COMMUNICATIONS, letters [illegible] merit and interest [illegible] from friends from all quarters.

FOR PRESIDENT,
GEN. ULYSSES S. GRANT,
OF ILLINOIS.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
SCHUYLER COLFAX,
[illegible]

[illegible] greatest culprit of the day stands acquitted by a legal, but [illegible] majority. Bribery and corruption are again triumphant. Truth and justice stand rebuked through the treachery of dishonest representatives, and the fact made apparent, that, from the U. S. Senate down to the lowest office-holder, money and official patronage are too powerful for evil, and poor human nature too weak to stand up for the right. Individual, mercenary gain, and the hope of Presidential favor, are too great for the interest of country or of party, and those who, before their election, boasted of their unselfish devotion to both, have, by their votes of acquittal, openly declared that they wilfully lied when soliciting the votes of their constituents. Who can gainsay these undeniable truths? We answer, none but copperheads and rebels. Under this state of things, it becomes all true Republicans to consider and deliberately decide upon their duty, and their course for the future. In a very short time we shall again have to elect representatives to Congress, and our State Legislature.

From the treachery of Fessenden and his conspirators let us learn a lesson, and in our selection of candidates, let no sound Republican vote for the nomination of any but the most reliable, at all points, in the election of candidates determined to support such, and such only, who by their votes, counsel and speech, will honestly and fearlessly support the measures, principles and policy of the radical Republican party, with Grant and Colfax. Let no sneaking conservative, no member of the whisky ring, no sympathizer, no milk and water [illegible] server, no temporizing compromiser, no weak-kneed, contemptible coward, who dares not say his soul is his own, and whose wife wears the breeches, dare to hold up [illegible] have confidence or thought [illegible] Republicans. There are good and true men enough in the country who dare to stand up and fight for the right, in council as in battle-field, in times that tried men's souls, who now deserve the post of honor, because they took the post of danger. Perils are ahead, traitors abound, and now is the time to prepare for the worst. Out with and down with all who will not be open and sound Republicans.

Primary Elections.

The time is approaching when the Republicans of the county will be called upon to select persons to fill the various offices to be voted for next October. It behooves every Republican, who desires not only the success of the party at that election, but the more important one that is to follow in November, that the very best men in the county be placed upon the ticket—victory would then be assured, beyond peradventure. For Assembly, let none but the purest and best men in the party be selected. It is generally supposed that none but the numerous persons who [illegible] annually perambulate the county, and insist that they are the only ones who ought to go to Harrisburg; and that they have been urged to become candidates, through the solicitation of friends, &c. This is a mistaken idea. No candidate who buttonholes and importunes the dear people, and whispers such balderdash in their ears as "means it." There are plenty of good men in the county who are not candidates for office, but who would not refuse to serve the people, if they desired them to do so. We urge Republicans in the several districts in the county to consider this subject, and see whether they cannot find men who will truly represent the interests of the party and county, and to put them away, as has too frequently been done heretofore. His address, signed generally by Republicans in every section of the county, was directed to the best men, and urging them to be candidates for the Legislature, we feel confident, that they would not feel at liberty to refuse a call so potent. If the people want to break up the "Rings" in Lancaster city, they must take the "bit in their mouth" and participate in the primary elections if they hope to defeat the "Ring Masters."

Chief Justice Chase.

That Mr. Chase has made up his mind to sail in the same boat with the Democracy is no longer a matter of doubt. His inordinate ambition has led him to take the fatal step. So be it, he will sink so low in public estimation that a plummet line will never reach him, and he may, therefore, be numbered in the category with the traitors Doolittle, Cowan and Dixon, and the ill-favored brood of seven, headed by Fessenden, who, through pure jealousy of Wade, were willing to sacrifice both country and party. But the conduct of Chase has fully developed the necessity of an amendment to our National Constitution that will prevent the eligibility of any judge of the Supreme Court of the United States to the Presidency. The trial of Andrew Johnson discloses the fact that no man with Presidency on the brain can be a disinterested judge of the Senate, when the President is under impeachment.

