What feelings crowd the mind of the sensitive reader, as he learns, through the report of the Sceretary of War, that up to the first of July last, there have been furnished to maimed soldiers, 3,981 legs and 2,240 arms, not to take account of fifty-five hands and nine feet. It is estimated that one thousand limbs yet remain to be supplied. These statistics are painfully suggestive, and whenever we meet a veteran with an empty sleeve or exhibiting any deprivation of his natural complement of hmbs, we should regard him as one of our greatest benefactors. The empty garment may be filed by a near and even convenient substatute, but the loss of the natural limb is irreparable. It is impossible for the Government to restore bone, muscle and sinews, or to give animation and action to an artificial limb. It is nevertheless her duty to do all in her power to make maimed heroes whole again-and when she had done all that can be done by surgical skill, it will be comparatively little. But there is another and saider Phase of the report—the dead -- to which the New York Tribune alludes in the following touching manner:

But there are torn and shattered bodies which are beyond the reach of the surgeon's hand, and to whom the Secretary or War can send no assistance. They sleep peacefully enough in the forty-one cemeteries of the Nation-one hundred and four thousand five hundred and twenty-six of them-and every moldering body represents a human life which, before the rebellion, was useful, active and productive. There are more to come. and the number will probably be increased to two hundred and forty-nine thousand three hundred and ninety-seven. To these must be added the remains of those who were buried elsewhere. What a DOUBLE WIDTH all Wool Delaines at harvest of death! What an expenditure of the virility of the land ! What a draft upon the production of the future What a diminution of the real wealth of the country! But putting uside the gold calculations of the economist, every reader of ordinary sensibility will recall the mental and physical suffering, the bereavements, the untimely departure of the dead, and the long-and thurp-worrow of the surviving-of wives, of children, of sweethearts, to whom the telegram or the letter bore intelligence, which if it did not palsy their souls, at least changed the whole tenor of their lives, and while it darkened all their future, left them possibly self-dependent and alone in a bleak and busy world! There are wounds which pensions do not heal, and wantswhich the Government, however gener ous, cannot supply. All the laws in the world cannot give back the sor to his widowed mother, or restore the husband to the arms of his lonely wife. There is and can be no record in the War Department of broken hearts-there is no bureau of blighted hopes, no Secretary to compute the sighs and tears, the days of distress, the sleepless nights, or the false and mocking dreams of women whom the red hand of war, stretching from the faroff battle field, has remorsely smitten, upon the very hearth stone of a blasted home with all its tender recollections, and may be, stern material necessities.

THE GREAT ZINGARI BITTERS

CHOLERA

Oured by Mishler's Herb Bitters! When Mishler's Bitters were first introduced to the public the propriotor did not feel justified in recommending it as a specific for Cholera During the full of 1865, Dr. Mishler received the following note from Jacob L. Baker, Esq., of Lancaster Pa., a member of the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy. Mr. Baker had a great deal of experience in the treatment of Cholera is a druggist of sixteen years standing, was Hospital Steward in the Jefferson Hospital, I hiladelphia, for three years, and is withal a gentleman of undoubted integrity and one in whose statement the most implicit confidence on the placed. confidence can be placed:

Dr. Mishler—Dear Sir:—Knowing that the Cholera with its dreadful ravages is now upon our land, and knowing that no medicine now in our country possesses such a caloric influence "which is the vital reme-dy for all diseases of this kind," as the dy for all diseases of this kind," as the Bitters you now making I request you to prepare such a quantity of your bitter as would suit all demands, as I assure you they will be an invaluable remedy. will be hailed as a blessing by all who will use it.

Yours respectfully.

JACOB L. BAKER.

Being thus urged, and having induced the Bitters were constantly carring the most violent cases of Diarrhea, Cholera Morbus and kindred complaints, Dr. Mishler at last oftered his compounds as a cure for Cholera The result has exceeded his most sanguine expectations and fully justifies all that Mr. The result has exceeded his most sanguine expectations and fully justifies all that Mr. Baker says in his note, It certainly proves that Mr. Baker's practical knowledge of nections far exceeds that of most doctors who too often dose their patients with deleterious drugs on some absurd theory.—For the purpose of showing that Mishler's Herb Bitters will cure Cholera we give below a few facts.

deficient ventilation. This is proved by the fact that cholera always rages worse on board of ships where all of the above causes are found more or less combined. To cure cholera, and also to preyent it, it is necessary to neutralize this position, and that Mishler's Bitters will do this is proven that Mishler's Bitters will do this is proven by the following:

The steamship Virginia, arrived at the Port of New York, about the middle of April with cholera a board a number of the passengers having died during the voyage with this complaint." Among the passengers were a family named Schmith, from Baden, Germany. This family was attacked with cholera. Fortunately for them they had friends living in this city (Lancaster, Pa.,) who knew the virtues of Mishler's Bitters and who procured a bottle and sent it to the Schmith family. When this Another bottle was procured and packed in a more secure manner; it safely reached the Schmiths. On its arrival abourd the Virginia, Henry Schmith and Christ. Schmith were both labo:ing under choleric symptoms: Mrs. Marcia Schmith, wife of the former was very bad, not expected to recover, and a son had died of the dread complaint and had been buried thedry previous. It was in this plight a bottle of Mishler's Bitters, sent forth like an Angel of Mercy found the poor Schmith family.—Henry Schmith was the first to try it, and so instantaneous was the relief he experi-Sclimiths. so instantaneous was the relief he experienced that he gave it to his wife and brother both of whom it at once relieved. They used the entire contents of the bottle and all three were so much relieved that the physicians permitted them to leave the Virginia, after being confined at quarantine aboard that scourge ship forty-two says.—The Schmiths proceeded to their relatives in Lancaster, and at an early opportunity called on Dr. Mishler to express their gratitude for the timely relief they had found in his Bitters. Mr Henry Schmith stated in his Bitters. Mr Henry Schmith stated that all the compounds the doctors had given him did no good, but that one glass given him did no good, but that one glass of Mishler's Bitters nade him feel like at new man, warming his whole system, giving him a healthful heat and causing him to perspire freely. His statement was substantially was substantially as given above, and hosterther said that if the doctors had not kept the first bottle from reaching him, his son would yet hrve been living. Mrs. Schmith was still weak from the effect of cholera, but the continued use of the Bitters were most surely restoring her accustomed vigor.

The effect was instantaneous; heat was generated in the body, perspiration was induced and after using one bottle Mr. Pearsol was entirely restored.

Mishler's Bitters cures Cholera by counteracting the poison which is the cause of the disease. Poison in the system, whether generated by bad air, filth, &c., as in Cholera, or introduced by the bite of a venomous snake or mad dog will be expelled and all bad symptons allayed by the use of Michler's Herb Bitters.
