The most interesting and exciting book ever published, embracing Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years; traveling through the South in secret service of the "Tribune" at the out-

years; traveling through the South in secret service of the "Tribune" at the outbreak of the war, with our armies and fleets, both East and West. during the first two years of the Rebellion; his thrilling capture; his confinement for twenty months in seven different rebel prisons; his escape and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles. It will abound in stirring events, and contain more of the fact, incident and romance of the war than any other work published.

Horace Greely says:

"A great many books will yet be written concerning this War, in addition to the many already in print; but not one of them will give within a similar compass a clearer, fuller, more readable account, entirely from personal observation, of the nature, animus, purposes, tendencies and instrumentalities of the Slaveholders' rebellion than does the unpretending narrative of Mr. Richardson."

Teachers, ladies, energetic young men, and especially returned and, disabled officers and soldiers, in want of profitable employment, will find it peculiarly adapted to their condition. We have agents clearing $175 per month, which we will prove to any doubting applicant. Send for circulars. Address the war than any other work published.

Horace Greely says:

"A great many books will yet be written concerning this War, in addition to the many already in print; but not one of them will give within a similar compans a clearer, fuller, more readable account, entirely from personal observation, of the many airms, purposes, kendenders and instrumentalities of the Slaveholders' rebellion than does the unpretending narrative of Mr. Richardson.

Teachers, ladies, energetic young men, and especially returned and, disabled officers and soldiers, in want, of profitable employment, will find it peculiarly adaptated to their condition. We have agents eith pions are coupled by John Kendigsaid township, at the public house for example the complete state of the state of th
