To Correspondents. Communications, letters, contributions, generally of merit and interest to the reader, will be accepted from friends from all quarters.

J. C. & Co. We do not insert cuts in our paper, besides this the price you are too low. JACKSONIAN—your communication is of no account to us, it does not amount to a row of pins.

L. F. G.—We cannot make anything out of your badly written, ill-contrived and dirty manuscript. It might be good but we have no time to decipher it.

Accept our thanks friend Jim, and some time when we visit your city we will avail ourselves of your kind invitation of trying the ponies. Success attend you.

W. T. W.—We received your letter dated September 8th, and post marked 27th. We were glad to hear from you, it did us good to read your welcome letter. Do you remember, Will, the happy days spent in Brandywine Hundred? We will write to you soon. In reference to the matter you speak of, we can do nothing for you in this region.

THE WEATHER.—The weather during the fore part of the week has been decidedly wet and cool in this region of country. So much so that summer clothes are generally discarded for more substantial wearing apparel.

CHESTER COUNTY FARM FOR SALE.—An advertisement appears in another column offering a good Chester Co., farm at public sale. It is said there is on the property superior iron ore.

"HARPER."—Harper's Monthly Magazine for October is for sale at W. U. Hess's Book Store. This is a capital number. It contains the fourth part of "Personal Recollections of the War" which many are reading with great interest.

BASE BALL.—On Thursday afternoon last, a match game was played in Harrisburg, between the Tyroleans and the Williamsport Club, resulting in a victory, by four runs, for the latter club.

On the same day a Convention was held in Harrisburg, with representatives from nearly every Club in the State. A permanent association to be known as the Penn'a Base Ball Association was organized.

ARTHUR'S HOME MAGAZINE, is the standard Literary Magazine of the country. The October number contains a handsome steel engraving "Children catching Water Lilies" and is full of contents show literary articles written by the best authors of the country.

HESTER CLYMER and DOOLITTLE IN COLUMBIA.—On Tuesday morning last a committee of the Democracy of this place, met at the Ferry Landing, Heister Clymer, their candidate for Governor and Senator Doolittle, who were on their way to the Mass Meeting in Lancaster.
