PERSONAL .- John Kennedy, of this place, desires information of his father, Edward Kennedy, who has not been heard of for about twenty-five years, MAGNETIC ORE FOUND .- Mr. H. H.

Heise has discovered a rich vein of magnetic ore on his farm, in West Hempfield township, this county. RELIGIOUS .- There will be preaching in the U. B. Church, to-morrow (Sunday,) at the usual hours, by the paster. Subject -" The Credibility of Christmas,"-morn ing and evening.

CROWDED OUT .- Several articles in tended for this issue were crowded out, on account of the pressure on our advertising columns. We hope our patrons will bear with us until after the first of the year, when we will be able to give them more reading

COLUMBIA FERRY.—The steamboar "Callie" was compelled to yield to the pressure of the "Frost King," and desist from any further attempts to cross the ına, for the time being, on Thursday last. The river is entirely frozen over at this point.

THE NEW TELEGRAPH LINE .- The Pacific and Atlantic telegraph poles, for the line between this place and York, have been put up, and all that is now required to complete the much needed enterprise is the stringing of the wires, which we understand will be commenced at an early date.

APPROPRIATE PRESENT .-- As the hol iday season approaches, the curiosity of the young folks will be unusually excited in eculating as to their probable presents. Let us suggest as a most useful and appropriate holiday present, a year subscription to the "Columbia Spy." Price $2.00. If taken in connection with any of the magazines, fifty cents less.

OLD FATHER CHRISTMAS .- Now that Christmas is so close at hand, there is no one who won't be looking about for a suitable gift for some friend. We should advise our readers to patronize the extensive jewelry establishment of Messrs. P. Shreiner &Son, if they do want something nice. It is, beyond all comparison, the finest jewelry establishment in this part of the country. See advertisement.

THE EPISCOPAL FAIR .- The ladies' fair, for the benefit of the Episcopal Church, of this place, was opened in Odd Fellows' Hall, on Thursday evening last. The weather was very unfavorable, and in consequence of which the fair will be kep open on Saturday afternoon and evening. The tables are arranged in a tasteful style and the articles offered for sale are elegant useful, and beautiful.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE .- There will be a branch institute held in the Union School building, of this borough, commencing on the 26th inst., and continuing two days. Lectures and discussions of interest and profit to teachers and the general public will constitute the exercises that will be brought before the institute. It is hoped that teachers and directors, and all interest ed in education, will attend; especially should the citizens of the borough be in attendance, and participate in the exercises.

FENDRICH'S VARIETIES .- Something new-" Monitor Chow-Chow" chewing tobacco. "Monitor Navy" tobacco by the box or half box, at 72 cents per pound. The hest make of "Pittsburgh Spun Roll" tobacco, at 75 cents per pound. Try his " Doubledipped Virginia twist" tobacco, the best in the State, made expressly to order. All the above brands are sold wholesale and retail. at John Fendrich's segar and tobacco store, corner of Front and Locust streets, Colum-

Snow Storm .- Winter is here in earn est. The snow which commenced falling on Wednesday night, continued with unabated fury until Thursday night, rendering railroad and other travel, exceedingly difficult. Trains on the Pennsylvania, Northern Central, Reading & Columbia, and Columbia & Port Deposit railroads arrive and depart very irregular. Though by today everything will be right again and the trains will make their usual time. The river is frozen over, and the streams are filled with ice and snow, thus closing nav igation entirely for the present.

TO MAKE A CHRISTMAS TREE .- Cut off the top of a wild codar tree, and fasten securely in a keg or box, (trimmed with cut paper,) with saw-dust or earth and ones-the wagons, drums, and beavy articles on the lower branches, the lighter articles above; ornament with glass balls of various colors, pictures, and other pretty things not intended for the children; put a tiny wax candle on the taper end of each branch, before; it will repay you to see the wild de will certainly find deserving objects of charity.

DRAWING SCHOOL .- Mr. Frank S. Taft about organizing a new class in pencil drawing, water color rainting, and mechanical draughting, for ladies and gentlemen, which will comprise twelve lessons, two evenings each week, to commence immeiately after the holidays. Lust night completed the first course of lessons. Pupils are guaranteed thorough instruction in the udimentary principles of the above branches, during the course. Transferring and painting on glass will also be taught to those desiring it. For further information apply at the SPY office.

SAD DROWNING ACCIDENT .- George Funk, a promising lad, about twelve years old, was drowned in the Susquehanna river. at this place, on Monday last. The ice was not then sufficiently frozen to bear a man yet he, with two or three other boys, risked their lives and successfully crossed to the York county side. But on returning thou infortunate lad got into an air-hole, as is supposed, and before his comrades could render him any assistance he was drowned. Search was made for his body but as yet it has not been recovered. This is another has not been recovered. This is another sad warning to venturesome boys.

