Santa Claus. There is a vast deal of romance about childhood; indeed, it is the most romantic period of human life. All is gladsome inocence. There is nothing of trouble or are to banish the smile or plow furrows in the brow. Things are but as they seem, and all is brightly, tinted; but too often does the hand of Old Time prematurely draw aside the rose-colored curtain which conceals the future, only to disclose life as it is, with all its hard and stern realities. In childhood's days fairies laughingly flit along life's pathway, strewing it with flowers, and many elves peep out on us and smile; but among all the beings in fairyland, none is so popular with children as Santa Claus-that Asmodeus who so benescently showers his gifts upon them, or rather into their stockings. He of all is the most loved. As to the identity of Santa Claus there is much of disagreement. Some say he is a German, others a Russian saint, and Sweden lays claim to him as its exclusive property. In all countries there are saints of Scandinavian mythology asserts him to be the god Woden, who, with his wife Hulda, cattered the fruits of the harvest. In Sweden and Norway the festival is looked upon as an important one, and is celebrated with much pomp and ceremony. In Ireland a legend of O'Donoghue of the Lukes, goes to prove him the real Simon purc.

The earliest legend of his appearance is derived from the Italians. Giraldi, a shoemaker of Ferrara, was very poor, and could not give his three pretty daughters even the smallest dowry, and thus, though each had an admirer, they were left unmarried. The father prayed to his patron saint, St. Nicholas, that he would interpose with a miracle. A neighbor, a rich merchant, one day overhearing his simple petition, ridinterpose for his daughters, and told him that his saint was the Jew, Buanojuto, who chant added, "and if you know how to poor shoemaker, however, maintained hi ntegrity, and daily prayed. Christmas meanwhile came, and Buanoiuto, finding a balance of three hundred ducats on th yearly account due the merchant, thought to make him a surprise in sending him a fattened and roasted duck with the thre hundred gold pieces sewed up in the body. The merchant's wife, however, sharing the then prevailing prejudices against the Jews, refused to receive a present from one of the race. The merchant, therefore, sold the duck for a dollar to the poor, praying shoemaker, who took it home for his Christma dinner, and when, on opening the fowl with the carver, the gold fell out, his exclamation was, "Praise to St. Nicholas!" and divided the gold between his two eldest daughters. The merchant, discovering the result of the experiment in sewing up gold in the carcass of a duck, brought an action against Giraldi; but the magistrate, a devout man, on hearing the case, and learning how the poor man had been ridiculed for his devotion, not only ordered Giraldi to retain the ducats, but sentence the Jew and the merchant for their usurious dealings to pay a fine of one hundred and fifty ducats for the dowry of the poor shoemaker's youngest daughter. neficent Providence watches over and takes care of the poor who are honest, religious and truthful. The tradition runs that since that time St. Nicholas pays a visit every Christmas night to all whom he thinks worthy of his favors.

Be this as it may, the most probable surmise and the most generally received, is, that Santa Claus is but a corruption of St. Nicholas, born at Patma, in Lycia, Asia Minor, about the year A. D. 342. This saint is much revered in the Roman and Greek churches, and the day assigned for his birth is December 6. His extreme love of children and childlike innocence is said to. have given rise to the popular idea of his Christmas visits to the young folks. He is said to have been Archbishop of Myra, in Asia Minor, and to have been unusually revered for his fervor and devotion in the cause of Christianity.

In many a household over the world Santa Claus has proved himself a cause of much happiness, and nowhere more so than on our own continent and never was that generous saint so lavish of his gifts as on last Christmas Eve. In perfect confidence the merry children hung up their stockings, with gaping mouths ready to devour up the saint's gifts when he came. In leep of innocence, and dreamed that he tiny stockings to the top with the choicest

The National Railroad-525 Miles

Completed. A few days ago it was announced the "500 miles of the Union Pacific Railroad had been completed west from Omaha;' and the bare announcement was made the text for many interesting facts concerning the history of this great national enterprise, and the wonderful rapidity with which its construction had been carried forward. The public had hardly begun to appreciate the fact that half a thousand years into and through what had been an untenanted waste, before the telegraph told of the celebration of the completion of the 517th mile, and the public welcome given to the locomotive by the City of Cheyenne, which two months before had no existence, but which now numbers its inhabitants by thousands. This fact was also proudly commented upon as an illustration of th restless vigor with which this Railroad was being built, but while the people have been reading these congratulatory paragraphs, the tracklayers have kept steadily at work, and the last bulletin announces the completion of 525 miles. How much greater distance will be accomplished before this article shall be seen by our readers, we will not venture to predict.