Let us Have Peace.

The last phrase of Gen. Grant's admirable letter of acceptance strikes a chord which vibrates through the popular heart all over the country. Yes, let us have peace. Let the wasting distractions that have followed the close of the struggle in the field cease, and let us begin to reap the full fruits of the victory over rebellion purchased at such a fearful cost. However political mountebanks may enjoy the present unsettled state of affairs, the people want peace, and they know that a firm and lasting peace can only be obtained by the complet recognition, in the new political settlement of those principles which triumphed in the appeal to arms.

AN IMMEDIATE RESULT.—The straightforward, honest declaration of the Republican National Convention against "repudiation" in any form, has been followed instantly by an unusual rise in the value of our bonds in the foreign market and an unprecedented sale for them. This shows two things—that the wise course is the honest one, and that intelligent foreigners expect the Republican party to elect its ticket and control the national policy.

THE Copperhead papers find fault with the Republican platform adopted at Chicago, because they did not declare for negro suffrage in the original free States. Should they be compelled to nominate Chief Justice Chase for want of another candidate we suppose they will be required to adopt his universal suffrage and amnesty propositions, and while they are at it they can remedy all defects in the Republican platform.

LIKE withered trees stand the recusant Senators in the midst of the body they once ornamented. Never did the lightning of public opinion do its work more effectually.

—It is suggested that Grant wrote too many letters during the war. The one he penned at Fort Donelson, lost him Buckner's esteem and vote.

—Miss Josephine Lapham, a graduate of Antioch College, Ohio, has just appeared at Dayton as a Universalist preacher, and created a sensation.

—Franklin Pierce is now the only man living who was ever elected to the office of President of the United States.

—Napoleon paid over $40,000,000 in gold, to have Maximilian killed off and Carlotta sent to the mad-house.

—It has been decided in Davenport, Iowa, that colored children have a right to attend the public schools.

—New York State has 11,550 school houses, which are valued at $16,180,596. The system requires for its support $6,250,176.

—There are in the Salinas Valley 600,000 acres of land in grain, on which the crop promises to be large.

—Cornelius Vanderbilt is supposed to be worth $75,000,000. A large portion of his means is invested in railroad stocks and securities.

—Twenty-four rings were taken from the fingers of a young woman whose body was dug out of the land slide on Mesuvius.

—It is reported that black dress coats are going out of fashion in England and that blue coats with brass buttons, in which our fathers disported themselves are coming in.

—On the 1st of July a banquet will be given in London to Cyrus W. Field, under the presidency of the Duke of Argyll.

—Another fearful epidemic is raging in Mauritius; over 1,800 deaths have been reported.

—The gentleman who was distributing pamphlets of a doubtful character in Goodfund a few days since, must be sadly in want of respectable employment.

—The Columbia Insurance Office is the receptacle of a great deal of trash—the filth—[illegible] kind, too.

—Owing to the intense heat of Thursday last, two of the workmen engaged in laying the water pipes in Bank Alley, gave out.

—A merchant put an advertisement in a paper headed "Boy Wanted." Next morning he found a bandbox with an infant on his door step with this inscription, "How will this one answer."

—Our friends visiting Millersville, this county, will find first-class accommodations at the Black Horse Hotel, Jos. Knott, proprietor.

—A newspaper in Cleveland, having advertised that they would send a copy of their paper gratis for one year to the person sending them a club of ten, received the ten spot of clubs from a young lady in the country.

—A Western publisher lately gave notice that he intended to spend fifty dollars for the purpose of getting up "a new head" for his paper. The next day one of his subscribers dropped him the following note: "Don't do it—better keep the money and buy a new head for the editor."

—Mr. Rollins, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, has resigned because the President will not allow him to have honest officers to conduct the business of the revenue department. The President sees his friends stealing the government money at the rate of a hundred millions a year, and determines they shall not be disturbed as long as he can help it.

