meet at the "Herdie House," in Williams-port, on Wednesday, the 26th of June next, at 10 o'clock A. M., to nominate a candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court, and to initiate proper measures for the ensuing State cauvass.

As heretofore, the Convention will be composed of Representative and Senatorial Delegates, chosen in the usual way, and equal in number to the whole of the Senators and Representatives in the General Assembly.

By order of the State Central Commit-E. JORDAN, Chairman.

GEO. W. HAMERSLY, Secretaries. J. Robley Dunglison. The Condition of Confiscation.

We cannot resist the desire to give our readers the following article from the Philadelphia Press, of Wednesday the 8th, as it o fully coincides with our article on the "Tron Heel" in our last issue:

"Iron Heel" in our last issue:

The New York Herald takes exception to Senator Wilson's speech at Charleston, in which he told the white people that if they prevented the negroes from voting the Republican ticket, by coercion, or attempted to punish them by turning them out of employment, as has been threatened, such conduct would end in confiscation. Such talk, thinks that journal, which just now is tenderly and gingerly treading on Southern questions, is out of place. We consider it in place, for it is the truth. It was kindly given and well-meant advice in Mr. Wilson, to the recalcitrant Southerners. Confiscation is the alternative of good behavior and an honest acceptance of the situation.

A short time ago we offered to the South, which had lost all its rights, the constitutional amendment, embodying the civilrights bill and practical freedom for all citizens of the United States, as the condition of their restoration to the Union which they had deserted, holding over them theylternof their restoration to the Union which they had deserted, holding over them the alternative of millitary government if they declined. They did decline—declined with arrogance and insult the magnanimous offer. Military government, through the means of the military district bill, came swift and sure. It was their own choice. Now, if reconstruction, as offered through the military district bill, is not accepted, and accepted in good faith, we must take one step further—and that step will be confiscation. This is what Mr. Wilson said, and when he said it he was speaking for the people. They are in earnest and deternified on this point. And it is kindness to the South-re let them know the position. The Charleston speech was a bit of affectionate fatherly advice to some very foolish children. There was no threat in it, only the quiet and gentle statement of the will of the American people.

Congress, in the military district bill, has laid down the rule of action ander which restoration can take place, and we hope will: but if this rule will not work—If it is not obeyed, then we must have some other and more stringent one. As the military bill followed the spurned bill of civil-rights, so will confiscation follow military government, if it is rejected and made of no effect by intemperate folly and reckless malevolence.

This is the condition under which the malevolence.

This is the condition under which the

South can bring on itself the terrible ulti-matum of confiscation, just as it has so far worked out the emancipation of its own slaves, their political equality, and finally military rule, in regular and logical succes-

Lancaster City Election.

The election in Lancaster city, on Friday the 3rd inst,, resulted in the re-election of George Sanderson for Mayor, over A. E. Roberts, by 511 majority. This is nothing George Sanderson for Mayor, over A. E. Roberts, by 511 majority. This is nothing newfor Lencastor, as they always polla Copperhead majority, and always bring out their full vote. The Republican vote was very small. The Examiner says: The vote polled was between three and four hundred less than that of last year. Three hundred and twenty-five Republicans were deprived was the market. No such bad effect need be fasted from the use of Hall's Vegtable Stellian Hair Renewor. manufacof their votes, by the sharp practice of certain city officials, who, without regard to decenoy, propriety or honesty, deliberately and systematically disfranchised over three hundred of their fellow citizens, for no other reason than by so doing they would subserve their own interests and keep possession of the petty offices they have held for a number of years.

During the past five years, at least one-fourth of the voters of Lancaster city have never paid a city tax; not that they were unable or unwilling to pay, but simply because the ward constables, whose duty it was to collect the same, never attempted to do so, but satisfied thomselves by getting exonerated from it. To remedy this gross and growing evil, a section was inserted in the new city bill, requiring every voter to be assessed ten days before an election, and also providing that the city tax for the year preceding must be paid five days before the election. The hill also provides for an assessor for each of the wards, whose duty it was to assess all the electors of the ward, so that they might qualify themrelves to vote. Under these assessments, the City Receiver accepted taxes from all Democrats for the year 1860; but when Republicans desired to pay, he received and credited the tax for 1807—thus placing them without the provisions of the law requiring them to pay a city tax for the year preceding the pending election. By the practice of this sharp dodge, over three hundred Republicans were deprived of their rights as voters and free citizens in the "only Democratic city" of Lancaster. By the practice of this and other neferious means, the Republicans lost several wards of the city, and failed to carry a majority of the City Conneil. Our indefatigable city officials have secur.

ed the election of their friends as "City Fathers," thereby securing and feathering their own nests for a year longer; but we would suggest whether these places, worth a few hundred a year, have not been pur-chased by the sacrifice of every principal of moral integrity and manly independ-

The Gettysburg Asylum.

