Lincoln's Appreciation of Grant.

The same flesh of electric current which announced Lincoln's great victory at Gettysburg brought the even more thrilling news that Pemberton had unconditionally surrendered to the victorious Grant at Vicksburg.

My Dear General, I do not remember that you and I ever met personally. I write this now as a grateful acknowledgment of the most important service you have done for the country.

It is not that I am proud of the fact that I have been elected to the office of President of the United States, but that I have been elected to the office of President of the United States by the people of the United States.

Soix of the Copperheads don't like to be called. Copperheads any more, and would prefer being called something else. They say a rose, will smell as sweet by any other name, and now that the war is over, that they have been licked and feel as mean as they ought.

As much as England, indeed all the monarchies of Europe, are in favor of the success of the Democratic candidates and opposed to the building up of a true Republican Government in the United States.

THE HON. EDWARD McPHERSON, the present Clerk of the House of Representatives at Washington, we understand, is very much used as a candidate for United States Senator.

CAN any man tell what the Copperheads would do, or what they would give to accomplish the defeat of General Grant at the next election in November?

It is not to be disguised that money is used as an influence to control the elections of United States Senators, as well as other matters.

GEN. FRANK P. BLAIR has written to a prominent Penian in the city of New York, pledging himself and Gen. Seymour to the policy of declaring war against England if the Penians, as an organization, would work for Blair's election.

NEWS from the South is of such a character, that we cannot mistake its meaning. War is again intended.

THE HON. EDWARD McPHERSON, the present Clerk of the House of Representatives at Washington, we understand, is very much used as a candidate for United States Senator.

The high contesting parties are at work, very busy and very earnest in their efforts to secure votes. Money is being reckoned and all those who have votes to sell may expect a rich harvest.

SCUYLER COLFAX, from poverty, obscurity and orphanage, has steadily won his way, while yet in the prime of life, to the third place in our Government.

THE men who cursed you or your countenance at Andersonville and Libby, are now boisterously shouting for Seymour and Blair.

LETTER from Wisconsin. MILWAUKEE, August 18, 1866. BROOKER RAMBO—Since my last to you I have had much to say and do.

NEWS from the South is of such a character, that we cannot mistake its meaning. War is again intended.