🍀 A Financial Crash. The New York correspondent of the Ledger says that last week will long be remembered as one of the most trying, in mercantile and business circles, that has been experienced for years. The failures have been many; and among, them, are several houses that have heretofore weathered many a storm without damage. There are some : who think that there are even worse experiences ahead, but these are Job's comforters; the more hopeful, as well as the more general view, is, that we have about touched bottom, and that though no General Grant's famous letter on behalf relief from the existing stagnation can reasonably be looked for until we enter the new year, the situation will then assuredly begin to improve.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE FACTS AS THEY ARE:

We began in 1871 to make improvements in the style and make of Ready Made Clothing, and continued to do so, introducing new styles and ideas every year, so that the entire character of the business is now vasily better and totally different from the systems of older houses. Our first idea is to learn exact WHAT THE CUSTOMERS WAN, and Instead of persuading him to bu what may be most conveniently a hand, we take the utmost pains to mee HIS wishes.

The time wasted in looking over the stocks of a dozen stores can be avoided, for, under one roof, we ofter for sale an assortment equal in variety and extent to that embraced by a score of the ordinary houses.

We have 600 hands employed in the manufacture of Clothing, who are constantly making up stock to take the place of that daily sold; this gives our customers new and fresh goods to make selections from. It is an undisputed fact that this Department, (a large Hall on our second floor fronting on Minor street,) has nothing in Philadelphia, to equal it. We have here concentrated the best skill and workmanship, and those who prefer Clothing made to order really have advantages they do not receive elsewhere.

MISHLER'S BITTERS. TO MORE CHANCE TO ADUL

MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS IT CAN BE PROCURED OF ALL DRUGGISTS. In making the above change, and discontinuing entirely the sale of Mishler's Herb Bitters in bulk, the proprietors deem that the people should be informed of the causes which called forth such action on the causes which called forth such action of the called forth such actions action of the called forth such actions action their part.

In the first place, we hold that Mishler's Herb Bitters is not a beverage; we never intended it to be used as a beverage, but that it is a medicinal preparation of various herbs, &c., compounded upon scientific principles, and in exact accordance with herbs, &c., compounded upon sentence principles, and in exact accordance with the formulæ of the phurmacopæia in the preparation of the tinctures, &c., compound tincture of cighteen different Herbs, &c., and, as far as possible removed, and differing from the many so called Tonics, Bitters, Cordials, Stomachies, which, for the most part, are nothing but so many disguises assumed by whisky, and as for the most part composed of the major portion of the very vilest quality of that article, thavored with some strong drugs to destroy the massea of the same, in order to tickle the patate, minister to a depraved taste and afford a plausible excuse for persons to drink whisky under a different name.

Mishler's Herb Bitters has been sold in bulk. In this particular it has been unfortunate, for it had thus been placed directly in contact with the above mentioned, and although its intrinsic merit and sterling worth has one placed it to be the patate of the patate, which is the patate of the p in contact with the above mentioned, and although its intrinsic merit and sterling worth has enabled it to-sustain its high character, yet the people have naturally a certain distrust of the article when it is found to be classed in the same category with a number of whisky preparations, bar drinks, and beverages.

This is the one great advantage against which Mishler's Herb Bitters has to contend, but there is still another—The demand for it has caused many unprincipled persons, who are not content with the profit derived in a legitimate manner from its sale, TO INCREASE THEIR GAINS BY ADULTERATION. They will purchase, perhaps, a barrel, and by the adpurchase, perhaps, a barrel, and by the ad-mixture of cheap whisky and water, inmixture of cheap whisky and water, increase the quantity, making perhaps, two, or it may be three barrels of the counterfeit, from a single barrel of the genuine, thus abusing the confidence of their customers, injuring their health, and it is likely, in many instances, inflicting serious injury thereby, besides doing injustice to the proprietors and injuring the reputation of the article.

prietors and injuring the reputation of the article.

This is the most serious objection, but there is still another.—Our desire to have this preparation for sale on the shelves of every druggist, and country store dealer, thus placing it within easy access of all clavess and every section of the country. If the Bitters are sold in bulk, it is retailed principally at hotels, restaurants and taverns, so that druggists and merchants cannot safely, and profitably sell it to their customers. At the hotels the Bitters is oftimes fearfully adulterated; while when in bottles, it is impossible to tamper with the medicine without fear of detection. In hotels it must be sold as a beverage; which is not the object of its manufacture, while as a medicine, securely scaled in a proper sized bottle, the Bitters can be retailed from the counter of every druggist and merchant in the counter.

the counter of every druggist and merchan in the country. MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS ARE NOW ONLY SOLD IN BOTTLES. Let this fact be remembered by the public who may consider all other preparations sold in bulk, and under its name as base and worthless counterfeits.

