CHEAP CATTLE AND HORSES .- By the expiration of the Canada reciprocity treaty and the diffeat of the bill in Congress for renewing some of its rates for the exchange of commodities, the trade in live stock between the United States and the provinces comes within the gen! eral tariff of 1862, which includes among the articles exempt from duty " animals, living, of all kin is." So we may send for Canadian horses and supply ourselves with Cana lian cuttle, and sheep free from tax. This is bad for the protectionists but good for the people.

The Decision in the Maliby Case.

In the Supreme Court yesterday morning, Justice Woodward delivered he unanimous decision of the bench in he case of Malthy vs. the Reading and Columbia railroad. The plaintiff, a nonresident of Pennsylvania, held certain bonds of the Reading and Columbia Railroad Company, with coupon attached finished. Editor. tipulated for in the body of each bond. Jpon presenting the coupons for payment the company claimed that it was their right and duty to deduct and retain for the Commonwealth, a State tax equal to three mills on every dollar of the principal of the bonds. To resist this claim and compel the company to his bill in equity, upon which three Letter B! questions are made:

First. Is the tax leviable at all under existing laws upon the loans of the Comoany?

Second. If laws exist to authorize the ax, are the loans taxable when held and said her children were pretty? owned by a non-resident of the State? Third. If so taxable in the hands of a non-resident owner, is not the company bound by the terms of its contract to pay stipulated interest to the creditor without a defluction of the tax?.....
