A SCRIMMAGE.—On Monday evening last a fight occurred in Pantle's saloon, -near the depot, between some Dutch from the basin, and the proprietor of the saloon. Alively crowd was in attendance and "chairs, clubs, snuff boxes and pistols" -were all the rage. Pantle received a severe wound on the head by receiving the "counter snuff-box" from the hands of an infuriated Dutchman. He endeavored to retaliate by drawing a pistol to shoot his man, when a woman knocked his hand, causing the contents of the weapon to enter his wrist.

CIRCUS. Dan Rice, with his Circus and Menageric held forth on Wednesday last in this place, to larger audiences than ever before attended an exhibition of the kind-at least twenty five hundred being commenced falling, but only in occasional in each performance. The exhibition of trained animals was the best we have over -witnessed. It is, in fact, a Menagerie with a slight sprinkling of Circus, to be enabled. to couple the names. Dan delivered a discourse upon the merits and demerits of the different animals, and was listened to in an attentive manner. The Blind Horse Excelsior is truly a wonder, and no one should miss the opportunity of beholding the manner in which a horse can be taught and learn hereafter to treat the animal as HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—At about seven o'clock, on Sunday evening, as Augustus tal at one o'clock Wednesday morning.— Franke, son of Henry Franke, brewer, of this city, was driving in a buggy on his way home from Marietta, he was stopped by two men, near Chicques rock, on the 10ad between Marietta and Columbia,-One of the men took hold of the reins of horse, at the same time exhibiting a pistol, while the other approached close to the vehicle, and, presenting a pistol toward Mr. Franke, demanded his money and other valuables. Mr. F. seeing that refusal was useless, gave them his pocket book Present, Messrs. Bachman, Gossler, Green and gold watch. After examining the watchguard, and finding that it was of India rubber, the robbers returned it.-The place where this affair occurred, is a point from which no houses are visible. and well calculated for robbers to operate in. Mr. F. thinks he can identify one of the men who waylaid him .- Express.

A DISAPPOINTMENT.—A gentleman named Price was engaged to be married to between Locust and Walnut streets, from an heiross named Smith, not a hundred which it appeared that the views of the miles from town. It was supposed by some that he had changed his mind. The wretch! The spirit of the bride said come; those that were athirst, said come; and, as if fulfilling the scriptures, though more likely filling themselves, those assembled partook freely of the wedding luxuries without money and without Price. But low and behold the groom was only detained at the store of I. O. He also keeps extra sugar cured hams and dried beef together with a full line of all kinds of groceries. Call and examine for your SOLDIER'S UNION BALL.—The Ball given by the "Soldier's Union," in Odd Fellows' Hall, on Wednesday evening last, was a grand affair. We are certain that the Hall never held as many ladies to engage in the "mazy" as it did on that evening. They could be numbered by scores, and the way they entered into the 'ring' was sufficient evidence that enjoy ment was supreme. The Hall was beautifully decorated. Badges of different corps were hung upon the walls and the starspangled banner floated gracefully o'erhead. The ceremonies were kept up until an early hour on Thursday morning.

COMPLIMENTARY .- We are indebted to the "gentlemanly resident manager" of the "Polyhymnian Quartette," for a complimentary to attend their concert this evening at Strasburg!
