Execution of Probst.

On Friday last, Anton Probst, the murderer of the Deering family, was hung at Philadelphia.

At fifteen minutes before eleven, all the preliminaries having been arranged, Mr. Grundiner, the clergyman in attendance, gave the signal, and the Sheriff pulling the cord attached to the prop, Anton Probst hung dangling betwixt heaven and earth.

The condemned man had a fall of about three feet, and his neek was probably broken on the instant. BITTER WINE OF IRON.

A N excellent impregation of dry Span-A ish Wine with the activity of Calisaya Bark, and the most energetic of all the ferruginous salts, Citrate of Magnetic Oxide of Iron. It has a vinous flavor, very grateful to the palate, is without chalybeate taste and well not disorder the teeth.

It excites languid appetite, gives zest to food, improves digestion, increases the strength, steadies the circulation, takes off muscular flabbiness, removes the pallor of debility, gives firmness and precision to the actions of the nervous system, with power to endure fatigue and resist disease.

Magnetic Citrate of Iron is new and peculiar, differing from the ordinary Soluble Citrate, in containing an equivalent of of Protoxide of Iron, in place of the Ammonia. It is neutral, tasteless, without astringency as prompt and energetic as the Chloride, and unlike that, induce no local Chloride, and unlike that, induce no local rillanmatory action or headache.
