Goblet and Waiter to Mr. Samuel Grove, Sup't of the Sabbath School. It was purchased by the Scholars and Teachers and presented to Mr. Grove by Rev. Wm. Major, in a neat and appropriate address. Mr. Grove responded with a few remarks but was so much surprised that he could not command his feelings. We should suppose that to receive such a present, without any previous knowledge, would deprive us of speech altogether. Don't do it, anybody, we entreat you.

SLEIGHING .- Our young folks made good use of the sleighing during the past week. "Jingle, jingle," the bells were going all the time and many a bonnie lassie was made happy by taking a trip with her gallant.

On Tuesday evening last a merry party of young folks hook-ed up their horses and started for Lancaster. They went out the pike making the air resound with,

"Merrily, merrily, on we go, Gliding o'er the fleecy snow.

Without receiving any knocks, they arrived all (w)right at Cooper's. Music was soon obtained and the dining room cleared and not " caring whether the school master was around or not," they joined in the "mazy." "Abe" was along and he informs us that they had a delightful time, and that they experienced no danger of wither-ing as long as they were at Cooper's Railroad, was killed on Saturday afterfor want of wines, as Bill keeps the best -and of the latest date. They arrived safe-· Iy at home with clear craniums, well satisfied with the hospitality of Lancasterians.

REMEMBER THE Poor .- This is an nnpleasant subject. We do not mean to say that to romember the needy is unpleasant, but it is unpleasant to publish the fact to the world that in Columbia we have persons who are actually starving for were brought to the public house of Mr. the necessaries of life. In conversation Samuel H. Lockard, in this borough, where with a gentleman on Wednesday evening, he boarded, and were cared for by the Orwe were informed that a short time since, der of Red Men. A deputation of the order a couple of Ladies were on a certain street, took charge of the remains and conveyed soliciting subscriptions for the Freedmen, them to York County where his parents and on that same street were no less than reside. three families belonging to the same congregation who were greatly in need of food. Another case came to our ears of a family who were visited by a humane gentleman, and found that they had not a mouthful of food, or a bushel of coal in the point on the public road from the Col'a & to be collected, but not sufficient to liquihouse. He supplied their wants as well as he possibly could. These are only isolated occupied by Henry E. Wolfe, as tenant of cases. We could name several more but C. S. Kauffman. We are glad to see this, we are ashamed to give them publicity .-and hope no obstruction will be placed in Why is something not done to relieve the way of said street being opened. We them? Every day we hear of the great efforts that are being made to relieve the suffering Freedmen, but not a word do we hear of the suffering poor, both white and black, of Columbia. We would say to the be. Now let us keep the good work movliberal and wealthy of Columbia and vicin- ing and we shall soon see hundreds of new ity, let the Freedmen alone, let the Government attend to their wants as they are now doing, and let your contributions be given to those at home, and then after their pressing wants are satisfied, if you wish, you can aid the Freedmen. Our Ministers should urge this matter upon their respective congregations, and not be over-zealous in regard to those whom the
