Sry :--My attention has been called to an article in the "Murderer's Apologist," taken from the Reading Eagle. The editor offers to his followers a premium for "robbery, murder and rioting," and appeals to the baser passions of the poor men who have been thrown out of employ-ment by the course of thoir own leader, Andrew Johnson. They delight in calling radicals thieves and robbers; yet in this article they point out to the "half-starved" and "half-frozen" workmen, the palaces and banking-houses of the rich, and inti-mate that these would be their spoils in case of a new Democratic Rebellion. This may be called Democracy. But how honest and respectable men, calling themselves Democrats, can endorse such vile and out-ragoous articles. I can't understand. It is the same frantieness of the rebellion again showing itself; but no brave maa, even were he a rebel, would advise such a course as this Eagle editor proposes, and the Co-lumbin Copperhead endorses. It is the appeal of bad men, who would impel their poor, ignorant dupes to deeds of violence, but who, themselves, would be sure to be in a safe phece, and if possible, a place where their pockets would be basirs to be in a sufe phece, and if possible, and their predous bodies safe. But they cannot lead the thinking and intelligent masses into lawlessness. Even if we have among us poor laboring men who are now suffering for the necessaries of life; they well know that a democratic READING, PA. Democratic Arguments. feb. 8, '68-1y.) All our goods are plated ou PLANTS that have never graced their shelves if we have among us poor laboring men who are now suffering for the necessaries of life; they well know that a democratic rebellion has cost the country millions of dollars, and thousand of lives; and that, but for the treachery of Andy Johnson, nided by the so-called Democratic party, the country would be at peace; the South restored, and the business of the country in a prosperous condition. Everything was going on well, work plenty, our furnaces and mills in operation, wages high, and the laboring men doing well, until Andy John-son turned Tratron; and then the country became ansectiled, business became stagma-ted, and the present hard times came upon us. These things the thinking and intelli-gent masses know, and all the appeals to the baser passions of men will have no effect—but upon the ignorant dupes found among the Copperheads themselves. Every intelligent man knows that the Copperhead party and Andrew Johnson are responsible for the present unsettled state of the coun-try, and for the staguation in business-and the only hope for the country is in the early removal of the chief cause of all this trouble—the accidental President of the country.
