A Apeel for Are to the Sextant of the Old Brick Meetinouse.

BY A GASPER. [The following appeal to a sexton for pure air in the meeting-house should have a general circulation. The spelling is not very good, but the argument is irresist-O sextant of the meetinouse, wich sweeps And dusts, or is supposed to 1 and makes fiers, And lites the gass, and sometimes leaves a screw

And dusts, or is supposed to i and makes fiers, and lites the gass, and sometimes leaves a screw loose, in wich case it smells orful—worse than lampile; and wrings the bet, and toles it when men dyes, To the grief of survivin pardners, and sweeps pathos. And for the sarvases gits $100 per anuum, Wich them that thinks deer, let em try it; Getin up befoar starlite in all wethers, and Kindlin fiers when the wether is as cold as zero, and like as not green wood for kindlins; I wouldn't be hired to do it for no some—But o sextant! there are I kermoddity Wich's more than gold, wich doant cost nothing, Worth more than anything exsepthe Sole of Man! I mean pewer Are; Ot is plenty out o dores, so penty it doant no What on airth to do with itself, but flys about Scatterin leaves and blowin off men's hatts; In short, its jest "free as are" out dores. But o sextant, in our church it's scarce as picty, Scarce as bank bills when agents beg for misshuns, Wich some say is purty often (taint nothing to me; Wat I give aint nothing to nobody,) but o sextant, U shet 500 men, wimmin, and children, Speshally the latter, up in a tite place; Some has bad breths, none aint 2 swete, Some is fevery, some is scofilus, some has bad teath, And some aint none, and some aint over cleen; But every I on em breethes in & out and out and in Sey 50 times a minit, or I million and a half breths an our.

Now how long will a church ful of are last at that an our. Now how long will a church ful of are last at that rate?

I ask you, say 15 minits, and then what's to be did?
Why then they must brethe it all over agin,
And then agin, and so on, till each has took it down
At least 10 times, and let it up agin, and wat's more,
The same individible doant have the privilege
Of brethen his own are, and no ones else;
Each must take whatever comes to him.
O sextant, doant you know our lungs is bellusses,
To blow the fier of life, and keep it from Going out? and how can bellusses blow without wind,

Going out? and how can bellusses blow without wind,
And aint wind are? i put it 2 your conschens,
Are is the same to us as milk to babies,
Or water is to fish, or pendlums to clox—
Or roots and airbs unto an injun Doctor,
Or little pills unto an onepath,
Or boys to gurls. Are is for us to brethe;
Wat signifies who preoches if I cant brethe?
Wat splits who preoches if I cant brethe?
Wats Pol? Wats Pollus? to sinners who are ded?
Dod for want of breth? why, sextant, when we dye
Its only cause we cant brethe no more—thats all.
And now, o sextant, let us beg of you
I let a little are into our church,
(Pewer are is sertin proper for the pews.)
And do it weak days and Sundays tew—
It aint much trouble—only make a hole
And the are will come in of itself;
(It luys to come in where it can git warm;)
And o how it will rouse the people up,
And spirrit up tho preacher, and stop the garps
And yawns and figgits as effectional
As wind on the dry Boans the Profit tells of,

Johnson vs. Johnson.

Andrew Johnson, in his reconstruction veto, is shaken with the horrors because the measure disfranchises several thousand white rebels. On this subject let Johnson cope with Johnson. On the 21st of April, 1865, (six days after he was sworn in as President of the United States,) Mr. Johnson, alluding to the war for the Union, said to a delegation of A Handsome, New and Desirable Stock of medium and low cost his fellow citizens:

"Why all this carnage and devastation?
It is that treason might be put down and traitors punished. Therefore I say that traitors should take a back seat in the work of restoration. If there be but five thousand men in Tennessee, loyal to the Constitution, loyal to freedom, loyal to justice, these true and faithful men should justice, these true and faithful men should control the work of re-organization and reformation absolutely. I say that the traitor has ceased to be a citizen, and in joining the rebellion has become a public enemy. He forfeited his right to vote with loyal men when he renounced his citizenship and sought to destroy the Government. My judgment is that he should be subjected to a severe ordeal before he is restored to citizenship."

The patient of 1865 is the patient of 1867. Congress has simply administered a dose of Dr. Johnson's pills. Let not that distinguished practitioner go back on his own prescription.

A Pleasant Church Incident.

A little three-year old was being baptized recently at a Presbyterian Church. in Newark, New Jersey, and after the sprinkling of the water, while the congregation were praying, a drop of water that had been left upon the babe's forehead began to steal slowly down its face. a stray ray of sunlight falling upon it the while from a half open shutter, and causing it to glisten in its progress like a brilliant of the richest hue. Just as it was about to fall from baby's cheek to the floor, the little one made an impulsive effort as if to wipe it away, and the falling drop was caught upon the back of her hand. Speaking "right out in meeting" as the tiny hand was stretched .toward mamma, she said, "See, mamma, see! I dot'o baptize, an' I doin' to take it 'ome to dolly," Even the devout pastor was ill able to suppress a smile, and in the discourse which followed, the incident was illustrated, when he said-our good deeds ever glisten in the sunlight of the Father's approval, and falling like blessings upon our little ones, are by them bequeathed to generations yet unborn."

CHOLERA

Cured by Mishler's Herb Bitters!

When Mishler's Bitters were first introduced to the public the propriotor did not feel justified in recommending it as a specific for Cholera. During the fall of 1865. Dr. Mishler received the following note from Jacob L. Baker, Esq., of Lancaster Pa., a member of the Philadelphia College of experience in the treatment of Cholera is a druggist of sixteen years standing, was Hospital Stewardinthe Jefferson Hospital, a gentleman of undoubted integrity and one in whose statement the most implicit confidence can be placed:

Lancaster, November 3d, 1865.

Dr. Mishler—Dear Sir:—Knowing that the Cholera with its dreadful ravages is now upon our land, and knowing that no medicine now in our country possesses such a caloric influence "which is the vital remedy for all diseases of this kind," as the Bitters you now making I request you to prepare such a quantity of your bitter as would suit all demands, as I assure you they will be an invaluable remedy, and will be halled as a blessing by all who will use it.

Yours respectfully.

JACOB L. BAKER.

Being thus urged, and having noticed the Bitters were constantly curing the most violent cases of Diarrhea, Cholera Morbus and kindred complaints, Dr. Mishler at last offered his compounds as a cure for Cholera The result has exceeded his most sanguine expectations and fully justifies all that Mr. Baker says in his note. It certainly proves that Mr. Baker's practical knowledge of medicine far exceeds that of most doctors who too often dose their patients with deleterious drugs on some absurd theory.—For the purpose of showing that Mishler's Herb Bitters will cure Cholera we give below a few facts.

Herb Bitters will cure Cholera we give below a few facts.

All intelligent persons who have investigated the origin of cholera, agree that it is caused by poison introduced and generated into the system by impure water, dampness, filth and over-crowded rooms with deficient ventilation. This is proved by the fact that cholera always rages worse on board of ships where all of the above causes are found more or less combined. To cure cholera, and also to prevent it, it is necessary to neutralize this position, and that Mishler's Bitters will do this is proven by the following:

Causes are lound more or less combined. Incre states are lound more or less combined. Solution of the distancessary to neutralize this position, and by the following:
