Our Borough Charter.

MR. EDITOR:—I perceive by the proceedings of the Town Council, that a committee has been appointed to revise our Borough Charter. We hope the gentlemen composing the committee, will appreclate the responsibility of their appointment, and that their revision of the act of incorporation of our Borough will be commensurate with the progress and growing importance of our town.

We hope that they will distinctly keep in view that the period is not very remote, when the population of our Borough will be thrice what it is at the present time.