An enterprise is now being energetically pushed forward, which will, after the lapse of a few months, result in the establishment of a National Home for Invalid Soldiers on the Gettysburg battle field. The design is an admirable one, and is as follows: It is well known that all efforts to obtain volun teer subscriptions sufficient to erect a Soldiers' Home have been without avail. In furtherance of the object, however, the Leg-islature of Pennsylvania have passed an act dated March 6, 1867, creating a corporation, of which Major General George G. Meade is President, and General Horatio G. Sickles is Treasurer, with an efficient board of supervisors, who have the power to distribute to the holders of certificates a large number of immonsely valuable gilts, consisting of diamonds, pearls, emeralds, rubies, &c., parchased from citizens of the Southern States during the rebellion, and which articles will soon be exhibited in Philadelphis. By this scheme it is confidently anticipated a large fund will be created towards the erection of the Home. A great feature of the affair consists in the fact that every purchaser of the certainents becomes a contributor to this National Home fund, and at the same time has a direct interest in the distribution of the rare gems mentioned above. The details of the entire scheme will be conducted in a porfectly fair and honorable manner. The site for the Home has already been purchased, and consists of thirty acres of land, used by General Meade during the battle of Gettysburg ashis head-quarters. The plan has been approved by ex-Governor Cartin, Major General Meade, Governor Geary, and a large number of prominent military heroes. number of immensely valuable gilts, consist-

LITERARY NOTICES.

THE SECRET SERVICE. -This is one of the greatest books that has yet been published since the close of the war, revealing, as it does, phases of our National history, hitherto unpublished. It is writen by L. C. BA-KER, late Provost Marshal and Chief Detective of the War Department. Published by P. Garrett & Co., Philadelphia, and sold only by subscription through their authorized agents.

During his tive years, directorship of the Secret Service Burenu, General Baker learned some strange things, and took an active part in many dangerous and at the time very important enterprises. All these secrets are now brought to light, some of them rather compromise gentlemen now oc empying highly responsible positions; but the author fortifies his startling accusatory assertions by indisputable official documents. The chapters on pardon brokerage will be read with interest and amusement to all; this is a new phase in our Nataional policy, and receives a thorough airing at the hands of General Baker.

There is also given a very full and eircumstantial account of the great Conspiraev, from its inception until the execution of he guilty Conspirators. There is much that is new, curious, and interesting, divulged in this connection. The work is complete in one octave volume of 700 pages, printed in a superior manner, on tout, white paper, and illustrated with seventeen fine engravings, among them a steel portrait of the author, and a faithful representation of the burial place of J. Wilkes Booth.

THE DIAMOND DICKERS. DAVID COPPER-FIELD.—Ticknor & Fields, Boston. W. U. Hess has them for sale. Price $1.50. A renewed circulation and a still wider reading of Dickens cannot prove otherwise than a blessing to the country; for who shall deny that this genial novelist is not, wherever he may go, a missionary of good as well of delight; making men and women better, whilst ho makes them smile; softening and enlarging the heart, even as he gratifies the love of humor; the sensibilities that sympathice with the pattetic, and the artistic teste that relishes pictures of homely and intensely human life. As the "Diamond" has thus inaugurated another conquering campaign for the deservedly loved and popular love of Gadskill, it deserves to be praised for what it is as well as for what it has done. For its convenient form, its distinct though necessarily small type, and excellent original illustrations by Eytinge, it merits commendation, and meets a popular reading of Dickens cannot prove otherwise excellentoriginal illustrations by Eytinge, it merits commendation, and meets a popular want at a very moderate price. It is something new and something beautiful and something useful likewise in the way of book-making; and by its very peculiarities is quite sure to be a favorite, no matter how many attractive rivals enter the list with it and win customers.

"David Coppertield" is the third volume of the Diamond Dickens, and is issued in the same compact, convenient, and elegant style as "The Pickwick Papers" and "Our Mutual Friend." Every lover of Dickens should be sure to get this edition. The illustrated volumes are only $1.50 each, and the plain $1.25.
