

Local Department.

To Correspondents.

Communications, letters, contributions, generally of merit and interest to the reader, will be acceptable from friends from all quarters.

We are requested to state that the purchase of the property of E. K. Smith, Esq., was published in another paper without his authority or consent.

FLOUR STORE SOLD.—Mr. Daniel McCauley has purchased the flour and feed store of George Brandt, in Locust street, above Fourth. See Advertisement.

THE HOLIDAYS.—Fundersmith is just opening a beautiful assortment of fancy goods, suitable for the holiday season.—Call and see them. He bought at the low prices. Advertisement next week.

A MONSTER TURNIP.—Mr. Andrew Baker, engineer of the Lancaster train, sent to our office a few days since, a monster turnip. It weighs six pounds, two ounces, and measures twenty-nine and a half inches in circumference. It was raised by Mr. Silas Rambo, of Pequea, Lancaster County, Pa.

COLUMBIA MARKETS.—Butchers are offering 13 to 14c. per pound for best cattle, and 12 to 13c. for hogs. Chickens are selling at 75c. to $1.00 per pair; turkeys $1.25 to $2.50 a piece; eggs 35c. per doz.; butter 20c. per pound; lard 19c. to 22c.; potatoes $1.00 to $1.25 per bushel; flour $13 to $14 per barrel.

INCONTROVERTIBLE.—That is a de'il o' a long word, but it takes long words, and long lists of them too, to express, (not Adam's) all the excellencies of Booth's (not the assassin) tobacco and cigars. And it is nearer right, than any other store in Columbia. See advertisement.

TWO QUESTIONS EASILY ANSWERED.—Why should men wear beards? Because they are a great protection to the throat and lungs, and add much to the personal appearance. Why should persons buy their goods at the store of I. O. Bruner?—Because he keeps a good assortment and sells them at cheap rates. Go and see his frosted beavers, for ladies cloaks, just received.

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS.—Bridal presents; presents for your daughter, son, wife, friend or sweetheart, at Springer's jewelry store, Columbia. He has the "Ristori necklace," a new thing just out. Read his advertisement, then go and purchase. He has an elegant stock of fine jewelry and fancy articles.

AN EVIDENCE OF PROSPERITY.—The Chester Valley Union, published at Coatesville, Pa., has been greatly enlarged and improved. They have lately put in operation a power press, and now publish one of the largest, as well as the handsomest newspapers in Chester County. This is a telling evidence of prosperity.

NEW STATIONERY.—Our friend W. U. Hess, of the well known Columbia Book Store, is always getting up something new and novel. He has just purchased in the Eastern markets, a handsome assortment of goods in his line; also, novelties in the way of Christmas presents. You can read his advertisement in another column, without spectacles.

"THE RAILROADER."—This is the name of a paper published in quarto form, by Peterson & Co., of Cincinnati, Ohio. It is devoted to the railroad interests of the United States, and contains valuable literary matter for all classes. It gives the name of all the principal railroads, with names of officers, table of distances, maps, &c., &c. Every railroad and business man should take it.

NEEDLE EXTRACTED.—Dr. A. Craig extracted a needle from the thigh of a child about 10 months old—son of Constable McGinnis, on Wednesday last. It had been suffering for some time, when Mr. McG. made an examination, and found a small lump on the thigh. Dr. Craig was sent for, who cut it open and extracted a large needle. The supposition is that the child had swallowed it.

THE RIVER.—There was quite a freshet in the Susquehanna during the fore part of the week. Sunday and Monday, the water raised to a fearful height, carrying off rats, lumber, cord-wood, &c., from along our shores. The river was higher than for some years past, though we believe no damage was done, further than above stated. The Steamboat "Callie" made her regular trips, although there was some difficulty in finding a landing place for her passengers.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE.—Great has been the success of this school. It is one of the best institutions of the kind in the State, and Lebanon County may well be proud of such a college. The public examination of the classes for the present session, will take place on the 17th, 18th and 19th inst. The winter and spring session will commence on Monday, January 7th, 1867. Parents wishing to secure a school where their children will have a pleasant home, with thorough instruction and careful discipline, should visit Lebanon Valley College.

SALES OF REAL ESTATE.—We learn that Dr. F. Hinkle has purchased the handsome residence of E. K. Smith, Esq., on Second Street, adjoining the Methodist Church. We are glad to hear this, as it secures to the Doctor a handsome residence, and to Columbia, a clever gentleman and skillful physician.

Col. C. S. Kaufman purchased from J. L. Pinkerton, of this place, the farm of about 100 acres belonging to the heirs of N. D. Pinkerton, near Waynesburg, Chester County, Pa., for $6000. It is said to be a valuable iron ore tract.

INSURANCE.—Mr. F. X. Ziegler, of Columbia, has been appointed agent for the Home Insurance Co., of New Haven, Conn. The Home is a first-class company, with a capital of a million and a large surplus.—Policies are written and delivered by the local agents, and the losses are promptly adjusted and equitably paid by the traveling agents of the company. The Home issues policies for one, three or five years, on all classes of insurable property, and issues policies perpetually on first-class dwellings, churches, court houses and school houses at low rates as security and safety will admit of.

UNCLAIMED LETTERS.—Letters remaining in Columbia Post office, unclaimed up to this date: Ladies' List, Miss Mollie Bigger, Miss Mary Bender, Miss Mary B. Brennan, Mrs. Julia Ann Duck, Miss Elizabeth Gray, Miss Dorotha Harris, Miss Lucinda McGilinger. Gentlemen's List, Joshua Boyd, R. Binkley, John Anderson, Henry H. Abraham, H. Eley, Grabbill Hershey, Henry Hughes, Samuel R. Kennedy, August Lutz, A. Laurons, Henry Moon, Wesley O'Neil, George O'Neil, Smith & Co., L. D. Shuman, A. W. Wistler.

HANDSOME HEARSE.—A few days ago we examined an excellent and handsome hearse, made for Mr. John Shamborger, undertaker, of this place. It was made at the steam carriage works of Christian Myers, Esq. Every portion of the work was put up under Mr. M.'s supervision, and it is said, by all who have seen it, to surpass in beauty of proportions and elegance of finish, anything of the kind yet made in this part of the country, and speaks well for the skill of Columbia mechanics. It is constructed on a principle very original, and is relieved of those disagreeable appearances which are peculiar to most vehicles of the kind; while at the same time the coffin is fully exposed to view, resting on a beautifully arranged table standing on a small truck, in the centre. Under the coffin, and on the table are arranged small rollers which raise the coffin clear of the table. The outside of the body is artistically carved with scroll-work extending around the glass, forming a chaste and beautiful frame-work for the same. The inside is trimmed with black cloth, with heavy bullion fringe and tassels. The oval glass to the sides is about 38 by 80 inches. The back has double doors, and is made to correspond with the sides, with oval glass in each. There are two sets of drapery, white and black. It was built at a cost of one thousand dollars. The ready great celebrity of Columbia carriage-makers will be greatly enhanced by this specimen of their handiwork. A similar one is being built for Mr. George Seibert, of this place.

CROSBY OPERA HOUSE.—Some one is bound to be the lucky possessor of the great Opera House in Chicago; besides this, many thousands of dollars worth of valuable paintings will be drawn. The Opera House is valued at more than half a million of dollars. Who knows but that someone in Columbia will get this valuable prize? Go to E. Springer, Front street, Columbia, and purchase a ticket; with each share purchased you get a valuable picture, and stand a chance, with others, of drawing a valuable prize. It is announced that the drawing will take place on the 21st of January 1867. It is no humbug—it will be conducted honestly and fairly. There is still an opportunity left to subscribe, and those who have not yet done so should act promptly, as the books will require several weeks' preparation in the way of adjustment on the day of drawing. So we advise all who are in any way devoted of luck, and all who are accustomed to the manipulation—adroitly, we mean—of cards, like some of our friends, and who respect chance, in any shape, not to lose another moment in purchasing their certificate or certificates. They are not that one fortunate number. If they do not, they are at least sure of having a fine engraving worth the $5 or $50 they invest.—We can say no more. If we had that Opera House, we feel convinced that we might say a great deal more. Feeling this, we have determined to purchase another certificate in the great game so many are entered upon with Fortune for becoming a millionaire.

INDIAN RELICS EXHUMED.—In the excavations now being made by the Reading & Columbia Railroad Company, on the old site of the Susquehanna-Planting Mill, the remains of many Indians have been exhumed. Occasionally the workmen discover relics which appear to have been deposited with their bodies at interment. The present week they have discovered the skeletons of several bodies, together with an earthen bowl in a good state of preservation and curiously wrought, and which, to the antiquarian, would be an object of interest. The location on which these ancient relics are found, is situated on the property recently purchased from the heirs of John L. Wright, dec'd, directly on the river bank at the old dwelling which has so many historical associations of olden times connected with it. Who knows but that the exhumed bones make some of the living of to-day shudder? Many of our citizens are aware that in the days of "Know Nothingism" and "Thuggerly" political parties had a midnight rendezvous in that vicinity, at a place called the "Owl's Nest." Then and there some unwilling victim, not wishing to make the usual sacrifices, might have been taken out at the "west gate" and ignominiously murdered. Who knows?

THE PROPOSED PUBLIC LIBRARY.—Mr. Editor.—Young America is coming up, and holds a reading individual. He has in him as well as stomach. He needs and he must have a mental restaurant. My boy is putting up his hands to the sides of his head and is distressingly crying out: "my keenness, my keenness!" Shall the youth starve? He has made up his mind not to do so! Books he will have, and books are going to be forthcoming. If the old dot does not get them the young themselves will.

Parents and the Public Schools.—This Public Schools are the common property of the borough, and every one who pays school taxes is interested or ought to be interested in their success. Now, no one can really know what the schools are without visiting them. To many parents the public school is a mystery, and they are often misled by the saving the parents the trouble of looking after them for so many hours of the day.—Even if this is so, surely parents should be anxious to see whether or not the children are comfortable, whether the teachers are fit and pleasant. A visit on the part of the parents to the school house, would do them good. It would increase their interest in the school. The teachers would be gratified. I never go to the school without hearing expressions of gratification from the teachers. Too often parents and school are two things and another; now of course there is nothing perfect in this world; and this being the case, it is easy to find things in the schools which are not perfect. One of the best ways to better things, would be for all who are interested to make themselves familiar with the schools by an occasional visit to them. It would be a great good would come of such face-to-face acquaintance.

Land Sharks.—I am informed that P. Goslar, A. S. Green, Andrew Melhauff and W. P. Lockwood have made a purchase of a tract of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, through which it was contemplated to extend a street from the end of Fourth to the corner near the dwelling of the late Henry E. Wolfe. In the event of said street being opened it would give an extensive frontage on said street. An association recently organized for the purpose of purchase—or in negotiation for the same—but the surprising fact is now announced that certain "land sharks"—home speculators—have taken advantage of the appropriation this fine opening for an extension of our borough; and will make it one of private speculation. Our community had hoped that the Building Association would have secured this property and have been able to offer to our mechanics and laborers an opportunity to purchase lots at a cheap rate; but the fact is that the Building Association would have secured to the mechanic or laborer, a good lot for the nominal sum of five dollars, and the fact is that the Building Association had hoped that the Building Association would have secured this property and have been able to offer to our mechanics and laborers an opportunity to purchase lots at a cheap rate;
