To Correspondents.

Communications, letters, contributions, generally of merit and interest to the reader, will be acceptable from friends from all quarters

JIM.—Yes, we remember "down in old Virginny," but that has nothing to do with the pres-, ent arrangement.

VALENTINE .- We appreciate your effort .to "sock" us,and will not be offended if you proceed and "dress" us out entire.

H. M. J.—We would like to accommodate you, but your communication cannot appear for various reasons, one of which is, we cannot find time to re-write articles.

J. K.-We cannot do anything for you an that line. Have not the will even if we had the S. K.—Received your Mss. Glad to hear from you again. We appreciate the sentiments expressed.

pressed.

JOE.—The last we heard of "old Tred." he was about Blairsvile. He had taken the idea into his head that there were large stores of petroleum treasured up in the vast subterranean reservoirs which are supposed to exist at some indefinite depth below the surface of a delightful portion of Indiana County. Whether he has struck "ile" or not we are unable to say.

COAL MARKET.—Messis. Bruner & Moore report the prices of coal as follows, delivered anywhere in Columbia;

Baltimore Company, No. 2 & 3, $8,50, No. 5, $6,25; No. 4, $8,25; Lump Coal, $7,50; Lyken's Valley stove and egg, $9,00: nut, $7,50; Shamokin stove, $8,25; nut, $6,25 a $6,50. Schuylkill county stove, $7,50.

To Sportsmen.-The sporting season is now past and any person killing any wild duck, partridge, rabbit or insectiverous bird, subjects himself to a fine of five dollars for each one killed. Our sportsmen should see that the requirements of the law , are fully complied with and carried out.

THE RIVER.—The late rise in the river did not have the effect of breaking up the ice, though much of it gave way near the shore, rendering the crossing of wehicles impossible. The cold snap on Thursday night again tightened things up.

LECTURE.—A Temperance Lecture, under the auspices of Hope Lodge, will be delivered some evening during the coming week by Dr. Jewett, of Norwich, Conu.-The Dr. is an able speaker and all will be happily entertained. The time and place of lecture will be announced by bills. *

Good.-The worthy Treasurer of the "Junior Bachelors," found, after squaring accounts, that the sum of $11.54 was on hand, and by a unanimous vote of the Club, it was handed over to J. C. Pfahler, Treas, of the Relief Society for the benefit of the poor. Verily, some good can come out of "tripping the fantastic toe."

M. M. Strickler's sale of Real Estate takes place to-day. A second sale will take place on Tuesday, 20th inst., at which he will offer eight of cattle, farming implements, and a large assortment of household and kitchen furniture. See advertisement.

P. S. McTague will sell valuable real estate, this evening at the Franklin House, at 7 o'clock.

REMOVED .- I. O. Bruner has removed his dry goods store to Wilson's Building, on Front Street above Locust. He has fitted up complete store rooms and has just added a new and desirable stock of in that line, who exerted himself as usual goods, which he offers at reduced prices. In that line, who exerted ministricts to contribute to the pleasure of all. The Mr. B. is a close buyer, and offers his goods at a very small advance above cost. Call and see him. Read his advertisement in another column.

THE CONCERT .- The concert given on Monday evening by Prof, Joseph Parry and others of Danville, Pa., was a decided success. The room was full to overflowing, and all seemed delighted with the ontertainment. The Welsh Glee Club of this place who volunteered their musical talents upon the occasion, deserve much credit for their zeal in a good cause, as well as their untiring efforts to accomodate and please the audience.

FIREMEN'S BALL.-On Tuesday evening, 20th inst., the Ball of the Columbia Fire Company will come off. Great arrangements are being made for a splendid time, and we hope to see a respectable turn-out. Our citizens should encourage this company with substantial aid by purchasing lickets, whether they attend the the great civil war in the United States. dance or not, as the means obtained are to be used in building an Engine and Hose House that will be a credit to the Borough.

