J. W. V. N.—Will print 'cm and send them over on Monday, Send on the story. Success to the enterprise.

A correspondent asks, "Why is ex-Governor Smith of Virginia, called 'Extra Billy'!" Because he was noted in Congress for bringing in bills for extra appropriations.

J. S. W.—We have received those motions from P. & Bro.. Have troom for half of them. Cannadell when we will go to Richmond, probably in a seck or two.

We have received secret.

We have received several poetical offu-sions, essays, &:, but not a single signature by which to trace out the authors. Common courtesy, decency and right, demand that an editor should know to whom he is indebted for favors of this sort. We publish no annonymous articles, and have but little patience with persons who are so very cuts.

DIVIDEND .- The First National Bank of Columbia has declared a dividend for the past six months, of five per cent., clear of U.S. tax.

THE DAM .- Workmen are now engaged in repairing the dam, which was so much injured last Spring by the great ice freshet. It is greatly damaged in many places and the water being higher at present than usual, renders their labors very

We would call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Edmund Spering. He has fixed up his store room in splendid style, and put in a new stock of AMERICAN WATCH, which is becoming more popular every day as the best watch now in market. Call and examine them.

New Store .-- I. O. Bruner will open a store in Shreiner's Row, Front street above Walnut, next week. He will keep reliable merchants, and is by experience, honesty and enterprise, worthy of the libcral patronage and confidence of our citizens. His advertisement will appear next week.

OFFENSIVE .- The attention of the au thorities having the sanitary condition of our Borough in charge, is called to the alley leading from Fourth Street to Second, between Locust and Walnut. The decomposed matter which is allowed to fester in the sun creates un intolerable stench, and its exhalations charge the air with disease and death. The dwellers in the neighborhood are most anxious for polief,

LADIES FRIEND .- This favorite Mag azine for August has been received. It contains a beautiful steel engraving. "Grandpa's Darling." Among the figures in the colored steel fashion plate we notice a very chaste and pretty bridal dress. It has many other instructive engravings

Persons visiting Columbia, will find the Franklin House one of the best places to stop at.

FINE TOBACCO.—We were shown a few days ago, by Mr. John Fendrich, some splendid Hayana and Yara tobaccu Such tobacco, we are informed is very ration years than any other of the first hard to get. That there is plenty in the market, we have no doubt, but the kind first discovered by Dr. Franklin. that is wanted to make first class Havana and Yarn segars is very scarce. So much so that Mr. Fendrich informs us that he went through all the reliable wholesale houses in New York, before he could get the genuine first class Havanna and Yara tohacoo, and he purchased all he could get of this class.

We are somewhat of a judge of the article, and can assure our readers that it is the best we have ever seen. It is now be- Supenfine, do, ing rapidly made up into segars and will Rye, do. Pic-Nic.—The Chiquesalunga Tribe, No. 39, 1. O. R. M., will hold a grand picnic, in Heises' Woods, on Saturday, July 29th. They are making extensive preparations, and intend that it shall be the pie-nie of the season. The war-whoop will be sounded and then all will indulge in the PERSONAL .- Col. J. W. Fisher, commanding a Brigade in the Army of the Shenandoah, has arrived in Columbia on "sick leave." The Col. has been in the hands of the Surgeon for the past three weeks, but is now prospering finely. At one time great fears were entertained for his his recovery.

Lieut. Thomas of the 195th, has also been visiting his friends.

STILL THEY COME. - During the past week more veteran soldiers have returned. Among them we noticed Lieut. Bogart of the 190th P.V.V., Frank Grove, 3d Pa. H. Art., and Corp. Wm. Bostick of the 102nd

Lieut, Bogart and Corp. Bostick entered the service in '61, leaving Harrisburg in Collins' company of the 5th P. R. C. The former served nine months in Libby and Salisbury, and the latter was wounded in front of Petersburg.

NEW TELEGRAPH LINE .-- We are soon to have a telegraph line between Columbia and Reading. The Reading & Columbia R. R. Co., are always up to time in the onward march of improvement. They will soon give us telegraph communication between Reading, Columbia, and other points. The poles are nearly all up and in the course of a couple of weeks the wire will be stretched. This will be a great convenience to the company and a benefit to the community.

THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW .lewelry, amongst which may be found the This is a magazine of real merit. It disseminates literature of a higher order than most magazines. The number (June) before us is replete with interest. The leading articles are, "Three Women of Letters," "England and Norway in the cloventh Century," "Popular religious Literature." > LOTTERY SWINDLES AGAIN .- We have received from P. Hoffman & Co., a neatly lithographed letter, got up in "confidence style." They modestly request us to send them $10 for which they will select for us a lucky certificate which will draw, at least a $5000 prize, and if it does not do so they will send other certificates for nothing. We would inform Hoffman & Co., not to send their trash to this office, as there is no one here, fool enough to be victimized by them. These lithographed letters are very extensively circulated over he country, and are well calculated to entrap the ignorant. Persons of ordinary sense or judgment do not need to be warn ed against such transparent swindles.

HEAVY ON THE MAN WITH THE BLUE RIBBON. - A young gentleman of this borough, whose name it is not necessary to It has many other instructive engravings and the literary contributors in this number are excellent. Published by Deacon & Peterson, Philadelphia. Terms $2.50 a year. W. U. Hess has it for sale.
