Found.-An all-wool child's shawl was found in front of the SPY office, on Thursday afternoon last. The owner can have the same by calling at this office.

More Snow .- Snow commenced failing again, on Thursday night, and continued during the greater part of Friday forenoon, adding much to that already on the COASTING .- Coasting has began and the school boys will have fine times during vacation, which commences next week. Locust street, no doubt, will be made quite as dangerous for pedestrians as last winter. during the cold and snowy weather.

DEDICATION .- The M. E. Church, in Bainbridge, will be dedicated to the worship of God, on to-morrow (Sunday.) 22d inst. Several eminent ministers will officiate on the occasion. A cordial invitation is extended to all christian friends.

SECURE Your ICE.—Our ice dealers have been busily engaged during the week, in filling their ice houses for the next summer's supply. Better that it be secured now, for another opportunity may not be had during the season.

NEW YEAR ADDRESS .- Our carrier requests us to say that he will be around early on New Year morning, with his annual greeting to the friends and patrons to the SPY, and hopes they will keep him in remembrance, and have a half or quarter

THE ICE BRIDGE.—The ice bridge over the Susquehanna, at this point, is now considered strong enough for the passage of horses and sleighs over it, several of and which will prove, of course, a signal for others.

Edwards, Lee & Co.'s Baltimore Organs. Call and examine them. These instruments are becoming very popular, on account of their real musical merit; and also for their reasonableness in price, bringing them within the reach of all.

SANTA CLAUS has arrived at W. H. Bollinger's confectionery store, Front street, between Bridge and Walnut streets, and will make but a short stay. He will apmear in proper person, in Bollinger's window, on Christmas eve, where every lady is sinvited to call and see him-free of charge. A splendid stock of fine and common confections, toys, images, etc., on hand.

A PAYING INVESTMENT .- The Berkly Union, published at Martinsburg, Va., says that shares ($150,) in the Martinsburg Building Association, now command seven ty-nine per cent. premium. Does anybody ·doubt that similar investments in Columbia, would prove equally as profitable? Has the Columbia Building Association fallen through, or was it all gas?

GOING TO LEAVE .- We regret to learn that our friend John A. Smyth, who has for a year past been one of the first salesmen, in the extensive establishment of W. G. Case & Son, is going to leave on the first of the year. He has made many friends in Columbia, and a host of admirers will regret his departure from amongst us. He goes in the mercantile business in Maytown, and we cordially wish him prosperity in his new field of operations.

FINE CORN .- We have received from one of the crack farmers of Bucks county. a sample of the corn raised in that section, and must say it is about the best we ever saw. It is greatly admired by persons who come into the oflice, and the inquiry is made, "where did that big corn come from?" On one of the ears, over thirteen hundred grains were counted; indeed, some of the ears are large enough for an Indian war-club. Our West Hempfield farmers should call and see this fine specimen of corn. Read the communication in the farmer's column, on the first page of our paper to-day.

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS .- Now is the time to buy Christmas presents. Don't put off your purchases until the last hour. Almost every one who makes the holidays a time of real solid happiness, by dispensing liberally, can remember many instances where they have seen some particularly appropriate gift which they had intended to purchase for some loved member of their household or friend, but when the season week of Christmas came somebody else had secured the prize, and that most appropriate token was lost, simply by postonement or prograstination. Therefore, we say to all, buy your Christmas and New | and good will" in our whole country; that Year giffs now. The advertising columns of the SPY will direct you where to go. Those who advertise are always the most and repeat the "glad tidings of great joy" liberal persons with whom to deal.

Gorn Pens - Foloy's or Morton's gold ons and pencils-the best makes in the narket - would make a splendid Christnus present. For sale at Shreiner & Sons. BRUNER I. O .- If you want anything fore the first of the New Year-if you will just pay a visit to the establishment of T. will certainly find bargains. He keeps good goods, and sells them cheap. Officers Elected .- The following amed persons have been elected officers of the Columbia Gas Company: President-Samuel Shoch.