—The Fourth of July is once more fast approaching, and falls upon a Saturday this year. Is there anything to be "did?" Suppose the Republicans and Democrats (the latter having no Presidential nominee as yet—unite to celebrate the Fourth, and at the same time confess on General Grant, (the proposition does not embrace copperheads.) Poor Moses may be converted by that time, and might circulate the fluid in honor of the occasion, if nothing else.

Vallandigham
And Schurz too,
The best thing they can do.

Any way, something should be set on foot! What shall it be?

—The Poor Man's Friend.—Doctors' bills are too long for a poor man's pocket, but many of them may be avoided by keeping Grace's Celebrated Salve in the cupboard. It is the "precious pot of ointment," curing burns, cuts, scalds, bruises, sprains, wounds, chilblains, chapped hands, &c. Mothers, do not neglect to save your husband's hard-earned money, but purchase a box of this salve, only 25 cts.

"Onward, right onward,
Into the Valley of Death,
Rode the Six Hundred."

But larger, by hundreds multiplied into millions, than the doomed band who rode to swift destruction in Tennyson's poem, is the great cavalcade of unhappy men who are rushing to untimely graves, followed by the gaunt spectre, Dyspepsia. This is all wrong, and should cease. Plantation Bitters, the great Stomachic Pain Killer, cures Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Headache, Vertigo, Dullness, and all symptoms of kindred character, as if by magic. For Languor, Lassitude, Great Weakness and Mental Depression, they have a most wonderful effect.

—Magnolia Water—a delightful toilet article—superior to Cologne and at half the price.

LATEST NEWS.

The new Tax bill, ordered by the House will be ready in a day or two. The Committee on Ways and Means will not make any recommendations about the reduction of the tax on distilled spirits, they will leave the matter to the House. The sub-Committee on Tobacco will recommend the reduction of the tax on fine-cut chewing tobacco to 25 cents, and on smoking tobacco to 12 cents.

The newspapers in the interior of Pennsylvania state that the fruit crop, which it was believed would be abundant, now has the appearance of being a failure. Nearly all the blossoms had dropped off the trees before the fruit was formed. Apples, peaches and cherries seem to have suffered the most. This is a source of much regret, as both the apple and peach crops form an important staple of the country.

Senor Romero has arrived in Washington.

It is understood that the Grand Jury, at Washington, is making an examination with a view to a new indictment against Suratt, charging him only with conspiring to murder Mr. Lincoln.

The great German Sængerfest began in Chicago yesterday. The singers were formally received by the Mayor, and there was a concert in the evening.

The defalcation in the Hide and Leather National Bank of Boston, is ascertained to be $575,000. The surplus of the bank is $350,000.

The stock market was moderately active yesterday, and prices were firmer. Flour continued dull. Wheat and oats were unchanged. Rye was dull and lower. Corn was 1a2c per bushel higher. In cotton there was very little movement, but prices were firmer. Provisions sell in small lots at about former rates. Gold closed at 140¼, no change.

Is There Anything in it?

The locusts which have made their appearance here this season have the letter W clearly marked upon the end of each wing. In the year 1800 they came with the same significant initial. In 1817 they had the letter P on the end of each wing—the same in 1834, and in 1851 the letter W again. Now as the letter W is the initial letter of war and the letter P the initial letter of peace, the question is, is there anything in it. There are many persons who have the belief that these letters on the wings of these locust convey a meaning and a warning. According to Divine revelation, the locusts were sent as a curse, or plague on Pharaoh. If the letter W on their wings signify war, and P peace, then we will, sometime between this and 1885, have another struggle of some kind, either foreign or domestic.

A United States Marshal Assassinated by Kentucky Rebels.

[illegible], Ky., June 16.—Major [illegible], U. S. Marshal of this District, was assassinated in this place this morning by a [illegible] Rebel Soldier. He is the fifth Union man that has been murdered here within the past few months. During the war he was Major of the 17th (Ky.) Cavalry, and proved to be a very gallant officer. [illegible] Buffalo, New York.

