The Result.

Lust week, dear reader, we were advising with you in behalf of the Common wealth and country-this week we can congratulate you, feeling proud over the victories that cluster upon every side. Pennsylvania is secure, made so by the. ballois of her sons secure from Rebel raids, and from the disgrace that a reign of Copperheadism within her borders would foist upon her. One week ago, in consideration of the immense frauds concocted by the disloyal element of this State aided and abetted by that clan from Baltiniore, Washington and New York, who gained our contempt for their pillage within our borders during the late rebellion, we had caused to tremble for the great conflict of Tuesday last ... But that conflict is over and above the tumult incident to, such a the proclamation basigone forth, hear and far, that Pennsylvania is redeemd, and that the same hands that aided her in the dark days of recellion shall hold her reins of government and direct her course and prosperity in the glad times of peaced Let us rejoice, friends, and as proud victors, join the chorus:

Hurral for Pennsylvania! she's blaring up at last Like a red furnace mollen, with Freedom's rushing blast From all her mines a new light shines, out of her The glorious fire leaps hig her and higher till all the Added to local cause of gladness, is the voice of Ohio, which gives a Repubtune of 2,000 majority; and to this, the voice of Indiana, which if not granting how the city was carried : the majority of 2,000 that is now claimed, shows the triumph of Republicanism, by large : gains, throughout her porders. Let us thank God for these great achievements, and with the poet sing : "Praise Gol com shour all pessings how; Praise Him all creatures here beau Praise Him above, yo heavenly host; Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost;

Somerning has certainly come over Brigham! We don't know what to think of him: Just read what he says since the election:

"At the present moment, appearances indicate that the Keystone State has given in majority for the Radical telest. "We believe in the justice of God. aWabelieve that It is justice must be satisfied. The cup of our affliction is not yet full. As he punished his chosen people of old who rebelled against Him, so will be punish our pride and injustice."

The littlies are ours, "Brigham, what do you mean by "appearances?" Most any one else would have made the expression intelligent, by substituting "the "voice of the people," or "election returns" for "appearances." You must do better, or "give up the ship." Further : "Wo. believe in the Justice of God." Lefter it would seem that Brigham's mind has? clianged-that he believes in God, and that the triumph of Radicals, is but an evidence of His Justice a Further There cup of our affliction is not yet full "By this we infer he feels that the wickedness of Democracy deserves even greater defeat than it has recently received. Then he goes on to sayi God published His people of old because they rebelled. This directs attention to the recent Democratic rebellion, and is doubtless intended as a comparison; and when Brigham further asserts that "our pride and injustice" will. be further punished, he, frankly admits' our continued charges against his partyfor no one could understand his word and his adherents. Brigham, if we have convinced you of your error, morally and politically, we have done something that may redound to the honor of our "apeish": character; but please; don't-we, beg you desist-join our glorious, Heaven-born, victorious party, lest your sins follow you,

Now that full evidence has been given showing that through the design or neglect (either of which is criminal) of the Prothonotary of the Supreme Court, untold frauds have been committed in the naturalization of foreigners not entitled to the Judges of that court to dismiss that officer, and appoint in his stead a competent and honest man, who will not and cannot be used for any improper purpose by any political party. We are sorry that truth obliges us to condemn Col-James Ross Snowden, the present Clerk of the Court but investigation in Court has shown, that he has either willingly made himself a party to the base frauds inally negligent that they have been conimitted in and through him and the seal of his office Such conduct demands ro buke, and after the able and condemnating letters of Justices Reed and Agnew. we do not see how a majority of that Court can consistently retain him in his position any longer. Our cry is therefore,

alaboring beneath with the view

Free Labor Menaced: that there is among the people of this country, no class more interested in maintaining the freedom of elections than the workingmen, upon whom so much in the maintenance of our institutions depends. The people who are entirely dependent upon their daily labor have such an abiding interest in "the welfare of the general government that they should be allowed to follow the untrammeled dietates oftheir judgments; and it is no sign because a man is blessed with an abundance of capital, and gives employment to others and pays wages for their labor, that he should bully those workmen, into voting as he desires, under penalty of dismissal The capitalist who does this not only inflicts a wrong upon the men under his mmediate supervision, but insults directy the whole body of workmen of the country. It is an attempt by Capital to coerce Labor, and by dictating its course of action, to make of itself a political as well as a labor power.

