On motion it was ordered that Chief Justice Chase be presented with a copy of the Globe from the commencement of this session. A bill providing for the conversion and funding of the interest bearing debt, and to amend the banking laws of the United States; was ordered to be printed and laid on the table. The Hon. George Vickers, Senator elect from Maryland, presented his credentials and was sworn in. Mr. Logan made a statement which created considerable stir. He said the superintendent of the Treasury Printing Bureau had obtained certificates of three treasury officials to the destruction of cancelled bonds amounting to $18,640,000, while in fact no such bonds had been destroyed. . The Retrenchment Committee was ordered to investigate and repor

The Chicago Convention. On Friday of last week, was held a mee ing of the Committee of Arrangements for the National Republican Convention which is to take place in Chicago, in May. The object of convening the meeting was for the purpose of consulting relative to making the arrangements necessary for the sessions of the Convention. It was decided to employ the entire stages of the Opera House, after taking out all the files, for the use of the delegates. At the further end of this space, which will be ninety feet by forty-five, will be placed the seats for the press, and immediately in front of them those for the officers. On either side of the stage there will be four, and if necessary, five rows of seats for the delegates. Oh! Clork of the weather 1-or whatever your name may be, have you no compassion upon us poor mud-bedraggied, dust-blinded and wind-riven dwellers here below? Some say that this wind came with the delegates from Alaska, and some say its a judgment on this God forsaken eity of worn outif and defunct politicians, but most of the blame falls on Seward's shoulders for buying the ice bergs and tornadoes, and all those pleasant little phenomenons of nature, are to follow as a sort of a dessert. Heaven help us. At this time of the year in this climate, the trees are generally all budded out, and all nature smiles in the warm sunshine. according to the wind-gauge at the Smith-sonian. FOLITICAL. There is not much change in the situa-tion since last week, but the intermediate time has been spent by Stanton and Thomas, principally in averting each other, alternately, like the bory used to play t "Tit-Tat-Toe," to see who will come out last, "first." Last week Stanton made his customary requisition on the Treasury for funds to pay off the altachees of the War Department, it was duly passed and paid. I believe Gen. Thomas has not yot had the hardlhood to attempt to get anything of that kind through. It would be too much like a man's giving cheeks on a bank where he had no money to his credit. Yesterday, (4th inst.) the impeachment articles were presented to the Senate, when a very impressive scene occurred. The expectation that the impeachment man-agers on the part of the House would pre-sent the articles to the Senate, used the calleries to be filled at an early hour. Eight chairs taken from the Vice Presi-dent's room, had been placed in front of the Clerk's desk for the use of the managers, but there were no other indications of the approaching scene. In the House, mean-time, preparations were being made for the Whole. A tone o'clock, on motion of Mr. Bingham, the House resolved itself into Committee of the Whole, on the State of Managers to the bar of the Senate and lay before them the articles as passed. At five minutes past one o'clock they entered the Senate amid profound silence, preceded by the Sergeant-at-Arms announced in a loud voice: "The Managers of the House of Representat-Arms announced in a loud voice: "The Managers of the House of Representives to presont articles of im-peachiment." Mr. Bingham was in front, having the arm of Mr. Boutwell, followed by Messrs. Wilson, Williams, Locan and Butler. Next caune Mr. Thad. Stevens, who walked alone, and looked very feeble. The managers walked to the front of the Senate, close to the President's desk, and took seats, while the members of the House who had accompanied them ranged t -The sale of the homestead of John C. Mr. Bingham arose and said, holding the articles in his hand : "The Managers of the House of Repre-sentatives, by order of the House of Repre-sentatives are ready, at the bar of the Senate, if it will please the Senate to hear them, to present the articles of impeach-ment in maintenance of the impeachment preferred against Andrew Johnson, Presi-dent of the United States, by the House of Representatives." -In Texas, it is stated that lands are now held at about one-tenth of their value six years ago, and the tendency is still reported to be downward.

Andrew Johnson, President of the United States." Mr. Bingham then rose and commenced reading the articles. During the reading, the managers remained standing, with the exception of Mr. Stevens, who, after a few moments, took his seat, looking quite ex-hausted. But few of the Democratic mem-bers of the House were present in the Senate. Every person kept perfectly skill while. Mr. Bingham, was reading, the inticles. "The inglicity were closely proked," and thousands of people stood in the halls and obrridors, unable to get even a glimpse of the inside proceedings. At the conclusion of the reading of the articles, which occupied thirty minutes, Vice President Wade said: "The Senate will take due order and cognizance of the Articles of Impeachment, of which due notice will be given by the Senate to the House of Representatives." The House then withdrew to their own Ifall. Chief Justice Chase sent into the Senate
