The Victory in Tennessee.

The following official despatch, confirming the victory in Tennessee has been received at Headquarters.

FRANKLIN, Tenn., Nov. 30, 1864.—Major General Thomas.—The enemy made a heavy, persistent attack with about two corps, commencing about 4 o'clock in the afternoon and lasting until after dark.

Our loss is probably not more than one-tenth of that number. We captured about 1,000 men, including one Brigadier General.

THE NEWS.

In the Army of the Potomac the usual picket firing is reported. The subscription to the 73rd man last week amounted to $3,500,000.

Gen. Sherman's capture of Macon and Milledgeville is confirmed by a statement made by Roger A. Pryor.

A fire occurred in New York, on Wednesday, said to be the work of incendiaries in the lumber yard of Ogden & Co., in Hubert street.

An official report of the financial affairs of the United States Sanitary Commission is just published.

Roger A. Pryor arrived in New York yesterday, and was taken to Fort Lafayette. He contradicts the report that he had said that Macon and Milledgeville had been captured.

Veteran soldiers not now in service, and desirous of entering this new organization, should, until further notice, report in person to the office of Colonel C. F. Johnson, at the Soldiers' Rest, near the Baltimore and Washington Railroad station, in Washington.

Nearly all the factories in Lawrence have stopped running, owing to a break in the canal. Repairs are being rapidly made, and they will soon resume work.

The Oil Fever.

Oil lands, oil stocks, oil wells, and oil everything are now the subject of conversation on the cars, in the hotels, on the streets, in the drawing-rooms, and wherever men most do congregate.

In Columbiæ the editor of the Spy tells us that the speculators have got the fever so bad that it has broken out into a large company, into which everybody who can scrape up a few hundred dollars is anxious to enter.

Mr. Editor.—I believe in Sunday Schools. They do good. I should say they do good.

First: They cause children to be well dressed. I believe in dress. I do not mean in dress for show.

Second: Sunday Schools give pleasure. I used to cry when I could not go. Children sing together. Every child loves singing.

Third: Sunday Schools teach the Bible. There is everything in this. It improves the child's heart.

Fourth: Sunday Schools teach the child to be good. Children obey their parents better by reason of the Bible.

Fifth: Sunday Schools teach the child to be kind. Children are taught to love their neighbors as themselves.

Sixth: Sunday Schools teach the child to be brave. Children are taught to stand up for their rights.

Seventh: Sunday Schools teach the child to be honest. Children are taught to tell the truth.
