RHODES.—Your excellent "unparadletal" is at hand, for which accept unfeigned thanks. It does "make a fellow feel good," but we think that its constant use through several generations would fait to make us a Seymourie. THE PAVEMENTS .- We notice that workmen are employed repairing the pave-ments on Front street, North of Walnut. We hope to see the work pushed forward in other sections.

DUCKS.—Sportsmen are now enjoying a delightful season. We learn that ducks are quite plentiful in the river. From morning till night we hear the sound of the sportsman's gun, and suppose that "dead ducks" is the result.

A NUISANCE.—We have noticed fires in our streets for several evening past, made by boys, of leaves from trees, trash, &c. This amusement is a dangerous one, and we are led to enquire where the Chief Burgess keeps himself, that he has not inter-

BRIGHAM YOUNG is in the insurance business. Some people wonder how he keeps up his Copperhead paper. It is easily understood, when the fact is revealed that bills for the Company. He charges what he pleases, and thus his Copperhead concern is kept affont by the Company.

PRODUCE MARKET. -At town market Wednesday, the following were the prices: Butter, 40 ets. per lb.; potatoes, $1.25 per bushel; eggs, 28 cts. per dozen; lard, 18 cts. per lb.; hams, 20 ets., shoulders, 17 ets., sides 17 ets. per lb.; chickens, 80 ets. to $1.00 per pair; turkeys $1.25 to $1.50 apiece; cabge, 6 to 8 cts. per head: buckwheat, 51 cts. per lb. Market was well attended, and the several articles named above sold readily at annexed prices.

OUR TOWN .- No town within our knowledge will favorably compare with Columbia in the way of improvements that are constantly going forward. Scarcely a day passes but the foundation of a new building is made, and some new enterprise projected. Our mechanics are continually kept busily employed, and no place offers greater inducements to the industrious, upright mechanic, or thorough-going business

ADVERTISEMENTS. - The man who does not read the advertisements in his paper can never be said to be well informed. The advertisements indicate not only the business enterprise, but the enterprise of the advertiser. When you see a man who advertises liberally, you may be certain of finding a good stock of goods in his store, that he keeps up with the market, and sells cheaper than those who do not advertise. If you want good bargains, always patronize those who avail themselves of the advantages afforded through the advertising columns of their paper.

MONEY FOUND .- On the 16th inst., J. D. Smith, Esq., of this place, lost a pocket book, containing about $60. He inquired in every direction, but could gain no tidings of the same. At last he dropped into our office and invested a dollar in advertising, which had the desired result. The pocketbook and money were found by a young man living in Marietta, and a few days ago promptly returned to the owner. This is a practical demonstration of the efficiency of printers ink. Advertising pays, gentlemen; if you don't believe us, ask Mr.

A HEALTH CAUTION .- It is an erro neous notion that the public health only needs looking after in summer time. Common sense suggests that when warm weather admits of dwellings being thoroughly ventilated, there is really not as much cause for disease from overcrowding as exists during the season upon which we are now entering. In this season, out-door occupations being interdicted, the dwellings of the laboring classes are more crowded than usual: and it cannot be disguised that, during the cold weather, those epidemic-contagious diseases prevail, particularly among children, which are rarely met with in the summer.

THE SEASON OF FIRES.—New Haven has directed its fire marshal to examine every house, to see if the stoves and furnaces are put up properly, in order to diminish the fires. Our housekeepers should exercise similar caution at this sea-

RABBITS .- We notice that many of our boys are in the rabbit trade, and judging Thompson, residing near Pleasant Grove, from the number we daily see being this county. From Pleasant Grove the meeting with success. Yesterday we saw an oppossum in town, which had been caught by one of the boys. THE WINTER .- Some of the rural papers are dismally prophesying that this winter will be as hard as that of 1824, when the ground froze on the twentieth of Octoexcept with a pickaxe or crowbar. BELL-TOLLING .- The bells of our churches are often tolled, in respect to the dead. The propriety of bell-tolling on such occasions is seriously questioned by not a few of our citizens. It is one of the many fashions that are entirely useless, and in many instances a decided annoyance, especially to the sick or afflicted.