Only a few days ago a mechanic, in one of the government shops down east, was approached by a Democratic candidatewith the intimation that with his continu ed employment depended upon his giving his support to the Democratic candidate. He nobly rescuted the insult and as a consequence, was promply discharged. With the manliness characterizing his companions as fellow workney, they immediately sent him a barrel of flour, with the further assurance that they were ready to assist him to the utmost extent.

We have beretofore called attention to the appeal made some months since by Wade Hampton that the Democratic party of the South should make it an absolute condition in hiring a man that he should give; satisfactory assurances and pledge himself by the most binding obligations to vote for Seymour and Blair; that any one who refused to do this,who should violate his pledge and vote for Grant and Colfax, sliould be immediate ly discharged. And not only discharged. but that his name should be posted battle, the stern arm of Right is lifted, and throughout the South, so that his perfidy should exclude him from employment wherever he went. The Democratic party in all the Southern-States has heartily adopted that recommendation of Wade Hampton.

How Philadelphia was Carried by the Democrats. The election in Philadelphia, on Tuesday last, was one warmly contested, and the result was a sceming Democratic triumph. No honest man, that has read of the colonization and naturalization schemes imtroduced by the Democracy will believe for a moment but that the floating vote of rowdies and ruffians from lican majority of 25,000; and to this, Baltimore and New York made up such the voice of Nebraska, speaking to the a result. The following from Wednesday Philadelphia Bulletin, will explain "Mob law ruled in Philadolphia yester

"Mob law ruled in Philadolphia yester-iday." It swaggered in our streets; swarmed at our polls; it flooded our ballot boxes. Armed ruffines found from one precinct to another, voting in many places with unchallenged in pantity. Clitizens were instited from; the polls in the mercadecent wards, while in many precinets and the law grant of the city, and Expandions were permitted to vote. They were knocked down kicked, beaten, shots and murdered by wieso gangs, imported by the Democratic mannegers from Bultimore and New York for the purpose. And while violence did its work of intimidation, fraud was busy in every corner of the city. Every election division had its share of the Sharswood and Snowden voters colopized in it. A few of them were detected and their votes refused. But the large majority of these fraudulent and illegal naturalization papers, were voted, and between violence and fraud the yote of this cointunity was 'nullified and a majority returned for the Democratic ticket, in the face, of, the most palpable proofs that not less than a majority of Vive Thousand had been honestly won by the legitimate voters of Philadolphia for the Republican ticket." been honestly won by the legitimate voters of Philadelphia for the Republican ticket." An Illustrated Railroad Document.

Railrond reports are usualy dry compilaions of figures, which to the general reader, ure devoid of attraction or interest. But un exception must be made in the case of the now pamphlet just issued by the Union Pacific Ballroad, Company, whose forty pages are full of matter not only interesting in itself, but prosented in attractivo form. The book is made up of an "Intro-duction," showing the organization of the Juction, showing the organization of the these Wards. These tiles indicate the varied contents of the book which we venture to suy, gives a clearer idea of the extent and capacity of the Great West than a impority of our geographies succed in doing. An accurate map accom-panies the work, while-the-artist's aid has been called in to make perfect what is in every way so excellent, and we have appro, printe headings and vignettes for the chap-

The rond is now complete for 850 miles, and will reach the vicinity of Great Salt Lake before winter, and by July of 1869 the entire line to the Pacific will be in ac. tive coperation. The smoke of the battle has lifted, and in the dust we find the vile vipers, Democrats, Copperheads and Rebels defeated, dismayed, cowardly cringing! Columbia is not he gem of the ocean, but well may her people name her the "Gem of the Susquenanna"-the home of the brave and the free. Here, against every conceivable attempt at fraud, against the free use of money, and the Salt Lake Herald's piteous lies, and its appeal to base passions rather than reason, we have rolled up the proud majority of over 100, an increase over last venr of 25, and while we write thousands of our loyal citizens, headed by a band of music, are parading the streets, and en-thusiasm is unbounded. What can we say for the enemy? Brignum, poor soul, will now begin to realize hat the future has nothing but defeat for aim, and Grier, his peer in the depths of nfamy, will stare at the ghost of departing hopes, and can but retire to the brawls of bome.