Managers-John Cooper, George Bogle, De Angli, H. M. North, H. F. Bruner, N. H. Myers.
Secretary and Treasurer—James Barber.
Superintendent—Robert Beacham.

MARKETS .- Our markets are poorly attended, and everything seems to be on the rise. Butter sells at 45 to 50 cents per pound; Eggs, 45 cents; Lard, 16 cents,: Potatoes $1.25 to $1.50 per bushel; Chickens $1.00 to $1.50 a pair; Turkeys $1.25 to $2.50 a piece; ity our citizens will have of hearing the pound, for hind quarter, and 11 cents for hearts are in the work, and whose aims and fore quarter; Dressed Pork, $10 to $11 per hopes, talents and efforts have all been and hundred weight; Flour $12 per barrel.

IMPORTANT TO JURORS.—Those citi zens who have been drawn as jurors to serve during the coming year in the courts | learn the great work that is being done and issued an order that a failure to respond to their names when called, subjects each inror to a time of fifteen dollars. The time heretofore was five dollars, but so many jurors shirked their duty by the payment of the fine, that the Court deemed it proper to increase the amount.

Among the list of Petit Jurors to serve in the Court of Opertor Sessions, commencing on Monday, January 20th, 1868, we find the name of Conrad Swartz, of this place. And among the list to serve on Monday, January 27th, 1868, we find the name of William Mathiot, of this place.

THANKS .- There is a silver lining to ilmost every cloud. There are lights and gay colors in almost every picture, however dismal its general tone. Even the austerities of Editorial life are softened, even its harsh and hard experience is brightened by occasional pleasant incidents. We present herewith, a picture of the present we received a few days since non and friend in Conoy. We also received a similar bird a short time since from a valued friend in West 🚄 Hempfield. We would here return thanks to our friends, who, in the hour of their prosperity have kindly remembered us. Even long after the "gobble" of these most sought for birds have ceased their sweet music, will we remember and cherish the names of HARRY and JOHN with the fondest and tenderest idolatry.

"BLACKBURN'S HOMAR ILIAD."-This is the name of a newspaper published at Homar, Louisiana, by W. Jasper Blackburn, Esq. On looking through its columns, we observed the eard of A. J. Kauffman, Esq., of this place. This led us to make some inquiry about the paper, &c; and Mr. K. informs us that the editor is a staunch Union man, and remained so all through the war. He was often threatened with death—had his printing office destroyed, and lost all his property. Notwith-standing all this, he bitterly opposed the rebellion, remained true to the old flag and spoke his mind freely on all occasions. Ho was born in the South, and never was in the Northern States until after the close of the war. We hope brother Blackburn will be amply rewarded for his fidelity to make some inquiry about the paper, &c; be amply rewarded for his fidelity to the Stars and Stripes, during "times that tried men's souls."

COLUMBIA SKATING PARK.-On Thursday last, a space of three hundred feet was revoved and staked out on the ice. on the Susquehanna, near the foot of Locust street, and workmen are now engaged in clearing the park of the snow and loose ice, prepar-atory to flooding, which, when frozen, will afford a tine, smooth sheet of ice, 1200 feet that county.

The Directors of the Poor, at their meet-ing on the 13th inst., re-appointed the fol-lowing officers: in extent. The expense attending this work is borne by an organization of our citizens, (those of them who are "skatists") and will be known as the "Columbia Skating Club." The club now numbers' some thirty-five members, and the determination is to have a good park, kept in good order, so that an opportunity may be afforded for all to enjoy this fine and healthy amusement at a very trifling expense. The fee for membership of the club is one dollar, and those who are not members are expectwith all the Inxuries, fancy and substantial articles mentionable. The ladies in attendance are pretty, pleasing and accommodating. Patronize the fair by all means.