BOWLING GREEN, Ky., June 17.—The assassination of Major Lawrence, at Russellville, yesterday, was the result of a deliberate determination on the part of the Rebels to kill or drive out every Union man in their midst. He had been repeatedly threatened by the Ku-Klux-Klan. A week ago he received notice that he was to be killed in less than ten days. He paid no attention to the warning, and as he was going out of town yesterday afternoon to serve a summons, the assassin stole upon him and literally butchered him in broad daylight. Capt. McClery, of the army, who went down to investigate the case, pronounced it a cool, premeditated murder. Union citizens are arming, and the utmost excitement prevails. A detachment of the 2d Regulars reached there last night.

THE DEMOCRATS manifest a disposition to have General Grant resign his position and retire from the army. That other crowd of Democrats, who had their headquarters in Richmond in 1865, were afflicted with a similar desire, but Grant didn't gratify them. We guess he won't gratify the others—at least not until after he has whipped them.

Literary Notices.

THE DIAMOND DICKENS.—Christmas Stories, and Sketches by Boz.—This is the thirteenth volume of the popular Diamond Edition of Dickens, and contains his earlier Christmas Stories.—The Christmas Carol, The Chimes, The Cricket on the Hearth, The Battle of Life, and The Haunted Man. These stories are unapproachable in their way, full of the genius, the humor, and the deep humanity that distinguish Dickens above almost every other living author. This volume has, besides, the inimitable Sketches by Boz.

The illustrations are admirable, depicting in a striking manner the characters and scenes represented.

The cost of each volume of the beautiful Illustrated Diamond Dickens is only $1.50 in plain edition, $1.25. It can be procured of any bookseller, or will be sent postpaid by the publishers, Ticknor and Fields, Boston.

A TALE OF TWO CITIES; AND GREAT EXPECTATIONS.—The twelfth volume of the Diamond Edition of Dickens's Works contains the two stories named above. The Tale of Two Cities pictures in a most powerful and graphic manner the causes and events of the French Revolution. It is thoroughly dramatic, and, though painting some terrible scenes, is inspired by a genuinely humane spirit. "Great Expectations" is a story of private life, with plenty of humor, an ingenious and original plot, and is one of the most effective stories, both in narrative and character, ever written.

The illustrations are excellent, strikingly in keeping with the spirit of the characters and scenes represented.

A NEW VOLUME.—The Pictorial Phrenological Journal for July contains portraits of many distinguished Men and Beautiful Women. European and Asiatic Beauties—English, French, German, Russian, Grecian, Swedish, Austrian, Polish, Swiss, Dutch, Turkish, and Japanese; also, Lord Brougham, Abbott, Lawrence, Zadok Pratt, Peter Von Cornelius, Verdi, Miss Pittsinger, and twelve Roman Catholic Prelates and Priests, Mahomet and his Religion. "The development Theory," by Prof. Gill; Lady Dafferty, or the Woman Question; Thirteen National Types of Female Beauty; Professional Instruction in Practical Phrenology; Indians and Mountains of Oregon; a French Educator on American Schools; and much other very interesting matter. A new volume begins with this number. Only $3 a year, or $1.50 for six months. Address S. R. Wells, 389 Broadway, New York.

THE JULY NUMBER OF LIPPINCOTT'S MAGAZINE of Literature, Science and Education, presents a table of contents which cannot fail to please the lovers of refined literature. Yearly Subscription, $4; Single Number, 35 cents. Specimen number sent to any address on receipt of thirty-five cents, by the Publishers.

Now Ready, Volume I. of Lippincott's Magazine, containing a Serial Novel; Numerous entertaining Tales and Sketches; Large 8vo, 680 pages. Printed on toned paper. Fine cloth, $2.50.

N. B.—Cloth cases furnished separately, for binding volumes, Price 50 cents. Sent by mail, postage free, on receipt of price. J. B. Lippincott & Co., Publishers, 715 and 717 Market St., Philadelphia.

GODEY.—This ever welcome messenger to the ladies is out for July, in all its brilliant beauty. If you want to learn all the new fashions, get it—if you want your children to learn drawing, get it—if you want new patterns in crotchet work, get it—if you want splendid household receipts, get it—you want good, moral literary food in your family, get it—in short, if you want the best magazine of the day, by all means get GODEY. The illustrations, fashion plates, &c., in this number are not excelled by any other magazine.