A NEW THING IN THE POCKET BOOK LINE.-W. U. Hess, our enterprising bookseller, has just received many new articles in his line of business, amongst which is the patent steel-spring pocket book. By is invention we avoid the rubber bands, or straps, and it is far pref-erable to either for durability and conrenience. The springs being of best quality and temper, always retain their elasticity. This patent spring is also attached to blank books, diaries, &c. Call and examine his stock. He has some of the most beautiful and convenient diaries we have ever seen. CLOTHING .- Our readers, going to Philadelphia, should not fail to visit the great clothing house of Messrs. Wanamaker & Brown. This is the most extensive clothing establishment in the United States. Their stock is made from the best material, and in the most fashionable style. Not withstanding the great decline in goods. they have reduced the price of clothing ac-cordingly, and all who buy at this house will be treated honorably and fairly, and get the full worth of the money they invest Let our friends go there and they will find it is the best place in Philadelphia to buy bundsome, cheap, and inshionable clothing. COAL OIL EXPLOSIONS.—Kerosene explosions are becoming very frequent, and are almost always attended with serious and in many cases fatal results. Pure coal oil is not explosive when used for illuminating purposes, if ordinary care is employed. The impure, adulturated oil, containing as it does, gusoline, benzine, or other explosive elements, will explode when used in lamps, unless very great care is taken. The best way to avoid all risks, is to buy the genuine article. The difference in price between the best oil and the impure, is only a few cents per gallon. Wherever a dealer offers to sell coal oil at considerably cheaper rates than those asked by reliable parties, it is almost safe to set it down as an adulterated article. Don't buy it, and you will be on the safe side. STYLES AND FASHIONS .- The latest agony" in the make-up of a gentleman's wardrobe, according to style, is said to be blue broad cloth suits, box-toed shoes, and flesh-colored gloves. Pantaloons have approached that degree of tightness which may be called pinching. Coats are worn very carefully and kindly looking into the affairs of those whom we know poverty has sorely oppressed, we can give our little at stones. Tie the gifts intended for the little the right time, when it may be of service. There is more poverty and suffering from actual want, than our citizens know anything about. And now, as the winter approaches in severity, and this suffering promises to be greater and greater, let every reader of means make it his or her busiand light up in the evening. Have a Christ- ness to look after some poor family. Those mas tree this year if you never had one whose generosity prompts them to do this,

CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEAR GIFTS .-Call early and select the gifts you intend for Christmas or New Year present, at E. Spering's jewelry store. He has purchased superb lot of solid silver and plated ware. He has also the finest cutlery and fancy goods; all purchased in the Philadelphia and New York markets, at reduced prices. LAFAYETTE COLLEGE.—From a catalogue of the officers and students of Lafayette College, at Easton, Pa., for 1863-67, we learn that the total number of students in that institution is 101, of which eleven are in the Senior, 21 in the Junior, 27 in the Sophomore, and 42 in the Freshman class. In the list we find the mames of the following young men from this county: Samuel Worman Knipe, Columbia, and Lindley Rutter, Jr., Chestnut Lovel, in the Senior class; Abrum Paschal Garber, Columbia, Junior; Edward Bryan Cottrell, Columbia, Jonior Edward Bryan Cottrell, Columbia, Jonior, Edward Bryan Cottrell, Columbia, Jonior, Edward Bryan Cottrell, Columbia, Color, Strasburg, Horace Roland, New Holland, Monroe Porter Seltzer, Mount Joy, and James Patterson Zeigler, Mount Joy, Freshman. Among the members of the Faculty of this College, are Thomas C. Porter, D. D., formerly of Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, who is Professor of Botany and Zoology, and Rev. John Leaman, M. D., of this county, Professor of Anatomy and Physiology. Rev. R. A. Brown, of this place, and D. W. Patterson, Esq., of Lancaster city, are among the official visitors to the college. LAFAYETTE COLLEGE.—From a cata YORK COUNTY ITEMS .- A few days YORK COUNTY ITEMS.—A few days since, whilst Judge David Newcomer was on a visit in the upper end of the county, and driving through Dillsburg, he was thrown from his buggy, causing a dislocation of the shoulder.

