

Local Department.

To Correspondents.

Communications, letters, contributions, generally of interest to the reader, will be accepted from all sources.

R. D.—We have received your manuscript—cannot publish it. Your writing is good and the subject good.

Hurt—You may be right in your opinion, but we must continue to believe our first impression is right.

Suscriptions.—Yes, we exchange with the periodical you name—that is paper for paper.

Overseer—You are sharp, a "munchy" shouldn't wonder that you are a great literary gentleman.

Justice—Your communication will do, but you should never write a private letter to the editor on the printer's copy.

Call and see the splendid articles, consisting of a Ladies' Fine Gold Watch, Fruit and Cake Stands, Ice Pitcher, Butter Dish, Caster, Butter Knives, Spoons, Forks and Green Vases to be "chanced off" at the Fair of the Columbia Fire Company, at E. Spring's Jewelry Store.

Foley's Celebrated Gold Pens, at W. U. Hess's Book Store. An entire new stock of Gold Pens with holders and Gold Pencils, just received and for sale at very reasonable prices.

REAL ESTATE SALES.—H. W. Gray, trustee for Lancaster County Iron Ore Co., sold on Wednesday last, the Kauffman Farm, in West Hempfield Township to Geo. H. Rumpke, for $15,000.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.—The fourth regular public temperance meeting, under the auspices of the Good Templars, will be held in the German Reformed Church, on Monday evening, Dec. 10th, at 7 o'clock.

A NEW MAGAZINE.—Beadle & Co., 118 William street, New York, have commenced the publication of a new monthly, entitled, "Beadle's Monthly Magazine of Today."

PRIVATE DANCE.—On Wednesday evening last the Improved Order of Red Men enjoyed a social dance in the Odd Fellows' Hall.

FESTIVAL AND FAIR.—The Ladies of the Episcopal Church of our town are preparing an entertainment for our citizens, and we advise all to go to Odd Fellows' Hall on Tuesday evening, and Wednesday afternoon and evening.

FIRE CO. FAIR.—The Columbia Fire Engine & Hose Company will hold a Fair in Odd Fellows' Hall, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings next, for the purpose of raising means to build a new Engine House.

GOOD WORKMANSHIP.—Mr. Christian Myers, Carriage Maker just finished a carriage, or rather an express wagon, for Mr. S. C. Stahl, wholesale dealer in Wood and Willow Ware, Philadelphia, which is one of the best of the kind that has ever been put up in this place.

NECESSARY PROOF OF LOVE.—"Well Ann, you have consented to be the wife of Mr. White?" "No, Sally, I didn't quite consent."

TALENT NOT APPRECIATED.

A strolling band of minstrels appeared in town on Thursday last, and with a great flourish of trumpets they thought "to take the town." They call themselves "Newcomb and Arlington's Minstrels," and advertise 22 talented performers, but we suppose some of the lesser lights they count twice as there were only 10 or 12 performers.

THE HOME FOR FRIENDLESS CHILDREN.—E. M. Black, Secretary of the Institution, appears to the citizens of the County, in his behalf.

A CARD.—The subscriber respectfully calls attention of all who use Segars, Tobacco, Snuff, &c., to his advertisement in today's paper.

GEN. J. W. FISHER—A DESERVED PROMOTION.—At this late day we are pleased to chronicle the fact that our fellow-townsmen has received a "star" for meritorious services.

IRON CITY COMMERCIAL COLLEGE AND TELEGRAPHIC INSTITUTE.—E. W. Jenkins, J. C. Smith, A. M., Alex. Cowley, Principals, First College Building, corner Penn and Second Streets.
