THE NEWS.

The first election under the city charter of Titusville, Pa., was held on Friday, and resulted in the success of the People's ticket.

The European steamers from New York on Saturday took out $213,000 in specie.

Christian Berger is to be executed on the 27th of April, for the murder of Miss Mary L. Watts, at Germantown.

Eleven forts on the north of the Potomac have been dismantled. Several yet remain, and they afford ample protection for Washington.

A fire in Minneapolis, Minnesota, on Friday night, destroyed twenty buildings and caused a loss of $100,000.

Gen. Lee's Arlington estate belongs to the government, having been purchased at a sale of the non-payment of taxes.

The cholera is reported to have appeared at Mobile.

The Kentucky Soldiers' Convention meets at Louisville April 17th, and officers who served in Kentucky regiments are invited.

By a communication of the Secretary of War to the House of Representatives it appears that the army consists of 7943 officers and 152,611 men. The estimate of the annual expense of the army as now organized is $120,802,878

ON Wednesday last, says the Philadelphia Saturday Night, a United States Senator was removed from his seat in the Senate Chamber in a state of worse than beastly intoxication.

The American people have, to a degree, become accustomed to spectacles of this kind from public men, and they fain accept drunkenness as a necessary vice in the men who hold the reins of Government. There are two other men, Senators of the United States, the highest, and noblest, and most responsible office in the gift of the people, after the Presidency, who to our personal knowledge, seldom appear in their seats in the Senate Chamber in a sober condition, and yet, term after term, they are returned by a constituency that is bought with money, or that follows blindly the lead of the partisan politicians who make the nominations.

We do not expect to find perfection in our public men, we do not even insist that they should always be stern moralists, or consistent Christians, but we have a right to demand that they shall have such a sense of decency, such a regard for the honor of their office as to control their lawless passions, and to refrain from indulgence in a vice, that cannot be other than loathsome and degrading.

The fact that at least three Senators appear in their seats, senseless with the fumes of liquor, is a dishonor to the office, a disgrace to the States they represent, and a foul insult to the American nation.

If there ever was a time, since the Revolution, when the dearest interests of the country demanded the protection and fostering care of wise and judicious legislation, it is the present. If there ever was a time when stern integrity, pure patriotism, and the most sagacious statesmanship was called for, it is the present time, when four years of terrible civil war have disorganized the machinery of State, and perplexing questions that imperatively demand solution, are daily presenting themselves. But instead of emerging from the furnace of affliction, purified, refined and strengthened, we seem to have been only hardened, to have had all nobler instincts seared and burned out of us.

These drunken sots hold in their hands the vital interests of thirty-three millions of people. They represent a grander and more splendid constituency than it ever fell to the lot of human beings to represent before, and how do they perform their fearfully responsible duties? From the North where the hum of industry is not heard as it once was, to the South, where devastated and ruined fields, drenched with blood, and whitened with the bones of our bravest and best, lie barren and unfruitful, men sit watching and waiting, and hoping for those words which they have a right to hear, which shall give work to the Northern laborer, and bread to the Southern freedmen, which shall whiten the sea with sails, and establish once more free and restrained intercourse between all sections of this stricken land. But they are not spoken. It must be a clear head that would prompt their utterance, not a brain delirious with the fumes of alcohol. It is Nero fiddling while Rome is burning, it is the jingling of the fool's bells over the graves of a million brave men, who sacrificed themselves to save their country.

Editorial and Miscellaneous.

—Samuel Grove is selling off his large assortment of boots and shoes at cost.

—Gen. J. W. Fisher will collect soldier's back pay, bounty, &c., free of charge.

—W. Righter advertises a first-class Top Buggy for sale.

—The alarm of fire on Tuesday evening last, was caused by the burning of a flue at the residence of Geo. Tille, Locust street, below 3rd.

—Housekeepers—Call at the Family Medicine Store and get Mrs. Winslow's latest receipt book, free.

—Millinery and Straw Goods.—Read card of J. W. Calver & Co., in this issue. A full stock of goods in their line just opened. Give them a call.

—Mr. Henry Harper, 520 Arch St., Philad'a. has in store a large stock of Watches, fine jewelry, silver ware., &c., &c., which he is selling at reduced prices. Read his card.

—J. S. Snyder is making improvements in his storeroom, foot of Locust street, for the purpose of keeping dry goods, in connection with the boot and shoe business.

—Christian Myers, Coach Maker is making extensive improvements to his shops on Second street—putting in a steam engine, and enlarging his buildings.

—Wm. U. Hess sells at his book store, a cement which he guarantees as successful in mending china, glass, wood, marble, pearl, leather or ivory. Give it a trial. Price, only 30cts.

—We have received from Messrs. Shaw and Clark a sewing machine, as advertised in another column of our paper. We are highly pleased with it. It is "a thing of beauty," and works to a charm—indeed it does its work as well as the seventy-five dollar machine now used in our family.

—One of the most astonishing things in these latter days is the fact that you can go to I. O. Bruner, Front street, above Locust and buy boots, shoes, dry goods, &c., at as cheap rates as you can buy the same in Philadelphia. Go to his store and examine for yourselves—he sells for the cash though!

—In what color should a secret be kept?—In violet.

—Some men's minds are so badly tumbled that they can't be made up.

—There are in the vaults of the Treasury Department 14,264,000 dollars in five dollar notes. The total amount of all denominations is $110,000,000.

—The orange and jessamine trees in the vicinity of Mobile, Ala., were killed, and the fig crop destroyed by the late severe cold.

