A Remance in Real Life. The following story is told concerning a party now residing near Rochester, N.

Y., and declared to be true: " About the spring of the year 1850, Mr. Garnett, living near Auburn, N. Y. was arrested for forgery. He was tried, found guilty, and sentenced to three years in the State Prison at Auburn. He denied his guilt to the end, and being a man of very sensitive feelings, and having a wife and family, it bore quite heavy ppon him. He s rved his time, and was released a mere wreck of his former self, despised by his once loving wife, who refused to live with him, and shunned him as a guilty culprit. Sad and brokenhearted, he disposed of his property and went to central Pennsylvania, where he married a beautiful and excellent young

"They lived happy and prospered .-Several years after his departure the first wife became fully convinced that he was innocent and had been wronge l. This conviction proved true by the death-bed confession of a man acknowledging the commission of the crime of which Mr. Garnett had been convicted. The sorrowing woman repented her former act, and with a friend went in pursuit of her. discarded husband, whom she seemed to expect to find somewhere in Pennsylvania

"After a search of several weeks they, at length arrived in the neighborhood of the object of their search. Just at dark they drove up to the door of a snug and pleasant little cottage, when Mrs. Garnett entered the house, and thence she beheld har once loved husband apparently happy in the society of his second wife. She rushed up to him, and throwing her arms about his neck, wept bitterly. Soon the scane became affecting the two wives is invited. clinging to him, each claiming him as her hughand.

"After calming their feelings, and candidly considering the case, the second wife decided to give up the husband, claim. After a few days Mr. Garnett side. The second wife makes them an annual visit, and Mr G. keeps her supplied with all the necessaries of life.

Warning to Mothers.

A distressing-case of death by suffocation has been reported to us, which, for the benefit of parents, and especially mothers, who are disposed to be overeareful with their children, and thereby run the risk of "killing them with kindness," as in this instance, we will give the particulars as related to us. A lady (whose name we are requested not to publish,) living not many miles from this city, wishing to see a near neighbor, took occasion to leave home while her little infant was asleep-not, however, until she had taken the precaution to cover it up head and ears in her own bed. Feeling entirely satisfied with regard to the safety of her child, she paid her intended visit, and in a short time returned in company with her mother. As was natural, the two repaired immediately to the bed to see the sleeping babe, and upon turning down the cover, what was their surprise and horror to find the dear little one stiff and cold in death. Its mother immediately gave yent to the most heart-rending cries, and every effort was made to restore life; but all to no avail. We believe it was the only child of its parents, and their distress at the unfortunate event can be better imagined than described .-We have often known persons to cover up their infants' heads while asleep; but; in our opinion, this should never be done, and the case above recited confirms us in Hot coffee and all other refreshments calor awake, breathe the pure, fresh air of

A compound remedy, designed to be the most effectual Alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the discases Sursaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellowcitizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints : — SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AF-RECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEU-RALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYS-PEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSTPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great pro-This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, cruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no asting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla. or any thing else.

During late years the public have been mis-led by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for pelieving it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on
