ANDREW JOHNSON IN 1964. The following is an extract from the speech of Andrew Johnson, delivered at Nashville, in June, 1864, in which he accepted his nomination for the Vice Presidency: "But in calling a convention to restore the State, who shall restore and re-establish it? Shall the man who gave his influence and his means to destroy the Government? Is he to participate in the great work of re-organization? Shall he who brought this miscry upon the State be permitted to control its destinies? If this be so then all this precious blood of the braye mitted to control its destinies? If this be so, then all this precious blood of the brave soldiers and officers, so freely poured out, will have been wantonly spilled:

"Why all this carnage and devastation? It was that freason might be put down and traitors punished. Therefore I say that traitors should take a back seat in the work of restoration. I say that the traitor has ceased to be a citizen, and, joining the rebellion, has become a public enemy. He forfeited his right to vote with loyal men, when he renounced his citizenship, and sought to destroy our Government. sought to destroy our Government.
"Treason must be made odious and traitors must be punished and impoverished.
Their great plantations must be seized and divided into small farms, and sold to honest and industrious man."

and industrious men.' Contrast the above with the course of "A. J" in 1866. Who does he now say shall restore and re-establish the rebellious States? Is it not the very men that he declared in 1864, should not do it? Does he now say, if the rebels are the men to do this work, not all the "precious blood of the brave soldiers and officers, so freely poured out, will have been wantonly spilled?" Hear what he said to a Southern delegation:

"Gentlemen, you have lost nothing all your former rights and privileges shall be restored.". According to this, treason is no crime against the Government. Any State may rebel and murder thousands of our best men, and then all that is necessary, eafter they are conquered to restore them to their former privileges, is, to have a Mrs. Cobbe, or some one else, to carry up the names to the President, and they are pardoned.

.. Does he now say that the traitor has ceased to be a citizen, and by joining the rebellion has become a public enemy? Does his policy declare that a rebel has "forfeited the right to vote with loyal men," because he lost his citizenship by seeking to destroy our Government? Is it not his present policy, rather to recognize traitors as citizens, entitled to all the privileges of loyal men?

Again: Does his policy indicate that traitors shall be punished and treason made odious? We ask in all candor; who would imagine that the author of the acceptance speech at Nashville, is the author of "My Policy?" Yet it is true, that the same Andrew Johnson that uttered such radical sentiments in 1864, is the author and head of a policy diametrically opposed to that of the lamented Lincoln, and a Union Congress. This same Johnson now denounces our Congress as traitors for supporting the very principles enunciated by him, in his Nashville speech, as the only policy by which the rebellious States could be restored in safety to their former allegiance. Oh! consistency thou art a jewel, but Mr. Johnson is not a jewel.

THE GREAT ZING ARI BITTERS CHOLERA

CHOLERA

Cured by Mishler's Herb Bitters! When Mishler's Bitters were first introduced to the public the propriotor did not feel justified in recommending it as a specific for Cholera. During the full of 1865, Dr. Mishler received the following note from Jacob L. Baker, Esq., of Lancaster Pa., a member of the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy. Mr. Baker had a great deal of experience in the treatment of Cholera is a druggist of sixteen years standing, was Hospital Steward in the Jefferson Hospital, Philadelphia, for three years, and is withal a gentleman of undoubted integrity and one in whose statement the most implicit confidence can be placed:

Dr. Mishler—Dear Sir:—Knowing that the Cholera with its dreadful ravages is now upon our land, and knowing that no medicine now in our country, possesses such a caloric influence "which is the vital remedy for all diseases of this kind," as the Bitters you now making I request you to When Mishler's Bitters were first intro-

Bitters you now making I request you to prepare such a quantity of your bitter as would suit all demands, as I assure you they will be an invaluable remedy, and will be hailed as a blessing by all who will see if Yours respectfully.

JACOB L. BAKER.

Being thus urged, and having noticed the Bitters were constantly curing the most violent cases of Diarrheea, Cholera Morbus violent cases of Diarrheea, Cholera Morbus and kindred complaints, Dr. Mishler at last offered his compounds as a cure for Cholera The result has exceeded his most sanguine expectations and fully justifies all that Mr. Baker says in his note. It certainly proves that Mr. Baker's practical knowledge of medicine far exceeds that of most doctors who too often dose their patients with deleterious drugs on some absurd theory.—

For the purpose of showing that Mishler's Herb Bitters will cure Cholera we give below a few facts. oelow a few facts/below a few facts.

All intelligent persons who have investigated the origin of cholera, agree that it is caused by poison introduced and generated into the system by impure water, dampness, filth and over-crowded rooms with deficient ventilation. This is proved by the fact that cholera always rages worse on board of ships where all of the above causes are found more or less combined. To cure cholera, and also to prevent it, it is necessary to neutralize this position, and necessary to neutralize this position, and that Mishler's Bitters will do this is proven by the following:

The steamship Virginia, arrived at the Port of New York, about the middle of April with cholera a board a number of the possessing died during the voyage.

passengers having died during the voyage with this complaint. Among the passenwith this complaint. Among the passengers were a family named Schmith, from Baden, Germany. This family was attacked with cholera. Fortunately for them they had friends living in this city (Lancaster, Pa.,) who knew the virtues of Mishler's Bitters and who procured a bottle and sent it to the Schmith family. When this package arrived at Quarantine, the doctors examined it and confiscated the contents. Another bottle was procured and packed in Another bottle was procured and packed in a more secure manner: it safely reached the Schmiths. On its arrival aboard the Virginia, Henry Schmith and Christ. Schmith were both laboring under choleric symptoms: Mrs. Marcia Schmith, wife of the toms: Mrs. Marcia Schmith, wife of the former was very bad, not expected to recover, and a son had died of the dread complaint and had been buried theday previous. It was in this plight a bottle of Misheler's Bitters, sent forth like an Angel of Morcy found the poor Schmith family.—Henry Schmith was the first to try it, and so instantaneous was the relief he experienced that he gave it to his wife and brother both of whom it at once relieved. They both of whom it at once relieved. They used the entire contents of the bottle and used the entire contents of the bottle and all three were so much relieved that the physicians permitted them to leave the Virginia after being confined at quarantine aboard that scourge ship forty-two says.—
The Schmiths proceeded to their relatives in Lancaster, and at an early opportunity called on Dr. Mishler to express their gratitude for the timely relief they had found in his Bitters. Mr Henry Schmith stated that all the compounds the doctors had given him did no good, but that one glass of-Mishler's-Bitters made him feel like a new man, warming his whole system, giving him a healthful heat and causing him to perspire freely. His statement was substantially—was s all three were so much relieved that the

This letter from Dr. Bissell, just after the reception of the Bitters, and before he had time and opportunity to thoroughly test their wonderful medicinal properties is considered an important endorsement, as that gentleman to-day occupies the most important position of any physician in America.
