SADNESS .- There is a mysterious feeling that frequently passes like a cloud over the spirit. It comes upon the soul in the busy bustle of life, in the social circle, in the calm and silent retreat of solitude. Its power is alike supreme over the weak, and the iron-hearted .--At one time it is caused by a single thought across the mind. Again, a sound will come booming across the ocean of memory, gloomy and solemn as the death knell overshadowing all the bright hopes and sunny feelings of the heart. Who can describe it, and who has not felt its dimming the sunshine of the river, although casting a momentary shade of gloom, it enhances the beauty of returning brightness.
