THE OUARTO FORM .- The mania forissuing newspapers in the quarto (or gight page form, that has prevailed so largely for the past year or two, seems to be rapidly subsiding, and many papers that adopted it a few months ago are changing back-to the folio form, giving as n reason that "the inside pages of the quarto form are objected to by advertisers as not placing their advertisements in a ufficiently prominent manner before the public, Pand there appears to be justice in the complaint.

WORTH REMEMBERING .- "If a man faints away," says Hall's Journal of Health, "instead of yelling out like assavage, or running to lift him up, lay him at full length on his back on the floor, loose the clothing, push the crowd away so as to allow the air to reach him; and let him alone. Dashing water over a person in a simple fainting fit is a : barbarity. The philosophy of r fainting fit is that the heart fails to send the proper supply of blood to the brain. If the person is erect, that blood has to be thrown up hill: but if lying down it has to be prejected horizontally, which requires less power, as is apparant."

THE undersigned, members of the Republican County Committee, residing in Columbia, do not approve of the suggestion of Martin S. Fry, chairman of the committee, that it would be showing respect to the memory of the late Hon. Thaddens Stevens, by voting for his name on Saturday, next. No expression of opinion at a Primary Election can make the fame of the great man who has fallen, more enduring in the memory of man than it is. SUCCESSFUL AT LAST.—The stable occupied by German Himes, situated in-the alley between Union and Perry streets, after being unsuccessfully set on fire four times, was at last burned Wednesday morning, about nine o'clock. The people in this vicinity have lived in dread for some time past, as several attempts have lately been made to fire buildings in the neighborhood. There is certainly something very mysterious about this fire—that a person should so persistently continue to fire the same building. If known, the person should have been thrown in the flames; they deserve no better fate, whether man or woman, as we hold it is the next thing to murder itself to secretly fire a neighbor's property.

Reed in a neat adress, receiving the undivided attention of the audience and retiring smid deafening cheers for Grant & Colfax, after which the the meeting adjourned.

VIGILANT FIRE COMPANY. At ceting of this Company, held on Saturday evening, the following resolution, offered by A. J. Kauffman, Esq., was unanimously

RESOLVED, That the purchasing Committee be authorized to purchase a Button Second-Class Steam Fire Engine, as described in his (Button's) proposition, provided dt can be purchased ata price and on terms which will be satisfactory to said Committee. The meeting was very large, and the steamer question discussed at length. Several rich, rare and spicy speeches were made by the members, as to the propriety of ordering a steamer at once-such a one as would compete with any in the county and that the company would take a pride in caring for. The Button make seems to be the favorite with the majority of the members, and they are in for having the critter ordered immediately; whilst the balance favor the Purchasing Committee doing their best-getting rid of the old en gines, etc., in part payment, if possibletesting other makes, and buying at the lowest figure. The latter we think is the better and most business-like plan of the two. TRUE No observation can be truer than the remark, of a cotemporary that local papers always render a full equivalent for their cost, and are deserving of the support of the citizens of the county. There are in every vicinity, many things of local nterest which the county papers make known, and which could reach the public in no other way. The reports of the procéedings of the courts, of public meetings of local societies, etc., are all of general interest, and are worth more than the paper costs. It is taken as an index by strangers of the prosperity of the section where published. One wishing to go to a new place naturally looks to the local paper to give him information concerning the resurrces and delelopment of the vicinity, and its appearance and contents exercises no small influence in deciding as to the durability of the location. The influence of a well conducted paper in attracting attention and immigration to a town and county, and consequently, increasing the value of property, is very great and is sufficient reason why, it should receive support from all enterprising and intelligent citizens. THE following was published in the Daily Sry of Wednesday; the next day it made its appearance in a rebel journal, altered to suit that paper. Now this is just the same way"; brigham young" humbugs the people with his bogus Insurance Company: WHAT A DEMOCRAT SAYS. - A highly respected Democrat from the country called to see us a few days ago. We were glad to see him, as we are all patrons and friends. His visit was for the purpose of renewing his subscription. 'He informs us that he is much pleased with our paper, and that the reading of the advertisements alone has paid him over and over again. He says he "finds the Sry energetically edited, and to excel in its general variety of interesting matter. He remarked, too, that he had been solicited to stop the Sry and take one of the Democratic papers of the Jacob Greider; Corresponding Secretary, county. His reply was, "the SEX is a live Dr. G. Wash. Berutheizel; Recording Sec- paper indeed, the best paper in the Ninth paper-indeed, the best paper in the Ninth Congressional district, and although its sentiments do not agree with mine, I shall always give it the preference over its cotemporaries.?' This is encouraging, indeed, and we assure our friend that; we feel grateful for good opinions.

