Radicalism and its Triumphs. Talk about voting down Radicalism Gentlemen, Radicalism is the greatest success of modern times. It raised the biggest armies, the largest sums of money, fought the greatest battles, took more prisoners, ambigued the bravest men and the greatest numbers of them that was ever done in any age or country. With the bankrupt Treasury, inherited from its opponents, it knew how to raise not less than six or seven thousand millions of dollars, and fought a rebellion to its death; with nearly half the country in revolt against it, after every defeat rising in unshaken faith that Almighty God ruled the destiny of the United States to higher issues; they raised armies of millions of men; and while meeting with defeat after defeat, embarrassed by opposition at home and mocked by the rulers and nobles of Europe, its courage rose still higher, to the day of complete victory. While the struggle raged, it emancipated 5,000,000 of people, calling a race to life and liberty—a fact that will be luminous while the memory of the race remains among men. Do you think this radicalism could be scured by the eternal devil? When Hannibal after Cannae, encamped at the gaits of the city, the Romans put up for sale in the forum the ground under his feet: So the men who conquered the Rebellion, while it was yet exulting over the defeat of Bull Run, opened the Treasury and built up the Capitol, higher and broader, for the future Congress of the Union. This is the radical power they would have us put down by electing to county offices little Confederate Rebel officers, whose greatest feats in the war, perhaps, consisted in carrying off the horses, sheep,&c. [Roars of laughter,] of their old neighbors. "With charity for all and malice toward none, with faith in the right as God gives to see the right," let us go on with this Union cause; let us keep the standard of our faith full high advanced, marching under it with confidence while carried in the hands of its grealest captain. Let us not desert that cause and run after that cold and barren feast to which the Democratic party has invited us. This political organization, like the institution of Slavery, is worn out, and broken into pieces. [Voices, "That's so," and "Amen."] Speech of Hon Wm. H. Wadsnorth, at Flemingsburg, Ky. Its good effects are permanent. In this it differs from all hair dyes. By its use luxuriant growth is gnaranteed, natural color and gloss are restored. One trial will-cause you to say this of Mr. S. A. Allen's Improved (new suple) Hair Restorer or Dressing, (mone bottle.) Every Druggist sell it. Price One Dollar. [je6-4t]

GRAY HAIR TO ITS ORIGINAL YOUTHFUL COLOR. It makes the scalp white and clean; cures dand-ruff and humors, and falling out of the hair; and will make it grow upon hald heads, except in very aged persons, as it furnishes the nutritive principle by which the hair is nonrished and supported. It makes the hair moist, soft, and glossy, and is unsurpassed as a HAIR DIESS-ING. It is the cheapest preparation everoffered to the public, as one bottle will accomplish more and last longer than three bottles of any other preparation.

IT IS RECOMMENDED AND USED BY THE FIRST MEDICAL AUTHORITY.
