

THE COLUMBIA SPY.

INDEPENDENT, FEARLESS & FREE.

COLUMBIA, PA.,
Saturday, Dec. 2, 1865.

—The associated Press employs a new yacht to meet all the European steamers at Cape Race. The object is to get the news while it is easy.

—The young lady who fainted away has been told by her family, that it would be more delicate for her to faint at home.

—A singular echo is said to reverberate around a great many petroleum wells. It says, "By-you-men!"

—Men of short memories and ministers are alike; the former are always forgetting and the latter always for getting.

—At Old Grey Friars, Edinburg we have:

Here said in a grave my wife doth lie,
Now she's at rest—and so am I.

The Baltimore Central R. R. we understand, is nearly completed, a distance of nine miles west of Oxford Borough.

The cars are expected to run regularly to the Rising Sun, Md. in about a month.

—Question by the defendant's counsel.

"Did my client enter into a positive agreement to marry you?"

Answer: "Not exactly; but he counted me a good deal, and he told my sister Jane that he intended to marry in our family."

—Already nearly three thousand applications are on file for the four hundred and fifty-three vacant Lieutenancies in the regular army, to be filled by appointment of volunteer officers who have seen two years' service.

—Even the tenderest plants force their way up through the hardest earth, and the crovics of rocks; but a man no material power can resist. What a wedge, what a beetle, what a catapult, is an earnest man! What can resist him?

—At a piano forte warehouse in New York a weary young workman got into a box containing an upright piano, partly packed, and went to sleep on the straw. He was missed, but not discovered, and the box cover was quietly screwed on.

The weary young man was presently awakened by the rudo shock occasioned by removing the box to the wagon in the street, and found himself standing upon his head. After the elapse of some moments he made himself heard and was released, but not until he was well-nigh suffocated.

—Don't be foolish.—You can make Six Dollars from Fifty Cents! Call and examine an invention urgently needed by everybody. Or a sample sent free by mail for 50c. that retails easily for $6 by R. L. Wolcott; 170 Chatham Square, New York.
