MASS MEETING .--- A Grand Mass Meeting of the Union party will be held in Lancaster on Thursday, the 27th day of September. The County Committee, in connection with the State Central Committee, are now making the necessary arrangements. It promises to be a large affair. Some of the best orators of the day have already signified their intention to be present.

COLUMBIA ROLLING MILL.-This mill is new running constantly on railroad iron.-They are making 64 lb rails for the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad, and are turning out about fifty tons per day. It is said that Maltby & Case are now making at their Rolling Mill, about the best are now making at the now making at t are now making at their Rolling Mill, about the best iron in the United States. We have heard experienced men testify to this fact. To see the various departments, in full operation,-the many heating furnaces, with a perfect swarm of hands around the establishment, looks like business. Over thre hundred hands are employed in and about the mill and from fifty to sixty tons of coal per day are used

UNION MEETING .- A large meeting of the Union Republican Party was held in Odd Fellows' Hall on Wednesday evening last. Mr. B. Haldeman, acted as President and Chas, H. Pfahler Secretary. CLOTH'S. The Hall was filled too overflowing. Gen. J. W. Fisher made an eloquent, stirring and patriotic speech, which was received with great applause. C. S. Kauffman being called for made a few remarks which were apt and to the purpose.

Public Schools.—The Public Schools of our borough opened on Monday last, and they appear to be better patronized than ever before. Great interest has lately been manifested in our school system, and everything now is in the most perfect working order. Our teachers are competent and skillful. Prof. A. O. Newpher is the Principal, and is the right man to make the Schools prosperous and flourishing.

LARGE ARRIVAL OF NEW GOODS .-I. O. Bruner has just received at his store on Front Street above Locust, a large assortment of new goods of all kinds; in fact he has a larger stock now than ever before. Call and examine. He has a full assortment of those celebrated boots and shoes, made to order, by one of the best makers in Philadelphia. By a system of judicious advertising and selling cheap, Mr. Bruner has built up a large trade and can afford to sell good and cheap goods.

KILLED ON THE RAILROAD. -- A young man by the name of John Tatnall. was killed on the Pennsylvania Railroad on Tuesday night last. He was wandering about in the vicinity of the Despatch ers office, in a state of intoxication, and was ordered to keep off the railroad track at which he became rather indignant .-Soon afterward he was run over by a pass ing freight train, and his body mangled in a horrible manner. He was taken to Mountville where his mother resides. The deceased some time ago, was employed at the rake manufactory of G. W. Brandt & Co., of this place, but it appears he had been working lately at Oxford, Chester Co., Pa.

WHAT TO EAT IN CHOLERA TIMES. _It would be, perhaps, best when people hear alarming stories of the spread of cholera, and every one is talking of what should and what should not be eaten, that they should persistently refuse to believe that there is such a thing as cholera in the world, and keep on eating and drinking company. precisely as they did before, only taking care not to indulge in anything to excess Every one cannot do that, however, and it Every one cannot do that, however, and it is, on the whole, better that people should pay a little attention to their diet, so as not to give actual encouragement to the disease. Good fresh beef and mutton are wholesome in cholera times, but pork and veal are bad. Fruits should be eaten sparingly and only whom perfectly rine and sound and only when perfectly ripe and sound .-Melons are interdicted. Salt meats are healthy, but should not be eaten in large Kline Anna K. quantities. Eat all the good bread you can, and fill in with crackers, but don't drink too much ice water. Fresh fish is prescribed, don't starve yourself, but eat moderately, and sleep with your head out of the draft. Above all things, don't be scared. Keep sober and be sensible, and the cholera cannot touch you with a forty Jackson A M can, and fill in with crackers, but don't foot pole. . .

THANKS .- John A. Smythe, Esq., of Marietta, Pa., and one of the best men this side of the Rocky Mountains, will please accept our thanks for a lot of fine peaches. They were elegant, Johnpar excellence. The blessings of me and mine shall e yours evermore, evermore.

THE ELECTRIC OIL MAN.-This "Good Samaritan" as he called himself appeared in buggy with flaming banners each side of the horse advertising his "Cure-all." He drove through several of our principal streets "blowing" very hard immense stock of new goods. They invite and finally brought up at the foot of Walnut-Street, their customers to call and examine the where, as he said, the people would have a chance "to smile on his lorely countenance." He made speeches, sang songs and told stories to an admiring crowd, and let off considerable surplus gas. The oi yould cure everything, except Captain Black's blowing, he "tied up," satisfied that Columbia was o place to sell electric oil, and this is the only place our reporter could see where the laugh came