THE East Pennsylvania Conference of the U. B. Church, will meet in annual which are offered under the name of Hissession, in Columbia, on the morning of the 22nd of February, and continue about one week. From sixty to eighty ministers, including Bishop Glossbrenner of Va., Bishop Markwood of Ind., and Ex-Bishops Erb of Pa., Russel of Md., and Kumler of Ohio, are expected to be present.

There will be preaching services in the U. B. Church on to-morrow at 10 o'clock A. M. and 6.30 P. M., and on each evening during the week and the sitting of Conference. The sessions of Conference will be open to all who may desire to attend them. All are invited to come.

their annual supper at their Hall on Thursfrom the committee having the matter in charge, that it promises to be one of the most magnificent banquets ever given in this place. We believe none but the "faithful" will be admited. Several eminent orators are invited to be present on the occasion. The members of "Shawnee" are all good and true, whole-souled, liberal-hearted, enterprising gentlemen, and get along harmoniously. Their object is a noble one-their aim the noblest of all philanthrophy. They seek to provide food for the hungry, and clothing for the naked. They seek the reliet of widowhood and orphancy. They desire to befriend the stranger in distress-to relieve the wants of the poor and the destitute, and make men holier by making them happier, to fulfill the great injunction of sacred writ: "Bear you one another's burden, and so fulfil the whole love of Christ." Their motto is-

We live for those that love us, For those who know us true, For Heaven that smiles above us. For the cause that needs assistance, For the future in the distance, For the good that we can do, denary sermon will be preached at the M. E. Church, by the pastor, Rev. Wm. Major, next Sunday morning at 10 .o'clock. All are invited to attend.

"EVENING DISPATCIL."-A new daily has just made its appearance in Reading, Pa., called the Evening Dispatch. It is a twenty-eight column paper, published by Laciar & Co., and gives evidence of an hand, including 78 barrels of whisky, had amount of mental and mechanical labor, which must recommend it to the reading dition to this seizure, Messrs. Cookson, public. It is got up in a style of excelence scarcely surpassed by any other daily, and is well worthy the cordial support of the people of Reading. DESERVED COMPLIMENT -While ic Philadelphia a few days ago, we were shown a handsome silver medal gotten up by a few of the friends and patrons of the establishment of E. Worrell & Co., and presented to them for getting up the best and most fushionable clothing in the city. This is a well deserved compliment and shows conclusively the high appreciation in which these gentlemen are held as merchant tailors. Our friends visiting Philadelphia should, by all means call at their elegant establishment, 819 Arch street, and examine their stock. They are making ip their winter stock of goods at greatly reduced prices, in order to get ready for spring business.

LENT.-Wednesday, 14th inst., was the first day of Lent. Since the Savior endured the terrible trial and temptation in the wilderness for forty days the annual recurrence of the season has been generally observed by several branches of the christian and by the Catholic Church .-Bishop Wood has issued the following circular in reference to the present Lent;

1. All the faithful who have completed their twenty first year are bound to observe the first of Lent, unless dispensed for legithmate reasons.

2. One meal a day only is allowed, except on Sunday. days.

3 This meal is not to be taken until about noon.

4 On those days on which permission is granted to eat meat, both meat and fish are not to be used at the same meal, even by way of condiment.

5. A collation, or partial meal, is allowed in the evening. The general practice of the pious christians limits its quantity to the fourth part of an ordinary meal.

nary meal.

6. Bread, butter, cheese, fruit of all kinds, salads, regetables and tish, are permitted at the collation.— Milk and eggs are prohibited.

9. The following persons are not bound to observe the fast, viz: All under twenty-one years of age; the sick; pregnant women, and those giving suck to infants; those who are obliged to do hard work; and all who, through weakness, canoot fast without injury to their health,

10. By dispensation, the use of flesh meat will be allowed at any time on Sanday, and once a day on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturday, with the exception of foly Thursday, and the second and last Saturdays in Lent.

