General Lane's Insanity.

Dr. Coinstock, General Lane's physician is of the opinion that the attempted suicide was induced by extreme prostra tion and derangement of the nervous system. He was first called in to see his patient at the Lindell Hotel in St. Louis. on the 22nd ult. He found General Lane in bed, complaining of dizziness. extreme depression of spirits, sinking sensations, numbness of the limbs after sleeping, intensa nervousness and loss of sleep. The dizziness and numbress had been suffered, though in a much less degree, at times, for six months preceding. The patient was also timid, and express od himself as afraid to be alone. He would not permit himself to be left alone for a minute. He greatly feared death; and dreaded that "one of his sinking spells would leave him without his mind." Subsequently he became better and started for Kaneas. During the trip he wanted to stop and go to an unsune asylum. Many years ago, a brother of General Lade, in the United States Army, committed suicide in Florida.

Trouble in the Gipsie Camp. The Allentown Democrat publishes the fact that Gipsies will get into trouble -Much has been said by the press against the stealing propensities and general roguery of the bands of Gipsies that roam through the country during the summer season; There are still people everywhere who, become their dupes and victims by self consent and in face of the most super. stitious representations. In June 1860 case of this kind happened near Emaus, in this county. A man named Elias Weaver had been suffering with some bodily ailment for some ten-or twelve years, and placed himself into the hands of one Charles Hoffman, one of a band of Gipsics encamped in the neighborhood who professed to be a sorceror and vegetarian physician. To effect the promised cure various conjurations were gone through with a package of money containing $90, and in the end Weaver found the said money gone as also his G'psey doctor. The party were pursued and the thief arrested at Riegelsville, Bucks county, and brought to this coun ty for trial. In August following he was tried before court, found guilty and sentenced to two years in the Penitentiary. But it appears: punishment had no effect on the fellow, for we see by our exchanges from York and Hanover, Pa. that on Saturday week two persons, known as Gipsies, named Chrs. Hoffman and his wife Rosa, were arrested near Hanover, by High Constable Heasner on a warrant issued by Jesse Frysinger, Esq., Justice of the Peace on a charge -The anti-renters are again on the made before said Justice, by Mr. Jacob Myerly, of having stolen out of his house -It is said there were never so many in Carrol county, Maryland $170 in money, besides one quill, two shirts and several other articles. The whole of the property was found in possession of the accused, the money having been safely secreted, as supposed by the fair Rosa in her bosom, which, however, did not escape examination from the intrusion of the Constable. The accused made defence before the Magistrate that they obprosecutor and his family, for services rendered to prosecutor's daughter for the cure of a caucer with which she was atflicted by the art of "Sympathy," of which art the Magistrata seamed. graphs of Hon. Thaddeus Stevens which no faith, and as it was in evidence before him that Hoffman had been in the room in said house; where there was a small chest containing the money, three times the last time quite alone, he having stated to the family that it was absolutely nec--A late paper advertises that "two essary for perfecting a cure that no person should be present, and his desence being uso disproved, the Magistrate commit I the accused to the York County Jail.

THE GREAT ZING A-R 1 BITTERS.

A Sure Reventative of CHICK ERA 1

THIS WONDELFUL REJEDY was discovered and introduced about twenty years ago by Dr. S. encopsus, an eminent Egyptian physician.

He had iong seen and fet the want of some remedy which would strikeful the root of discise, and so prevent much of the suffering waich the human family was then compelled to endure.

The great question was presented to his mind every day in vivid colors as he moved among the sick and dying, and observed the inethelency of nearly all the remedies then in use. Thus he was lead to think and experiment and after ten years of study and labor, he presented to his follow-man the wonderful Zingari Bitters. The effect of this proparation in the prevention and core of disease, was so marvellous and astonishing, that the most flattering marks of royal favor were bestowed upon him who discovered it. His name was placed upon the Roll of Nobles, and a gold medal with the following inscription—Dr. Cacopeus, the Public Benefactor—was presented to him by the Viceroy.

The preparation has been used in several epidemics of cholera, both as a preventive and curative mensure, and with-such great success, that it has been introduced into nearly all the general hospitals of the old world.

The old saying that an cunce of prevention is worth a pound of care, applies with marvelous, force to choicers, and therefore any remedy that will protect us against this terrible disease should be freely and persistently used.

All pathologists new agree that the cholera poison acts on the excretory organs, and keeps them in working order, in an prevent a sufficient accumulation of the poison to exert its terrible effects on the organism. This is true not only of cholera, out of nearly all other maidalies, especially the different forms of fever.

nearly all other madudies, especially the different forms of fever.

The Great Zinger Bitters is just such a remedy as the above conditions require. Its acts on the organs of excretion and secretion, keeping up a perfect belone between them. This Bitters is composed entirely of roots and herbs, so nicely concoted that every organ is acted upon and put in tone. Its taste is pleasant and its effects prompt and lasting.

Numerous cases of the following disease have been enered by it: Cholera, Darrhea, Dysentery, Typhoid and Typins Fever, Fever, Ague, Norvous Debility, Anasum, Feinale Irregularities, Dyspepsia, Flattlency, voic, Scrofula. de.
