The Loss of a Wife.
In comparison with the loss of a wife, all other bereavements are trifling.
The wife she who fills so large a space in the domestic heaven; she who nursed herself so unweariedly for the precious ones around her; bitter, bitter is the tear that falls on her cold clay. You stand beside her coffin and think of the past. It seems an amber-colored pathway, where the sun shone upon beautiful flowers, or the stars hung glittering overhead. Fain would the soul linger there. No thorns are remembered save those your hands may unwillingly have planted. Her noble, tender heart lies open to your inmost sight. You think of her now as all gentleness, all beauty, all purity. But she is dead! The dear heart that laid upon your bosom rests in the still darkness under a pillow of clay. The hands that have ministered so untrudgingly are folded, white, and cold, beneath the gloomy portal. The heart whose every beat measured an eternity of love lies under your feet. The flowers she bent over with smiles bend now above her in tears, shaking their petals, that the verdure around her may be kept green and beautiful.

There is no white arm over your shoulder, no speaking face to look up into the eye of love; no trembling lips to murmur "O, it is too sad!"
There is so strange a hush in every room; no light footsteps passing around.
No smile to greet you at nightfall. And the old clock ticks and strikes, and ticks —it was such music when she could hear it! Now it seems a knell on the hours through which you watched the shadows of death gathering upon her sweet face.

A family of five persons resided upon a farm in Derry, N. H., for a period of fifty-three years, during which time there was neither a birth, death nor marriage in the family. Neither did they during that time put a letter into the post office, take one out, or take a newspaper.

The number of immigrants who arrived at New York from January 1 to March 7, 1865, was 8,752; this year the number is 18,476—an increase of over a hundred per cent. The figures are interesting as an indication of what may now be expected in the way of immigration.

A Medford, Mass., man, who enlisted in a Duxbury company and was about 10 months in a rebel prison, lately returned to Duxbury to make his residence there and was summoned to pay poll taxes for 1864 and 1865. He refused and was put in jail until he paid. There's meanness for you.

An open mouth is a sign of an empty heart, as a chest open is a sign there is nothing in it. When money and jewels are within it is kept locked.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla
A compound remedy, designed to be the most effective Alternative that can be made. It is the extract of Para Sarsaparilla, combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an efficacious antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strains of complaint, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted followers. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints:
SCURFIA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases, Ulcers, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AR-TERIES, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEU-RALGIA OR THE SHOOTING, DANCING, DYSE-PSIA AND INDIGESTION, ENYALPESIS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.
This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which faster in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the use of this remedy, spare themselves the endurance of fastidious and noxious sweats, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruption, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanso out the blood from the pores of the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, need the blood be kept healthy and longer for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something will go wrong, and the great machinery of life will be deranged.
Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug used is not that of the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because of the preparation pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.
During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quantity of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but offer no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of these cheap Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the suffering from the use of imposture, and bring it to its true value. We have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.