The hardest faces soften genially, the most weary eyes brighten then, and good cheer and fellowship lighten places that are darkened every other day of the year. It would be intrusive to urge upon anybody, the duty of getting from the holiday the full measure of enjoyment. We hope it is equally unnecessary to suggest the other duty of enabling others to enjoy it. It is not the least blessed privilege of the day that a great deal of happiness may be developed from a very little material. An effort so inconsiderable as to be scarcely appreciable on the part of every member of a household where luxuries are so unfailing. The soft so inconsiderable as to be scarcely appreciable on the part of every member of a household where luxuries are so unfailing. that Christmas does not lift, at least tem-of Columbia, in giving no heed to what household where luxuries are so unfailing as to seem nothing more than common comforts, would assure a cheerful Christmas in all the houses of the poor. Columbia benevolence is of such wide repute that we do not mean to indicate a duty: we simply record the fact that children under their well-filled table, will not forget to purchase the highest pleasure at the trilling cost of timely charity. Let every individual, community and ction, bound in a closer brotherhood, feel that it is their duty to

"Gently scan your brother man, Still gentler sister, woman, Though both may gang a icemile wrang. To step aside is human." We wish all our readers a merry, happy Christmas, and many returns of that blessed day; and that the good feeling it will engender, and the beneficence it commemorates, may inaugurate a birth of "peace at the next advent season the glad angels may renew above us their Christmas carols. heard by the favored shepherds of Judea.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.-We gave TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—We gave notice last week that the County Superintendent would hold a Teachers' Institute of two days duration, in this borough, on next week the 26th and 27th insts. These institutes have taken high rank for the interest and instruction they afford to teachers and others, who attend them. Wherever these branch institutes have been held the in the dry goods or boots and shoe line, be- | terest and instruction they afford to teachers these branch institutes have been held the O. Bruner, Front street, above Locust, you citizens of the immediate vicinity have availed themselves of the advantages to be derived from them, and we greatly mistake the intelligence of the citizens of this ommunity, if they do not fill the hall of the Union School at every session, morning, afternoon, and evening. The various topics and relations of the teachers efforts and duties necessary to the successful working of the schools, and of the school system will here be brought up for discussion and be the theme of essays and lectures. Now, that the cause of popular education has taken such a strong hold upon the people, and is the subject of so much attention and investigation by some of the ablest and best men of this country and of other countries, we cannot but regard it as a rare opportunopinions and experiences of those whose hopes, talents and efforts have all been and will be devoted to the one great purpose and resolve of making the Common School System of this country the pride of the Nation. It is by meetings such as this, that we may of Lancaster county, should be made ac- to be done. (Christmas.—Before another issue of the local to solve the dear voters notice in advance as to who they shall have the privilege of voting for at our Borough elections, on the first Monday in January. It is also kind, and decidedly cool on the part of the New York Yankee, endeavoring to teach the staid and honest voters of Columbia a new code of political chies—one different the staid and honest voters. Now the laboring man and mechanic are urged [For the "SPY."] Christmas.—Before another issue of the Sex, the Christmas of 1867 will have come and gone. The merry tinkle of the innumerable bells reminds us of the fact, while it announces that the peculiar enjoyments of the season have commenced in earnest; that old and young, the staid as well as the frolicsome, have resolved on a pleasant pastime, in which all kinds of business and the usual daily avocations, must give way to. May it prove for all the readers of the Sex, a merry and a happy time.

