The bombardment was kept up with the utmost vigor all day, but it not proving sufficiently de structive, parties of marines were sent ashore in boats to fire the buildings -There was some resistance, and several

There was some resistance, and several of the incendiaries were killed and wounded; but the people having no organization, and very little powder nothing effectual was done to stop the work of destruction.

The buildings were all of wood, and the fames spread with great rapidity until three hundred and fourteen buildings were burned in all, and about one hundred and sixty families were made houseless. Among the structures destroyed were a handsome new court house an Episcopal church, the town house, custom house, all the wharves, and all the vessels in the harbor. Very little furniture or other properly was saved. furniture or other properly was saved furniture or other properly was saved of removal. The public library and a new fire engine were burned.

The Real Velpau Fernale Pills.

[Warranted French]

These Pills, so 'celebrated many years ago in Paris for the relief of female irregularities, are now offered for sale for the first time in America. They have been kept in comparative obscirrity from the fact that the originator. Dr. Velpau, is aphysician in Paris of geatwealth and consciontions principles, and has withheld them trom general use, lest they should be employed for unfawful purposes. In overcoming female obstructions they seem really omnipotent. They are offered to the public only for legitimate purposes, and all agents are forbidden to sell them when it is understood that the object is unlawful. Sold by R. Williams and Dr. Farry, Columbia.