COPPERHEAD RASCALITY.—We direct the attention of every honest man to the rascality of Copperheads, as shown in our editorial columns to-day. A league of pub-lic outragers have organized to use money in the election on next Tuesday, and thus corrupt the ballot-box. We warn the public against the diabolical schemes of these political desperadoes. Let every Republican be at his post, and watch with an eagle's eye every attempt at fraud.

SUDDEN DEATH.—With profound sorow we chronicle the death of Eliza Davies, vife of Dr. D. I. Bruner, one of our oldest and most respected citizens, who died suddenly,lastSunday morning,in Philadelphia, where she was visiting relatives. She was an estimable lady, respected and beloved by all who knew her. Her loss will be deeply felt and mourned by her many relatives and friends in this community. Her remains will be brought to this place for

THE POOR .- The lowering clouds and chill winds proclaim that rude winter is approaching with rapid strides. Careful and prudent housekeepers are preparing to meet the invasion. Coal binns are being replenished; cellars stocked, and everyhing which can relieve the dark and dreary days will be put into requisition. But there is a class which winter always finds unprepared-the poor. At this season it is meet that the charitably inclined hould devise means to ameliorate the condition of those who cannot help themselves. There is a great and good work before hem, which should not be neglected.

UNFORTUNATE ACCIDENT .-- Col. Milton Weidler, of the firm of Sprenger & Weidler, brewers, of this place, met with a very unfortunate accident, yesterday. He was driving into the yard at P. Reisinger's Lamb Tavern, and in crossing the gutter one of the horses stopped, and apparently became unmanagable, when the Colonel, fearing an accident, jumped out to take the horse by the head, and in doing so broke his left leg. It is supposed he slipped on one of the cobble-stones in the gutter, or alighted with great force on the one leg. He was taken into Mr. Reisinger's, where his leg was set, and where he still remains. It was a very bad fracture—the bones prothe directors do not inspect his printing truding through the flesh. The accident is very much regretted by his many friends in this community.

YORK COUNTY ITEMS .- We take the York County Items.—We take the following from the York Democrat:
The Moravian Church, in North Duke street, was dedicated to the services of God, on Sunday last. The services were exceedingly interesting, solemn and impressive.
On Monday night, the 19th inst., about 12 o'clock, the house of Mr. Jacob Markey, near Raffensparger's store, in Washington township, was entered by burglars and robbed of some forty collars in noney and a few articles of clothing of trifling value.

The saloon of George Seager in East Main street, was entered on last Thursday night by some prowling night thief and robbed of about ten dollars of change that had been left in the drawer. The party who committed the deed first went to Mr. Seager's house, in South Duke street, and got the key of the saloon out of his pantaloons' pocket.

The general agent of the Pacific and Atlantic Telegraph Company visited Mechanicsburg last week, to make arrangements to establish an office of the Company there. The intention is to connect with the line running on the State road from Harrisburg to Gettesburg at Shepherdstown. to Gettysburg, at Shepherdstown.

A VISIT TO THE COLUMBIA FIRE COMPANY'S ROOMS .- On Saturday evening last we were, by invitation, ushered into the splendid hall of the Columbia Fire Company. We found it spacious, and furnished in a very superior manner. The floor is carpeted with the best Brussels, and the furniture, consisting of four green velvet sofas, large marble-slab centre-table, officer's desks and chairs, made of solid walnut, all evidence superior taste in their selection and finish. The hall is lighted by a magnificent chandelier, from the centre of the room, put up by Mr. Hiram Wilson, the efficient gas-fitter, of this borough. The furniture, we were informed, cost $900. Beside what we have named, the walls are decorated with paintings and engravings, which add no little to appearance. One portrait hanging over the President's chair was pointed out to us by our obliging attendant and official, as his "grandfather." The portrait was truly a work of art, and to us looked like Washington, and although we did not deny our informant, we could not believe that such a good-looking man was the "grandfather" of our homely spokesman. The whole was a joke, we guess—a hard one on Washington. After surveying the magnificence of the hail, and being the welcome guest of our brethren of the "Columbia," we took another peep at their steam-engine. It is very handsome, and an ornament to our town, while its keeping reflects credit upon all concerned. We repaired from our inspecting tour highly pleased, and think that others can not full to mark the enterprise and liberal spirit of the Company when on a similar visit. We learn the rooms will be open to visitors during the present week.