11. Persons exempted from the obligations of fasting, by age or laborious occupation, are not restricted to the use of meat at one meal only, on those days on which its use is granted by dispensation.

THE HOP .- The grand "hop' given by the "Junior Bachelors" of this place, on Tuesday evening last was the grandest affair of the season. The music by Prof. Keffer and his able assistants was all that the most fastidious could have desired .-The "beauty and chivalry" of Lancaster were well represented on the occasion, and loud were their praises of the manner of 'doing things" in Columbia. Our modest friend Sanderson of the editorial staff of the Lancaster Intelligencer seemed in his glory, and looking as pretty as a picture. And the fair ones, how shall we speak of them, only to say "All were witty,

All were prefty,
Witty and prefty as they could be." The floor was under the superintendence refreshments were served in the usual good style of W. B. Smith who fully understands this important branch of the business. The Janitor of the Hall, Mr. Daniel Cully, is the right man in the right place, as he is always on the alert to make his guests comfortable and is courteous and affable to all of respectful mein and good behavior.

The festivities were kept up until the wee small hours when all departed well of Locust street, and if the proper spirit is satisfied with the night's enjoyment.

This is the last of a series of the most attach a nail factory to the same. LION.—In another column will be found the advertisement of Headley's history of The book is perfectly reliable and embraces an authentic account of the whole contest. This work differs widely from the dry and barren catalogues of mere facts; devoid of interest to the reader, iories of the War.

Digesting and combining in his own peculiar and masterly manner, and presenting the whole in his brilliant attractive style, Mr. Headley, makes every page glow with the facination of romance. He brings his reader into the immediate presence of the act he describes, and under his powerful pen the momentous scenes of the war pass in review with the vividness and distinctness of a present and living reality.

The Work is profusely Illustrated with Engravings on steel, from original Designs by Darley, Parsons, and other eminent Artists-embracing Militay and ANNIVERSARY SUPPER. -- Shawnee Naval scenes, and Portraits of leading ac-Encampment, No. 23, I. We learn from the American press,—the Engravings alone being worth the price of the Book .-

No library is complete without it. FRAUDS ON REVENUE LAWS .-- For some weeks past, says the Examiner, rumors have been circulated upon the streets. that certain prominent distillers in the county, had been detected in large frauds upon the Government, said frauds consisttng in the parties not making a correct return of the whisky distilled, and thereby cheating the Government out of the excise tax of $2, upon every gallon. On Saturday last J. K. Alexander, Esq., the Assessor for this District, had a hearing of the case, from which it appeared that information of these companies, pay more than double was given by George H. A magnificent reception chair will be voted for at the fair of the German Reformed Church, to be presented to the minister having the largest number of votes. The fair takes place in Odd Fellows' Hall on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday next.

THE March number of the Ladies Friend is already out and a beautiful one it is. "The Impending Ruin," a fine and expressive steel engraving, illustrative of a story of the same name, leads off the number. The double colored steel Fashion Plate is a handsome one, and the dresses are such as ladies of good taste can appreciate. Engravings of a Carriagedress, Pelerine, Home-dress, Child's dresss, 'Fanchon' Bonnet, &c. The music for this month is the "Richmond Polk." The literary contents are excellent. "Marrying an Indian, and How I came to do it.' a very well told story. Terms $2.50 a year; 2 copies $4.00. Address Deacon & Peter-319 Walnut street, Philadelphia. W. U. Hess has it for sale.

