of Biography," "The Finances of the Revolution," full of rare and valuable statistics concerning the period that tried men's souls, and Fitz Hugh Ludlow an account of the overland route to California. There is an interesting and valuable editorial on the "Twentieth Presidential Election," and the customary critical department. Terms, $4 per annum. Published by Ticknor and Fields, 135, Washington St., Boston. Wm. U. Hess has it for sale.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

PEN YOUR HOES.—As it is very near the season of the year for butchering and laying up your winter supply of pork, we think it would be advisable for the persons who own the animals, daily to be seen on our streets, to house them, and put them through a fattening process. They are a nuisance on the streets, and if the owners do not attend to them, it would be policy for the council to enforce the "Hog Law," and dispose of them to persons who would keep them penned.

GOOD TEMPLARS.—At a meeting of Hope Lodge, No. 8, I. O. of G. T., held in their Hall, on Tuesday evening, November 1st, the following officers were installed to serve the ensuing term: W. C. T., Bessie Wilford; W. V. T., Eli H. Eyde; W. S. W. U. Hess; W. A. S., Sadio Fisher; W. T., T. J. Wright; W. F. S., J. F. Houston; P. W. C. T., R. C. Fisher; W. R. H. S., S. W. Millin; W. L. H. S., J. Davis; W. G. C. T., R. Vickroy; W. M., George Richards; W. D. M., L. Santee; W. I. G., Allice Clark; W. O. G., L. C. Oberlin.

OUR BONDAGE is gradually recovering from the stupor produced by the sale of the public works—the sound of the trowel and stone-hammer is heard in almost every street, and the proprietors of every branch of industry, appear to be reaping a rich reward for their labors. The Reading and Columbia Railroad company have completed their road to Union street, near the centre of the town; have purchased the substantial brick building, and converted it into a beautiful passenger depot and ticket office—have purchased several vacant lots and erected, thereon, a freight depot—and are engaged in beautifying that locality with all the modern improvements. Capt. Huff, of the Washington House, is making a decided and permanent improvement, by casing the large columns in front, with iron. The captain has always been noted for substantial improvements, and having spent some eighteen months in the army, along the James river, and witnessed the operations of Gun-boats and the great naval engagement between the Merrimack and Monitor, it is not at all strange that he should be in favor of iron-clad.

Domestic happiness is said to be on the increase, and notwithstanding the high price of calico, dimity and butter, matrimonial pursuits have never been in a more flourishing condition since the "falls of Niagara;" but the price of potatoes, politics and betting on the result are decidedly on the decline.