SHOT IN THE FOOT .- Harrison Worth of Colerain township, Lancaster county, was shot in the foot one day last week. He was carrying his gun upon his shoulder, when it accidently slipped out of his hand, fell over his shoulder to the ground behind him, the concussion exploding the charge, which entered and lacerated the inside of his foot, near the great toe. The escape from serious injury was very narrow.

ACCIDENT .- John Kohr, son of John ACCIDENT.—John Kohr, son of John Kohr, Sr., Mennonite Minister, residing in Manlieim township, two miles North of the city limits, on the Litiz turnpike, met on Saturday hist with quite a severe accident. He was driving a four horse team, and in attempting to get off of the saddle horse, his foot became fastened in the stirrup and his foot became fastened in the stilling and he was thrown to the ground and dragged for some distance. The providential stopping of the team saved his life. The young man sustained some severe injuries, one of his knees being badly hurt.—Intelligencer.

The wounds of one will probably prove fatal. It appears they had got among a crowd of Democrats congregated in that vicinity, emulous of achieving the notoriety gained by the Democracy of this city, and following their example. The annual report states that 37 new subordinate Councils and six degree Councils were organized in the State during the year, making a total of 176 subordinate bodies. The following officers for the ensuing year were installed: S. C., Geo. W. Jenkins, of No. 56; S. V. G., John W. Quigg, of No. 27; S. C. S., John P. Bart, of No. 30; State Treasurer. > "THE vote in Pennsylvania on Tuesda next will decide whether we are to have a President with a policy; based upon the Constitution and laws, or a President with no policy, 'military necessity.'"—Young George, Jr.

When we remember that the author of the above is the type of correctness-weighing him in his own scales-we must be allowed to enquire what the man means? How will the reader ever connect "policy" and "constitution," when they are separated by that semi-colon? After grin-ling the life out of the semi-colon in the attempt, we next butt against his "policy, 'military necessity," and utterly fail in seeing either good sense or proper punctuation. How about "Dogberry" and the "King's English?" Young, you're guilty of murder in the first degree, and ought to be hung

"-The infallible Brigham appears to take delight in searching out every little typographical error that creops into our columns, and in this way cowardly replies to our advocacy of Republican principles. We are not disposed to play the critic, but feel that we must fight the devil with his own weapons. For this occasion we direct attention to the following sentence:

"Next Tuesday the American people will be called upon to choose an administration for the next four years, &c."—Brigham. The above is from the scholarly pen of one who is, or would be, an habitual critic. We only ask Brigham, and his class of public sneaks, to excuse our presumption when we pronounce the sentence quoted above. not only incorrect, but unintelligent. Who ever heard of a people electing an adminis-tration? The people "choose" a President, if you please.

DEATH OF JUDGE MURRAY.—It is our unpleasant duty this morning to record the demise of Judge Wn. F. Murray, long, favorably and prominently known in this community. His death was as sudden as it was unexpected, and has cast a deep gloom over friends and relatives with whom he has for many years been intimately associated. On Monday he was apparently enjoying excellent health, and retired in his usual good spirits. On Tuesday morning he was stricken with a paralytic stroke, and up to the hour of his soul's final flight, which occurred at 11 o'clock, uttered but two or three words. The deceased was born in Middletown, this county, and was fifty-five years of age last May. He moved from thence to this city, where he has resided for the last eighteen years, and been identified with its growth and improvement, taking the lead in every public enterprise. He held several positions of public trust and honor, and filled at the time the office of Associate Judge of the county. His death will be universally regretted by all who knew him, white Harrisburg has lost one of her best-citizens.—

JUST THE PLACE .- If there is any thing an honest farmer likes it is plain dealing. It is his own way of doing things, and he will never do business if he knows it, with any one who is even disposed to take advantage of him. When he is dealing in corn and wheat, he isn't afraid of any man's getting ahead of him, but when he goes to town to buy things with which he is less familiar, then he wants first of all an honest man to deal with. New York, July 1st, 1868.—Dear Sir.—In your paper of last week you or one of your correspondents say that Dr. Drake is not the originator of the celebrated Plantation Bitters, and that they were manufactured and sold by one Pedro Mertelle, an old Spaniard, in the Island of St. Thomas, over forty years ago, as every old sea captain can testify. Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pilla. The obvious reasons for it is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all elimates; contaming neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, white being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—tenove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, where ever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pilts rapidly cure:

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.
As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and refleve the stomach.
An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and-renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.
