Notice to Subscribers.

The terms of the Spy are $2.50 per annum. A reduction of 50 cents will be made when paid in advance.

To Correspondents.

Communications, letters, contributions, generally of merit and interest to the reader, will be acceptable from friends from all quarters.

Progress.

Yes, we find those persons ever ready to justify the enterprise of any person who undertakes to do anything calculated to benefit the community in which they are permitted to live.

Jeff.

We are not acquainted with the circumstances about which you write. Did not know that such a thing had ever happened.

M. A.

We received your letter and have attended to your commands. Will write you.

Columbia "Spy" Calendar.

Calendar table for 1866 showing days of the week and months.

NEW YEAR'S DAY was observed in this place in a creditable manner. Places of business were all closed, and the New Year was received very respectfully.

THANKS.—To those of our patrons who "came down" liberally, our carrier returns his sincere thanks and to those "came down" lightly he also has a word, but to those who did not remember him he has nothing to say.

FIREMEN'S BALL.—The Ball of the Columbia Fire Co., held on New Year's evening was one of the largest ever assembled in Odd Fellows' Hall.

It will be seen by an advertisement in another column that Messrs. Lesher & Williams have bought out the well known Photograph gallery of Geo. A. Myers.

LT. GEN. GRANT'S REPORT.—Beadle & Co., 115 William Street, New York, publishes a neat pocket edition of Lieut. General Grant's Report, price one dime.

"THE PITTSBURGH LEADER," one of the best literary papers in the State has been enlarged and beautified, which is an evidence of its prosperity.

QUADRILLE PARTY.—The first party of the "Junior Bachelors" was held in the Hall on Friday evening, 23d ult.

OUR MINSTRELS.—On New Year's evening the "Muscodoras" were again in full costume. They visited several private residences, and closed their night's performances by not forgetting the printer.

SLIPPERY.—Ladies are greatly inconvenienced by the slippery condition of the pavements in many parts of the city.

NEWSPAPER STEALERS AND BORROWERS.—We have heard much complained lately about this class of persons, who seem to infest all portions of the town.

REFUSED.—The preliminary injunction asked for by the Town Council of this Borough, to restrain the Columbia & Port Deposit Rail Road Co. from building their road, on and along Front St., was refused by his Honor, Judge Long, on Tuesday last.

MARRIED.—On the 2nd inst., by the Rev. G. W. Miles Rigor, Mr. Isaac H. Hines, and Mrs. Mary Ann Peterman, both of Columbia.