The following gentlemen of York county, are Notaries Public: Daniel Q. Albright, Hanover; John A. Wilson, York; Philip Miller, Shrewsbury; Daniel Leese, North Codorus; Robert Wilson, Wrightsville; N. K. Seitz, Glen Rock. The Wrightsville Star says: "A walk along the shore of the river, at this place, would soon convince any one of the activity and extent of the ore business, and the richand extent of the ore business, and the richness and greatness of this valuable mineral in York county. Daily, long trains of cars filled with ore, are brought to this place from different parts of the county, and unloaded on the river bank. Large quantities are also hauled in wagons, from mines in the vicinity of the town. During the past month five thousand, eight hundred and eight gross tons were transported in cars, which, added to the amount in wagons, makes over six thousand tons for the month of November.

CHESTER COUNTY ITEMS .- The las CHESTER COUNTY TERMS.—Inc last dodge of distillers for evading the reveaue laws, is to ship whisky to market as "milk." A large quantity of the "critter" was captured last week, near Darby, in milk cans, ready for shipment to Philadelphia.

On two acres and a quarter of ground, Joseph Seal, Pennsbury, raised about two hundred bgshels of coru.

A rich vein of iron ore has recently been discovered on the farm of James Magraw, in East Nottingham township, Chester county, about two miles south of Oxford. The field has been leased for ten years, by a company in Berks county. Mr. Magraw granted them the privilege of opening for pits, and two have already been dug, in the second of which a yein of one of the best ond of which a vein of ore of the quality has been struck. quality has been struck.

The West Chester Record says: "We regret to learn that the "conditions" upon which the Experimental Farm was located in this county, have not been complied with in full, and that there is great danger of Chester county losing the farm after all. It was supposed that the amount of money to secure the farm here had been actually subscribed, but it seems that such is not the case.

COUNTY ITEMS.—On the 6th instant a sarge frame barn, belonging to Daniel Danier, in Manheim, was burned together with horse, two cows, a steer, hay, grain, and farming implements. The managers of the "Home for Friend-less Children of the City and County of Lancaster," have the pleasure to report the following subscriptions towards a fund for the purpose of erecting a new "Home building: The ladies' fair in aid of the Soldiers' Monument Fund, which was opened at Fulton Hall, Lancaster, on Monday, the 2d inst., was closed on last Saturday evening. It was a complete success in every respect. Upwards of $3,100, clear of all expenses, was realized from the fair. penses, was realized from the fair.

The Mount Joy Herald says: "The sum realized by the Ladies' Sewing Circle, from their benefit given by the Excelsior and Keystone B. B. Clubs was $35.00. The Imppy recipients of the badges, for superior playing, were Stockton and Spiece, of the Keystone, and Minich and Sholl, of the Excelsior. But we think the Committee ought to have prepared more badges, as Torrington and Briche of the Keystone, and Shreiner, Stauffer and Mooney, of the Excelsior, also distinguished themselves as superior players.

be called pinching. Coats are worn very short, only coming down to the hips. A few light-colored overcoats are seen, but black or dark olive seems to be the favorite color. Hats have wider brims, more of a curve, and not so tall as last season—"Bob" Fry has them. Neckties are worn of bright colors. The "Eureka Suspenders' are now worn altogether by the fashionable. They can be had at the cheap dry goods store of I. O. Bruner, Columbia, Pa., who is the only agent for these suspenders, in this part of the country. They are a Yankee invention and the best ever introduced.

A COLD WINTER—REMEMBER THE POOR.—Winter is at hand, and it is said it will be an extremely "hard" one; no doubt it will be to some who have but a limited supply of the necessaries of life. Wages arenot so high proportionately us family necessaries are, and the poor of course will be the sufferers. Now we believe there is not a reader of our paper, in good circumstances, who does not know of some poor family who would be saved the pangs of hunger and cold during the winter, by the timely donation of rent, fuel, food or money.

Let this knowledge exhort those in comfortable circumstances to charity. We may not be able to give a great amount, but by carefully and kindiy looking into the affect of the defendant to that place to Columbia, through the snow storm. He is a plucky fellow, and no doubt makes a good officer. He is a son of Daniel Heisley, of this place.

Heisley, of this place.

Bortel Weitzel was arrested for making threats to injure his fran. It seems that a few months ago the defendant married Margaret Plumb,—the parties having seen each other but once or twice—and of course had no opportunity to judge whether their dispositions were of a congenial nature. They did not wait for the honey-moon to pass by, but commenced quarreling—and did so daily. The defendant left the complainants everal times, with the intention of staying away, but returned again with the expectation of renewing his love, but Margaret refused to come to terms, and took the bed cover off of Bortel, when he locked her out of the room; and that is the "way the fuss bogan." The defendant was discharged.