It is safe to assume that, with rare exceptions, such will be its record. For it must be indeed a heavy cloud of sadness that Christmas does not lift, at least tem-of Councilmen, as the only means of saving to vote for the "big bugs" of the party for Councilmen, as the only means of saving the Borough from bankruptev, and the strest from being overgrown with a luxuriant growth of grass. Thus, this demagogue sings his syren song. In December, 1866, he sang a different song, and wanted "Young America" and the "laboring men" to "form clutb," and "shake off the dust of fogyism," and elect from their number, suitable persons to serve their country as C*mellinen. It would taken hour four thousand years to convert the yeomanry of the Old Guard, to his nefarious doetrines. I can tell him that the laboring men of Columbia think for themselves, and seek information when it is desired—elsewhere than in his infamous sheet. He hopes to take advantage of the necessities of a large body of laboring men, who are unfortunately at present out of employment, by reason of the stopping of one of the largest rolling mills in this Borough. He mocks them, and talks as though they had no principles, but would, at his beek or nod, vote for his men and train with them. It is cruef thus to seduce them from their faith, because of their misfortune. I can tell this conceited adventurer, that no people on the face of the earth have stood irmer, and truer to what they believed to be right, under any and all circumstances, than the Welshmen. Teachers' Institute.

Mr. Editor:—I noticed in your last is sue, a paragraph announcing that on the 26th and 27th inst., a Branch Institute of the sate, a paragraph announcing that on the teachers of this county, will be held in the Hall of the Union Public School building, of this place. I am glad, and every citizentruly interested in the intellectual welfare of our town, should be glad, that the claims of Columbia have at last been recognized. Our schools rank among the best, and the principle on which they have been organized, and so far successfully advanced, has attracted the attention and met the approval of Superintendents, Directors and Teachers in different parts of the State.

It is not my intention, however, to speak of the merits of Columbia's Common Schools. I desire rather to excite in your renders a greater interest in Common Schools generally, and those who are in anywise connected with them. They constitute one of the institutions of which we justly are proud; for from them have gone out the interest anyone and powers which have made in the interest may make made. are proud; for from them have gone out th influences and powers which have made us a free, prosperous and intelligent nation.
Upon the instruments employed, depends the perfection of the workmanship.
Great as is the success which has attended schools, and the value of education, one-half the labor of educators would be accomplished. Let our citizens, then, be in attendance next week, and help on the great work by their counsel and countenance. If this Institute shall not accomplish the results anticipated, let no censure be attributable to the teachers and citizens of Columbia.

CHESTER COUNTY ITEMS.—The many

Great as is the success which has attended the operations of the Common School system, that of the future is still greater. To secure this, the improvement among the teachers are in earnes, is evident by their efforts. Labor, however, must have they are interested in the improvement of their children's minds. Otherwise, the teacher will become indifferent, and instead of striving to develop intellectual strength, will labor only for his scanty salarry. Our citizens ought therefore to meet with strength, will labor only for his scanty salary. Our citizens oughtherefore to meet with the teachers at their coming Institute, and learn what they are doing for our children, how they do it, what they intend to do, and how they intend to do it. Let us aid them by our presence, and where opportunity offers, by our words of advice or encouragement. Let us prove to them that we realize how responsible a duty they are required to perform, and that we at all times stand ready to lend a helping hand. It is not enough to speak our sympathy. It is not enough to speak our sympathy, we should act it. An opportunity is row offered, which I hope will so generally be embraced, as to insure an Institute to us every year. DOUBLE DEEL

Columbia, Dec. 17, 1867. [For the Srv.]

Mr. Editor:—The gamblers are still in blast. Innocent victims are daily entrapped and fleeced at the Faro Bank. Is there no remedy for this evil? Will not some body make complaint against the tavern-keeper who leases them the room? or oppose his getting a license when he next applies for one? Will not some one bave nerve enough to bring up the black-legs who are disgracing our town by their swindling conduct, and put the mantle of shame upon their countenances? Our young men are being led astray, and some parents may find too late the extent of this evil in the destruction of their children.

It will be noticed that the Union Pacific Railread is, in fact, a Government Work, built under the supervision of Government officers, and to a large extent with Government money, and that its Bonds are issued under Government direction. It is believed that no similar security is so carefully guarded, and certainly no other is based upon a larger or more valuable property. As the Company's FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS.