DEMOREST'S YOUNG AMERICA.—Of all the juvenile periodicals, Demorest's Young America is the only one that has really made a distinctive name and place. Its pictures, its games, its puzzles, render it universally popular among the little ones, while its varied and instructive character equally recommends it to the attention of parents and teachers. The series of French lessons, or the music, which is a feature, are alone worth several times the cost of the book. $1.50. W. Jennings Demorest, 473 Broadway, N. Y.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Some [illegible] many suffer from general debility, others from weakness of the stomach and inability to digest their food; some have creeping sensations along the nerve fibres, or pain in the back, with aching and weary throbbing of the limbs. Thousands of ladies suffer through long years from what are called Female Complaints, caused by the relaxation of muscles and organs and the general deficiency of nutrition. Thousands of business men, overworked in mind and body, use up the nervous fluid and become unfit for duty or the enjoyment of life. Excesses of youth, and the terrible effects of fever and ague, involve shattered constitutions and the failure of the general functions of health. To sufferers from all these causes [illegible]

DODD'S NERVINE AND INVIGORATOR

[illegible] a natural and complete recovery of lost powers. No person, man or woman, suffering from nervous [illegible] remedy. The Nervine will be found to possess an equalizing and nutritive principle. It allays irritation, and likewise promotes the secretions of the system. It has affinity for the nervous fibres, and supplies them for the waste that is constantly taking place. Like wholesome food taken into the stomach, it undergoes rapid digestion, invigorating in its process the digestive organs, and producing a

"A Clergyman's WIFE SAYS:

"Dear Doctor,—Thanks, medicine prescribed by you [illegible] obtained, and will say that Dodd's Nervine and Invigorator is all that it claims to be. I feel like a new man; the aching of my limbs is all gone; I sleep [illegible] have for many years past. [illegible] DR. H. [illegible] 259 Clinton street, Brooklyn, New York."

"I have used the Nervine, and find myself much benefited by it, particularly in the increase of strength and more of these trembling sensations. My [illegible] also seems to be entirely cured." [Letter to Dr. Tucker.]

"The medicine you ordered (Dodd's Nervine) we have taken three bottles of. It is a great thing. My wife says she would rather have one bottle of it than forty doctors. She is certainly better. [illegible] dragging down so much; bowels move easier, and in better nervous condition every way." [illegible]

[illegible] Martin, Cashier, Girard House, Long Branch [illegible] states that [illegible] Dodd's Nervine has cured a child of chorea [illegible] and sick headache, and greatly strengthened his whole system.

David Hamilton [illegible] Brooklyn, cured of chronic muscular and nervous debility.

John Harbut, Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "To regulate the bowels without producing cathartic effects; quiet the nerves, and tone up the system, I have never used anything that equalled Dodd's Nervine."

F. Deans, Esq., Eastford, Conn.: "My wife has suffered for seventeen years with extreme nervous debility and mental prostration. She was induced by a friend to try Dr. J. W. Dodd's Nervine and Invigorator, and by its use is now restored to perfect health."

Dr. C. C. York, Charlestown, Mass.: "In cases of great nervous debility, not confined to any one sex, to the female sex, although from the greater delicacy of the female organization more common than among men, I employ Dodd's Nervine and Invigorator with the happiest effect. It exceeds in tonic power anything that I know of, and its action upon the bowels is all that can be desired."

DODD'S NERVINE AND INVIGORATOR is employed in the Massachusetts Hospital for the Insane, at Taunton.

DYSPEPSIA

There is no disease which experience has so amply proved to be remediable by the

PERUVIAN SYRUP,

(a protected solution of the Protoxide of Iron), as Dyspepsia. The most inveterate forms of this disease have been completely cured by this medicine, as ample testimony of some of our first citizens proves.

From the VENERABLE ARCHDEACON SCOTT, D. D., Dunham, Canada East.

" * * I am an inveterate Dyspeptic of more than 25 years standing."

