THE MODEL SEWING MACHINE. Prominent among the mechanical triumphs of this most ingenious age, common honesty compels us to notice the Empire Sewing Machine, commended as justly styled perfection useful. PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD CONDUCTors .- The Pittsburgh Commercial says the Conductors on the Western division of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad have received handsome youchers and are set down as gentlemen of irreproachable character. polite, attentive and honest.

This is all very well Mr. Commercial, but you overlooked the fact of us having equally as good, honest and attentive Conductors on the Eastern divison of the road as the Western. Our Conductors, too, have passed through the searching ordeal inaugurated by the Chicago Detective, Pinkerton, (who should never be allowed to travel on the Penna. Central,) and came out without a blemish.

Our Lancaster train has Conductors and patrons which will compare favorably with any other passenger train in the world. The Conductors are polite, gentlemanly and attentive to ladies and children placed in their charge; and they, too, have received the "handsome vouchers."-These vouchers are a donation of one hundred dollars for services over and perfection itself. Useful as have been the above regular salaries. They were ordered by the Board of Directors in consideration of accuracy and faithfulness in the discharge of their duties as passenger Conductors.

Our Conductors who have received this high compliment, on this division of the road, are II. N. Zook, (formerly of the Lancaster train,) Ed. Chase, (Judge,) John Michael, Elias J. Unger, and Thomas Cunningham. There may be others, but we cannot now think of their names.

Mr. RAMBO:-I observed an article in the Examiner & Herald of the 16th inst., signed "Columbia," censuring General Fisher, in relation to his vote against re-

Fisher will undertake to kick every our that chooses to bark or sparl at him,—but will ote for or against measures, as the case may be which will subserve the real interest of our Commonwealth and his con-stituoucy; hence, we believe his voting against the revival of this Charter, largely promotes the interest of our State.
"Columbia" certainly has not a comprehensive nor intelligent understanding

The old adage is correct, which assumes health wealth and wisdom to philadelphia, which should be a matter of just pride to any son of our glorious old dependent largely upon early retiring and Commonwealth, who is not recreant to her early rising.