Dr. S. B. HARTMAN & Co.

GENTS. Please send me, immediately, my usual: complement of your Bitters, as what I have on hand is going off rapidly, and will soon be exhausted.

I have been very successful in curing with the Bitters a very distressing case of Scrofula. The patient is a young man who was afflicted with the disease for years. Five bottles of the Bitters, with one of green label, cured him entirely. green label, cured him entirely.
You have not recommended your Bitters for worms in children, but from a case that has passed through my hands, I am satis-fied that MISHLER'S HERR BITTERS has passed through my hands, I am satisfied that MISHLER'S HERR BITTERS—can be relied on as a specific in such disorders. The facts of the case are as follows: A gentleman, whose wite had been using the Bitters, has a child of about six years of ago, who was sadly afflicted with worms and reduced to a mere skeleton. Quite a number of our prominent physicians prescribed for the child, but without avail. The gentleman finally concluded to try your Bitters, and commenced giving the child a half tenspoonful three times perday. On the third day of this treatment the Bitters caused trouble with the worms, and the father says it fairly frightened him to see the immense number of worms that passed from his little sufferer. The child has rapidly recovered from its many months illness, and is in the enjoyment of good health, although it is somewhat thin.

I mention these two cases, to you to show you the success that is following the introduction of the Bitters in the New England States.

MESSES. S. B. HARTMAN & Co.

DEAR SIR: While working at Norris'
Locomotive Works, two years ago, I was injured by a heavy frame felling on my right hand, which was so injured as to be rendered entirely useless, the wrist was as it were bent—completely bent. I went to several physicians, who told me that I could never recover the use of the hand. One of them wanted to remove some of the bones of the wrist, but I did not consent. I was unable to work for over a year, and having a family, my former earnings were rapidly disappearing; I found that it was useless for me to continue under their treatment, as I was not improving, and by the advice of my friends went to Dr. Mishler and commenced the use of the Herb Bitters, both internally and externally. By the timo I had used two bottles I found I was receiving benefit. Continuing, I still improved, my hand regained its power, and I am now able to work. It is not yet quite as strong as formerly, but I am using it at work, and I tis steadily improving.

and I am now able to work. It is not yeuquite as strong as formerly, but I am using it at work, and it is steadily improving. Mishler's Herb Bitters was the only thing that gave me relief. Its effects in my case was almost instantaneous.

JOHN S. WHITE. DR. S. B. HARTMAN & Co.

On February 21st, there appeared on my leg below the knee, a small yellow pimple apparently containing matter; it was rather painful, but being of so trifling a nature, at first I took no notice of it, but on the second day it had spread to such an extent that I was laid up, unable to get about. It continued spreading until my leg was one large sore from the knee to the ankle, discharging all the time and causing intense pains. I in the meantime was undergoing treatment at the hands of an eminent physician who could do nothing for me. I also tried a great number of private remedies that were recommended, but MIDDLETOWN, Nov. 25, 1867. eminent physician who could do nothing for me. I also tried a great number of privato remedies that were recommended, but of no avail. I concluded to take no more medicine, but was persuaded by Mr. Elias Williams, a native of your city, to give your Herb Bitters at least a trial. To gratify him I consented, though I had not the least hope of receiving benefit from him. The disease had affected my entire system, and I had made up my mind to die. After using your Bitters a short time, I experienced a change; the effect of the medicine was apparent and affected my entire system. At first I thought it made me worse, but at the urgent solicitation of my friends I persevered in its use, and am pleased to say that now after using nine bottles I am, I may say, well. The sores on my leg are all healed, there is no running, the holes have all filled out with new flesh; and a certain amount of tenderness in the parts that were affected is all that remains of the disease. I had doctored for over two months, and could obtain no relief. Many persons are cognizant of these facts, as I am well known here, having for some time been inspector of ties for the Peen'a R. R. DEAR SIR: This is to certify that I have been afflicted for the past seven, years with Scrofula on both arms and legs. I have doctored with the most celebrated physicians of the country, and all availed nothing. The itching became intolerable, especially so at night, so much so as to prevent me from sleeping. I was recommended by a young man in the capitol to try your CELEBRATED HERB BITTERS. I tried only two bottles, and the relief has been so gratifying that I have no hesitation in saying that a few more will make a perfect cure. Yours, respectfully, HARRY ETTER.