HARVEST HOME.—The Harvest Home held in Haldeman's woods, near Bainbridge, Thursday, was very successful, indeed. Early in the day, signs of unusual commetion were manifest. Every person in the usually quiet village was full of life. The people from the country round throng ed its streets, and the cars brought crowds from Harrisburg, Marietta, Columbia and intervening stations. The Odd Fellows, Good Templars and other temperance organizations were well represented. At 11 o'clock, the procession was formed in two divisions; first the Odd Fellows, under the marshalship of Capt. E. D. Roath, of Marietta, aided by assistant marshals, appointed by the several Lodges represented; and econd the representatives of the temperance organizations, and citizens, in catriages and upon foot, under the marshalship of Samuel Eby, Esq., of Elizabethtown, assisted by Jacob Stoner, of Bainbridge. The procession then proceeded to the woods, in the following order:

the following order:

Accompanying some of the above men.

Accompanying some of the above mentioned Lodges, were representatives from Lancaster Lodge, No. 67, Susquehanna, No. 80, and State Capitol, No. 70. The woods having been reached, the exercises were begun with a prayer by Rev. J. C. Gregg, of Chester county. Capt. E. D. Roath, on behalf of the ladies of Bainbridge, then presented a very fine copy of the Bible to Bainbridge Lodge, No. 627, I. O. of O. F. It was accepted on behalf of the Lodge, by Dr. P. G. Levergood. Both gentlemen made short but pleasant addresses. A very handsome silver set of Subordinate Lodge jewels, nicely encased, were then exhibited and announced to be given to the Lodge which should, by 4 o'clock P. M., have obtained the highest number of votes, each vote to cost 10 cents. The meeting was then organized and officers elected, and after which adjourned for dinner. About an hour and a shalf was spent in feasting and strolling beneath the cool shade. Then the crowd, about 15,000. re-assembled to hear Mr. Coombe. Whilst he was speaking, Gov. Geary, Hon. J. P. Wickersham and Isaac Gara came upon the ground. As soon as they were seen, the woods resounded with cheers. At the con-clusion of Mr. Coombe's address, Mr. Barr Spangler, of Marietta, who was elected President of the meeting, introduced Gov. Geary, who was again builed with cheers by the crowd, the band playing "Hail to the Chief." The Governor then delivered a very interesting and instructive address. was succeeded by Dr. Stebbins, of Unionville, Chester county. At the conclusion of his remarks, the result of the vote for the "jewels" was announced as follows: Donegal Lodge, 440 votes; Bainbridge Lodge, 612 votes; Susquehanns Lodge, 701 votes. The meeting then adjourned. sine die. Everything passed of very pleasantly, At intervals during the exercises, the air was made very musical by the bands. The Columbia Cornet Band which accompanied Donegal Lodge, of Marietta, elicted mark ed admiration. Sons of Malta at Marietta—Grand Procession, &c.-Monday evening was the looked for time when the inhabitants of Marietta were to be astonished, and the ancient and most honorable order, of the Sons of Malta established there. At about 7 o'clock, P. M., the special train from this place, carried many of the Columbin Sons of Malta to Marietta. Upon their arrival they were marched to Geo. W. Heckrothe's Beilor House; there to prepare for the highly interesting and very instructive exercises of the evening. From that time until 10.30 o'clock, nothing was seen of them: but we imagine plenty was heard. The sweet and thrilling intonations of the hewgag, together with the manifestations of the unruly goat, all combined to awe and solemnify. Towards 11 o'clock, the order merged from the hall, amid a great crowd of men. women and children, there congregated to witness the scene. The order slowly from the hall, headed by the Columbia Cornet Band-the best in the county. In the procession could be seen the un worthy member, "his bones now bleaching in the light of the stars." We could not discover two faces alike, and surely a more handsome set of individuals could no where else be collected. All manner of grotesque costumes were resorted to, and some of them beautiful and elegant. Most of the members carried drawn swords, and wore white gowns with large Maltese Cross on left breast; while others were turbans, visors, cowls, etc. The Grand Commande wore the Continental uniform. They made i very formidable appearance—indeed the like of which was never before seen in this region. The procession was followed over town by a very large number of people, and was the occasion of much merriment and excitement among the staid people of Marietta. One of the features of the occasion was the brilliantly illuminated Seltze House, kept by Dr. Howard. It presented a beautiful and lively appearance. In from of the house was a large transparency en circled in evergreen, as follows: LET IT BE RECORDED! WELCOME SONS OF MALTA!

The procession halted at the Boilor House,
The understand would respectfully nyite the

Mr. Leckrothe deserves great credit for spreading a most tempting array of creature comforts for the inner-man. All the brethren of Marietta deserve special notice for their kind attentions to the visitors. They are a whole-souled and lively party.

The festivities were kept up till about midnight, when all quietly boarded the return train for Columbia. Here again, procession, much to the wonder of the inhabitants, was entered into. After, marchng through several streets, and astonishing the nativos generally, the Sons dis persed at their hall, in the SPY building, well pleased with the events of the evening, and with a much higher veneration for their order-its customs, and styles. We wish the I. O. S. M. many new recruits, and much success.