" * * I have been so wonderfully benefited in the three short weeks during which I have used the Peruvian Syrup, that I can scarcely persuade myself of the reality. People who have known me are astonished at the change. I am widely known, and can but recommend to others that which has done so much for me." * *

ANOTHER CLERGYMAN WRITES AS FOLLOWS:

"My voyage to Europe is indefinitely postponed. I have discovered the 'Fountain of Health' on this side of the Atlantic. Three bottles of Peruvian Syrup have rescued me from the fangs of the fiend Dyspepsia."

A pamphlet of 32 pages, containing a history of this remarkable remedy, with a treatise on Iron as a medicine, will be sent free to any address.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE FACTS AS THEY ARE:

Improvements. We began in 1861 to make improvements in the style and make of Ready Made Clothing, and continued to do so, introducing new styles and ideas every year, so that the entire character of the business is now vastly better and totally different from the systems of older houses.

What Customers want. Our first idea is to learn exactly WHAT THE CUSTOMERS WANT, and instead of persuading him to buy what may be most convenient, on hand, we take the utmost pains to meet HIS wishes.

Size of Building. The building we occupy is the MOST CONVENIENT SIZE, LARGEST AND BEST ADAPTED for our business, of any in Philadelphia.

Light Windows. Customers can see what they are buying—our Establishment being on the corner of three large streets, Market, Sixth and Minor streets, abundant light is afforded from all directions. A light store is far better for customers than a dark one.

The Largest Purchases. Merchants know that our sales are larger than those of any other house in Philadelphia, in our line; hence we have to buy larger quantities of goods, and so get them at lower prices, especially as we buy altogether for cash. Buying cheapest, we can sell cheapest.

Inspection. We closely examine every inch of goods that comes into our Establishment, invariably rejecting all imperfect, moth-eaten and tender fabrics.

A Great Saving. The time wasted in looking over the stocks of a dozen stores can be avoided, for, under one roof, we offer, for sale an assortment equal in variety and extent to that embraced by a score of the ordinary houses.

Fresh Goods. We have 600 hands employed in the manufacture of Clothing, who are constantly making up stock to take the place of that daily sold; this gives our customers new and fresh goods to make selections from.

Custom Department. Next, an undisputed fact that this Department, in a large Hall, on our second floor fronting on Minor street, has nothing in Philadelphia to equal it. We have here concentrated the best skill and workmanship, and those who prefer Clothing made to order really have advantages they do not receive elsewhere.

Deductions. DEDUCTIONS. From all of the above we deduce this one fact, that Oak Hall has all the advantages of any other Clothing Establishments in the city, and in addition others, to wit:
1st.—A firm composed of young men of the present generation, fully in sympathy with the tastes of the day.
2d.—An insight to the wants of the people and an enterprise to meet these wants, which in seven years has placed Oak Hall in a position, not always attained in experience of twenty-five years.
3d.—A Building better located, better lighted, better adapted and newer in all its appointments.
4th.—Workmen, especially Cutters, who are not only from among the best and most experienced, but are artists in their professions and couple with good work in stylishness, in which Philadelphia tailoring has been particularly deficient.
It is the liberal patronage with which we have been favored that has enabled us to offer the unparalleled advantages, and this patronage continued and extended will multiply advantages, which we divide between our customers and ourselves.
A visit to Oak Hall will prove every fact above stated.

SPRING & SUMMER CLOTHING.
FOR THE PEOPLE!
The great decline in the prices of material, and the reduction in taxation, enables all manufacturers, affected by these propitious events in the financial history of our country, to offer CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VESTINGS, and READY-MADE CLOTHING, at prices corresponding to those reductions. Therefore, as the lowest minimum has been reached in the manufacture of goods, and as legislation can do no more for us now, there is no advantage in waiting. Then add one and all repair at once to the CLOTHING AND FURNISHING ESTABLISHMENT of the subscriber, corner of North Queen and Orange Sts., (immediately opposite Shober's Hotel,) Lancaster, Pa., and replenish their wardrobes.
Special attention paid to Custom Work, for MEN AND BOYS, and good material and good fits insured.
