SCARCITY OF HOUSES FOR RENT .--Among the renters of houses in this place at present, exist a splendid time. Houses for rent are scarce, and those who have them to rent demand such extravagant prices that the renter is, to use a vulgar phrase, " completely squelched." Every one who owns an extra house is anxious to sell and will not, on any account, rent.-Real estate has been bringing such high prices that those who have the good luck to own any have the selling fever instead of desiring to rent. Houses that were purchased soveral years ago are now being sold and bringing double the price paid for them. There is, at least forty houses for sale in Columbia, and we do not know of one for rent.

enrollment was accepted and assigned to the 118th Regiment; 5th Corps, and was there always found in the line of duty. Ho was highly esteemed as a soldier, and was equally beloved for his manliness, his inflexible integrity, unwavering regard and devotion to the cause in which he has suffered and died. He was wounded at the battle of Spottsylvania Court House and was carried to Fredericksburg from then co to the hospital at Washington. He was afterwards removed to York where at length he was konorably discharged the service, and returned to his home, still suffering from his wound and with disease contracted in camp, till finally, death came and relieved him of all pain. Let us

Another soldier has yielded up his life in defence of the Government and its laws against wicked and dastardly rebels. Another noble, generous, moral, intelligent and exemplary young man goue to an early grave on account of designing secessionists, and hell-deserving traitors.
Ilis death is surely a sad bereavement to his family and friends, by whom he was beloved, respected and honored.
When the hydra-headed monster-rebellion-first raised its head in Charleston harbor, he was among the first to enroll his name in the first company raised in Columbia, and served with it through the first three months of the war. Boing of rather a delicate frame he did not again to proud, too manly, too patriotic to pay commutation or hire a substitute, he honored in Stationery Store.
