

Columbia, Pa. Saturday, June 27, 1868.

FOR PRESIDENT, GEN. ULYSSES S. GRANT, OF MISSOURI.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, SCHUYLER COLFAX, OF INDIANA.

LEGISLATIVE CORRUPTION. There was, when bribery and corruption were entirely unknown...

LOOK OUT FOR FRAUDS. The friends of Grant and Colfax must look out for frauds at the next election.

OUR REPRESENTATIVE. We are very glad to learn that our distinguished member of Congress, Mr. Thaddeus Stevens...

THE STATE FAIR. On Thursday afternoon of last week, the Committee of Arrangements appointed to fix the details relative to the next exhibition of the State Agricultural Society...

WHISKY RING. It is very singular that we read in the newspapers so frequently of whisky having been seized...

HON. THADDEUS STEVENS. From present indications we may expect Congress to adjourn in the course of a month...

DEMOCRACY IS and has been, since the close of the war, the only obstacle to the complete restoration of the country's peace.

THE PRESIDENT. The President has been nominated by the House of Representatives...

THE PRESIDENT. The President has been nominated by the House of Representatives...

Grant and Colfax—The Campaign. Our ticket is now in the field. It is a noble one.

While the purity of our ticket is an almost positive assurance of success, we must remember that we have a wily and unprincipled foe to fight...

On the contrary, we present a platform that appeals irresistibly to the masses. Embodied in it are the principles which are designed to magnify and perpetuate the glories of the republic...