—The fair held at Portland last week, for the benefit of the freedmen, was quite successful, and realized about $10,000.

—"Ha!" exclaimed Mr. John Thomas, standing with his coat-tail drawn forward and his back to the kitchen fire, "I've heer'd a good deal about the cattle complaint, but am appy to say it aven't yet attacked my calves."

A society has been organized in Basle, Switzerland, to Bundesverfassungsverwerfungsvolksversammelungsbeschluss. As it is a reform movement, a good many people join just for the name of it.

—A smart young lawyer's clerk, hearing it stated by a lecturer, that "man is merely a machine," remarked, "then I supose an attorney may be said to be a suing machine."

—The cars on the Phila. & Balt. Central Rail Road, run regular trips from Oxford to Rising Sun, M. D.

—From recent scientific investigations in Europe it has been shown most conclusively that in localities where impure water has been drank by the inhabitants the cholera has principally raged, proving impure water to be one of the chief causes of cholera.

—The Public Ledger of Philadelphia, speaks of the continued high price of printing paper. All the publishers know and feel its effect. That paper says that the high price of paper still continues, and the Ledger is published at a loss of over one hundred dollars a day on its circulation. The Ledger lives entirely upon its heavy advertizing patronage

—A Fact Heretofore Unadvertised.—The daily sales of Phalon's "Night Blooming Cereus" exceed by more than one hundred per cent. those of any ten other perfumes for the handkerchiefs that figure in the list of choice extracts, whether original or imitations of French and English articles. Sold everywhere.

—A negro woman of Weston, Lewis county, West Virginia, hatched a chicken by keeping the egg warm in her bosom. Who is the mother of the chicken?

The Macon, Ga, Telegraph of March 2, says, respecting Mrs. Jefferson Davis: "This lady has been for several days sojourning in our city, the guest of Mrs. Howell Cobb; but yesterday she left, having for the first time since the close of the war received permission to leave the State of Georgia, where she had been living all the while, notwithstanding the many reports that she and her family were in Canada. But it is her intention to reside in Canada hereafter."

Safe Investment.

Elsewhere in to-day's paper will be found the advertisement of the "Reno Oil and Land Co." Their estate is one of the most extensive in the Petroleum Region, and presents room for one thousand wells without interfering with each other. It is one of the most reliable companies ever organized, as it will be seen that men of enterprise, business and national reputation are engaged in it. It is not a mere speculation, but a legitimate business. The stock is so guaranteed against loss by deposit in the National Treasury, or investment in Government Securities, that it becomes virtually a Legal Tender Oil Stock. Every share will be redeemed at par on presentation at the office of the Company. We may venture the belief, however, that under the management of the gentlemen of the Board, and with the immense development fund, the profit will be so large that no holder of Reno stock will ever care to have his money refunded.

—A man charged with an intention to assassinate Parson Brownlow, of Tennessee, has been arrested in Mississippi. He was ordered to Nashville for trial before a military commission.

—A ghost eight feet high and proportionately horrid, has been seen in Wheeling "by a man."

—There will be a total eclipse of the moon on the evening of the 30th, inst. It will begin at five minutes past nine, and will reach its total at 12 minutes past 10 o'clock. It will be visible throughout the United States.

—Mr. Peterson, in whose house President Lincoln died, has received 293 50 from the Government for alleged damages to his furniture, &c. Among the items charged in the bill was one of $150 for injuries done his carpets, $50 for personal services, $2 for gas. Another charge for loss of time, for several weeks after the assassination, in exhibiting the room, was disallowed.

—A young man and a young woman in Berkshire County, Mass., went to a clergyman to be married, lately, and stood up to have the ceremony performed, when the inquiry was made by the expectant bride if the young man would agree to abstain from the use of intoxicating liquors. This he declined to do, and the parties went home unmarried.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

SOLDIERS.

Soldiers who have served in the armies of the Union, children, mothers, everybody that has got a bad cold, croup, Whooping cough, or is troubled with any lung or throat complaints, we advise you to use Coe's cough balsam, the cheapest and best cough preparation in the world.

And when you have the Dyspepsia, or are troubled with Consumption—the great cause of ill health—or any trouble of the stomach or bowels, use Coe's Dyspepsia Cure immediately.

DEAFNESS, BLINDNESS AND CATARRH, treated with the utmost success, by Dr. J. ISAACS, Oculist and Aurist, (formerly of Lyden, Holland.) No 519 Pine Street, Philadelphia. Testimonials from the most reliable sources in the city and county can be seen at his Office. The medical faculty are invited to accompany their patients, as he has no secrets in his practice. Artificial eyes, inserted without pain. No charge made for examination. mar. 24, '66-1y

DR. TEBBETT'S PHYSIOLOGICAL Hair Regenerator.—The wonderful popularity of this Preparation is unprecedented.—It is becoming the standard article over everything of the kind, and is the only unobjectionable Hair Preparation in use; without it no toilet is complete; if once used it never will be dispensed with.

It positively restores White, Gray, or faded Hair, to its original color, lustre and beauty.

It often produces a new growth of beautiful Hair on bald heads, and always stops its falling off.

It frees the head from all dandruff, itching and humor.

Has no dirty, sticky sediments or unpleasant odor.

It is neat, does not soil the finest fabric or skin.

As a dressing, it is unrivaled, delightful.

No other preparation has either the merit, or popularity, wherever it goes. Every bottle warranted.
