THE PAVEMENTS .- The pavements in certain localities are so miserable that to have made a wide swathe, and visited some of the Councilmen are ashamed of them, and the committee on repairs report to that august body that "nothing has been done," and their notifications go unheeded. Wonder what is to be done now? Let the pavements alone in their breakneck condition? The foot of the alley on of trees, carrying away hay and grain Second Street between Walnut and Locust, needs attention. Every time it rains, pedestrians are forced to go out into the middle of the street or wade through mud and water, and there is always a quantity of matter washed there, which is by no means of others whose names we could not learn salubriou. We have heard numerous complaints about our streets and alleys, and if it is not convenient to fix them up for the benefit of property holders, we hope it will be done for the credit and beauty of our borough, and the convenience of our

Another Storm.—Another storm of wind, rain and hail, almost approaching a tornado, passed over the southwestern section of the county last evening between four and five o'clock, doing much dainage to the buildings, crops, &c. It seems the townships of Manor, Conestoga and Pequa, probably further down, but we hear nothing of its ravages below the last named township. In Manor we hear of much destruction to tobacco and corn, and the tearing down of fences and uprooting stacks, &c. Among the suffers in Manor are Messrs. John H. Hershey, Benj. Breneman, Jas. Bones, John Warfel, Joseph Wright, Martin Miller, Henry Mellinger. John Neff, A. R. Witmer, and a number Mr. Warfel had the windows of his house blown in and wheat stacks carried away and many trees uprooted. The corn and tobacco in many places is totally destroyed, having been cut to pieces by the hail

At Safe Harbor the large bridge spanning the Conestoga was blown from the piers and one-half the timber carried for Rye, do, White Wheat, distance of half a mile. This bridge was Red built about thirty years years ago at an Rye, expense of $4.900 to the county. Several weeks ago it was struck by a storm, and considerably injured, and was just undergoing repairs when wrecked.

In Pequa, Henry Hess had his wagon shed blown down and many trees uprootlearn the names of the sufferers, or particular localities. The corn and tobacco was especially damaged by the hail stones, which are said to have been of remarkable size .- Express.

STATED MEETING OF COUNCIL -Met July 21st, and was catled to order by the President. Roll was called, absent Mr. Bruner. The minutes of June 16th were read and approved.

The Road Committee reported that the paving of the alley running from Front to 3rd Streets, between Locust and Cherry streets, had been completed, and several crossings made at the corner of 3rd and Perry streets.

The Finance Committee reported that $3.90 had been payed into the treasury for table rent by C. A. Hook. The Fire committee reported that the "Young America" was now stowed away in the cellar of the Town Hall. The Paving Committee presented the following report: Your committee reports that nothing has been done to the pavements heretofore reported on the north-east side of Fourth st., between Union and Mill streets, and on the south-west side of the same, between Locust and Walnut streets; also, that in different streets there is the utmost necessity that pavements should be made and repaired. In Porry street it is 2nd, street, between Perry and Mill streets, thare are no pavements at all. In 3rd st., of Bletz's Row. On the east side of Cherry st., between 4th and 5th sts, there is a great need of repairs.
