REVENUE STAMPS ON LETTER RE-CEIFTS.—An exchange calls attention to the fact that some people never think of a revenue stamp when writing a letter; yet some letters require stamping as much as a note or deed. Under the internal revenue laws, letters acknowledging the receipt of either drafts, checks or money, exceeding twenty dollars, are subject to a stamp duty of two cents, the same as if a formal receipt had been given for so much money. This fact is sometimes forgotten, or is not known, even by good busines COURT .--- The Court of Quarter Scssions for Lancaster county, April term

HANDSOME STEEL ENGRAVINGS.—A cultivation of the taste for the Fine Arts has become a part of our educational system, and pictures are now regarded as indisponsable household ornaments. This is especially true in regard to Scriptural Works, as these are at once both elevating and purifying in their influences upon society. Mr. Levi Meily is now canvassing this place for two of the most superb pro-ductions of that master artist, Sartain—one from Eastlake's great painting of "Christ Blessing Little Children" and the other from Dobson's famous painting of "Bethlo-hem" or "Christ in the Manger," These two steel engravings are match pictures, and are the finest and best of Sartain's many superior works of art, and the sub-jects are such as to make them worthy a place on the wall of any family parlor. They are perpetual lessons speaking to the heart through the delighted eye, and as such should be purchased and prized by every parent. We are especially pleased with the "Bethlehem," which is a new engraving and a magnificent artistic or-nament. This agent has also at his dis-posal two other large and splendid can-gravings, executed by the same distin-guished artist, Sartain ; one of which is entitled "Christ Rejected," from a colossal and gorgeous painting of the celebrated Benjamin West-and the other, "Christ Stilling the Tempest," from a large and superb painting of Hamiliton, the greatest marine artist living. The Agent will call upon our citizens and exhibit these works. Deaths and Marriages are published in this paper ithout charge. When accompanied by commen-aries, whether prose or poetry, five cents per line ill be charged. Funeral notices ten cents per line ayable in advance. On the 23d inst., by the Rev. Wm. H. SALES OF REAL ESTATE .- Mr. George Bogle purchased from estate of John Felix, dec'd, the house and lot on Front street, now occupied by Mr. Wm. Reese, for $750. Jonas Meyers purchased from the same

Conway, Commissioners of court of Stafford, for twentyeight dollars per acre." It belonged to the estate of the late John Seddon.

OUR CEMETERIES .- We took a stroll through our cometeries a few days ago, and found them in a condition that we were heartily ashamed of. Now, that spring has again opened with all its beautiful and varied scenery, we do hope that this, the resting place of many lost loved ones, will receive due attention by all parties interested. The finces and railings need repair-ing; the shrubbery and trees need trimming-indeed, there is room for improvement on almost every lot. The location of 50 cents. We saw them selling in Philaour cemeteries is beautiful, and we hope our citizens, or corporate authorities, will do all in their power to beautify it still more, by paying proper attention to the hand to wholesale or retail. clearing up of the rubbish, etc.