Our own Matters. MR. EDITOR :- Nature appears to have arranged the destinies of man so as to require not only social, but commercial relations to be performed in good faith .-None are exempt from reciprocal obligations, and where these obligations are performed, she has so arranged her bounties that all may have enough and to spare .-Every community is afflicted with those whom accident has thrown into possession of more of the bounties of nature than is necessary for their support, who not only play dog-in-the-manger with all they possess, but go growling along like their prototype, with both feet in the trough of nature trying to crowd everybody else out, whom they mistake for swine like themselves. Others are mulish, and again others appear to be a cross breed possessing a mixture of the disposition of all dumb brutes, particularly the dumb .-They are too dumb to ever learn their duty towards civilization; and use every argument in their power to prove that the human family are all as dumb as brutes .-They assume to be prophets; oppose all improvements, do nothing themselves, prophecy a failure of every enterprise projected by others, and when any of their fellow men, meet with a reverse of fortune, chuckle with an idiotic smile of wisdom and exclaim, I told you so; I told you to keep out of that business! It appears from the following Photographic Sketch that these animals are of no modern invention:

"Of all the horrid, hideous notes of woe, Sadder than owl songs on the midaight blast, Is that portentious phrase, I told you so, Uttered by friends, those prophets of the past." Some of our enterprising citizens propose building a Rolling Mill near the foot shown on the part of those interested, to say, $90,000 per year; of this, $60,000 will in market. Is there a merchant or butcher dollars per day added to his trade, or less than $500 per year additional profit in his HEADLEY'S HISTORY OF THE REBEL-business from this source?

Then whose bread is to be buttered by this enterprise more than these two classes? Railroads, our Rolling Mills and other improvements have nearly doubled the value of real estate during the last two years and made a demand for a hundred more houses; this projected enterprise will still further advance real estate and make a demand for a hundred more, so that every person owning building lots has a large indirect interest in securing its completion. Farmers especially, have a direct interest in securing a better market and an indirect one, increasing the value of their farms. This company will be incorporated under the general manufacturing laws of this State, so that each one can subscribe in proportion to his means,-Our merchants and property holders should immediately adopt ways and means to have the proper amount subscribed and thereby create a permanent increase of our trade. Three-fourths of all the money paid out for labor, is spent in the place where it is paid out, and there is no business transaction which benefits the whole community in the same proportion as the wages paid for labor. Pennsylvania manufactures three-fourths of all the iron made in the United States and can control the market if she will do her duty and choose to do so. Lancaster county is the richest agricultural county in the United States, and the pride of her rich farmers should be sufficient to prevent the stocks of companies formed for the purpose of working up her own mineral into useful and necessary articles, from going a begging in the market. The Rolling Mills and Nail Factories are owned by the richest men and richest companies in the State, and although there may be times that the business does not pay as well as other stocks; in the aggregate the stocks appeared that Benjamin M. Stauffer, of is flowing. Shall we tube the well and let

HEADLEY'S HISTORY of the GREAT REBELLION.—The late Rebellion stands out peculiar and extraordinary in human event, and the magnificent scale upon which the war has been conducted constitute it one of the grandest and most brilliant chapters of the world's history. Mr. Headley, of all writers, is perhaps best qualified to portray the stupendous features of the mighty contest. His previous works on less momentous themes have placed him in the first position, as a graph-ic and powerful delineator of war scenes and powerful delineator of war scenes and characters, and the magnitude and grandeur of the present subject, impart to his pen the fire and vigor of a yet more exalted inspiration, and furnish annole scope for the highest exhibition of his peculiar genius for military description. Under his powerful pen the stirring scenes of the War mass in review with the vicilpass and War pass in review with the vividness and distinctness of a present and living reality while his great talent for condensation enables him to embody everything of impor-tance in a compass just suited to the public want. From no other source can so clear and comprehensive an impression of the grand march of events be obtained, so easily and agreeably, as from, Mr. Headly's Other Histories have been issued before Grant's Report and other Official Documents were submitted to the Government, and are therefore unreliable. Mr. Headley has dealyed the completion of this fill those documents so essential to authenticity and correctness could be obtained.

The Second Volume, completing this Work, will be issued in March, 1866. Agents wanted to engage in its sale in every town and county in the United States. Liberal inducements offered. For particulars apply to or address, AMERICAN PUDLISHING COMPANY 148 Asylum Street, Hartford, Conn.
