To Correspondents. Communications, letters, contributions, generally of merit and interest to the reader, will be acceptable from friends from all quarters

THERE will be a meeting of soldiers at the Town Hall, on Wednesday evening mext, to take measures to procure the sumed that those who do not attend this on Tusday afternoon, which surpasses anymeeting, waive all right to said bounty.

last, the returned soldiers met in the Town Hall. After speeches by Lieut. W. land, the well-known Inspector of the Pfahler, Lieut. Samuel Evans, and a song machinery for the above mentioned road, from Lieut. Chas. Wright, the meeting adjourned to meet at the Town Hall, on most perfect and complete that he has ever Wednesday evening next, at 71 o'clock.

REMOVED - Joseph R. Knotwell, Lancaster, Pa., has removed his Dry Esq., during the week? Good Store to Union League Buildings, No. 29 North Queen Street, where he will be happy to have all his Columbia friends call upon him. He has a splendid stock of goods, and sells them very low, as they were bought at the late low prices.

APRIL 9th .- Columbians should remember that the memorable 9th of April. | charged. the anniversav of the surrender of Lee's army and the death of the rebellion, willtions are being made in other places, to celebrate the day in a becoming manner. Will Columbia be behind, or did the patriotthe rebellion?

Young Bachelor's Hop.-There will be a grand select hop at the Odd Fellows' Hall on Tuesday evening, April 5th, given by the "Junior Bachelors" of Columbia. For those who are so fortunate as to be invited, we predict a merry time, unconfined,

"Where youth and pleasure meet To chase the glowing hours with flying feet."

AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST .- The April number of this popular publication is more than usually interesting. It contains matter not only useful to the tillers of the soil but to the mechanic, merchant, laborer and professional man. It should be in every family as it contains information for all. Published by O. Judd & Co., 41 Park Row, N. Y., at the low price of $1.50 per year. W.U.Hess takes subscriptions.

STOPPING NEWSPAPERS.—Some persons have the audacity to order their paper stopped without paying up. Should you desire the publisher of a newspaper to discontinue sending his paper to you, always pany perform here again.

PERSONAL.—Our good looking friend Worrell & Co., paid a flying visit to Cocondition of things at his establishment as very healthy. He was perfectly besieged while here, by persons applying to him for those fashionable garments for which his establishment is famed for getting up .-They have just purchased their new spring goods at greatly reduced prices, and are now enabled to make suits, a little cheaper than any other house in Philadelphia. Be sure to call at 819 Arch street their attention to Haldeman's advertisewhen you visit the city.

SERENADE .- On Saturday night last, we were the victim of a serenade. Sometime during the night we were awakened trom a profound sleep by a noise at our delphla and New York Markets, and were front door. We arose, and on going to the window, saw a person with a lantern hung on the prong of a large fork, waving it to Cloths, Balmorals, &c., are sold much and iro. What does all this mean? we asked ourself! But our fears were soon allayed by the strains of sweetest music chants and are goffleinen whose courtesy, starting up. Such delightful music as the wide acquaintance and long experience are Keffer Orchestra only, are capable of giving. Accept our thanks gentlemen, for the compliment paid us.

Horses and Buggies Stolen -On Friday the 23rd inst., two rather gentlemanly looking persons appeared at the livery stables of Martin Erwin and Jos. Hogentogler, and each asked for a horse Thursday evenings last, under the superand buggy, one to go to Marietta, the other to Elizabethtown. Their veracity not school building on Cherry Street. The acheing doubted, the horses were hitched up large lecture room was filled to its utmost and off they started, saying they would be capacity, by citizens and others who felt back the same evening. Nothing has an interest in the work of education, which since been heard of them. A reward of now seems so thoroughly established in fifty dollars is offered for the arrest and our midst. The exercises consisted of diaconviction of the theires or the restoration logues, tableaux, essays, declamations,&c. of the property.

ARRESTED .- John G. Mellinger, Acting Mail Agent, was arrested at Reading instructors. ing Mail Agent, was arrested at Reading on Saturday last for tampering with the Mails on the Reading & Columbia R. R. He was taken to Philadelphia, and in default of $5000 bail was committed to prison. He had hitherto borne an unblemished character, and what induced him to commit such an act, is surprising to everyone. He is, the son of Dr. David Mellinger, a highly respectable physician of this town, who is well known throughout the county as a gentleman of character, integrity and entire community for the distress this un- pieces selected will be of moderate length, fortunate circumstance has brought upon so that the hall may be darkened by ten him.

statements, combined with candor and graphic defineation of events:

If completed as designed, the work will be authority as to the events of the most wonderful era in the history of the Country—A. G. Caran, Governor—of Pennsylvania.

It would be difficult to place too high an estimate on the service Mr. Greely has rendered our country by the preparation of this volume.

 * I tawait the following of the second volume with eager expectation—William D. Kelley, Mr. 6:

It bears the malks of labor, studied candor and accuracy.—William D. Kelley, Mr. 6:

The narrative is simple and clear, with so much of life and sprift in it that it is next to impossible not to read a whole chapter without stopping. * * *

It will be, and ought to be read by all our country—interpretation—William D. Kennae.

Its accuracy gives it a value beyond any other history of that event ful period. The great industry and impartiality of Mr. Greely will make this the text of all the Histories of the Great Rebellion.—

Thathers Stevens, M. C.

Of all the Histories of the Great Rebellion which I have examined, this one seems to me the best in the copi alshes, of its anti-edent and concurrent Congressional Records, as as well as of the events of the war useff.—Schuyler Coa Jac, Speaker U. S. House of Reps.

Volume I. will be accompanied (without extra charge, by an elegant expectable of the set of War, worth $1.00. Sold only by traveling agents.—
