"LET US HAVE PEACE!"

VICTORY!
ULYSSES S. GRANT PRESIDENT!
The Republicans Carry Twenty-Four States.
The Democrats Carry but Six States.

The Great Result.
ULYSSES S. GRANT was on Tuesday chosen President, and SCHUYLER COLFAX Vice President of the United States by the largest popular majorities ever given to any candidates for these exalted positions.

The Contest Over—Now for Peace.
As our figures foreshadowed Wednesday morning, the contest for the Presidency has come to a decisive close. We are heartily glad that the long turmoil of the struggle is over, and sincerely hope that the whole country may now settle down upon a prosperous basis of peace.

The Round Table. A very influential independent journal of Democratic tendencies, in its issues of the 24th ult., made these philosophic remarks: "Under the circumstances—assuming that to say that General Grant's election is now inevitable—we should be very glad to see his majority a very large one. The more numerous that majority the freer will be his hands when in the Presidential chair; and as, whatever else he may be, General Grant is certainly a moderate-minded and dispassionate man—a man that looks at things very thoroughly indeed before he makes up his mind about them—it is highly desirable, since he must be President, that the country should have the untrammelled advantage of these particular good qualities. Now, the stronger his constituency, the greater the confidence thus expressed in him, the more complete will be General Grant's independence."

Content for United States Senator.
The Legislature of Pennsylvania being largely Republican, will gain a United States Senator in place of Buckalew. This gentleman will contest the empty Democratic nomination with Wm. A. Wallace, the one desiring an endorsement of course in the Senate, the other wishing a recommendation to some future Democratic Legislature. The main contest will be for a caucus nomination by that party is almost a sure step to an election. The candidates named are Hon. Galusha A. Gray, Hon. A. C. Curtis, Wayne MacVeagh, Esq., John W. Forney, Esq., Hon. John Corode, (if defeated in his legal contest for the House of Representatives) Wm. H. Komba, late State Treasurer, Benjamin H. Brewster and A. K. Moorhead. It is not generally believed that Curtis will be a candidate, but it is rather thought that he will be the recipient of a high foreign mission. There seem to be plenty of candidates, and the contest will soon be a warm one.

The Age of Steel Approaching.
Steel rails, steel boilers, steel everything, is the current talk among mechanical engineers, and leading scientific periodicals are discussing the adoption of heavier locomotives, now rendered possible by the increased strength of steel rail. The economy of heavy locomotives over those of lighter construction has been long since demonstrated.

The opening statue for the Gettysburg national epitaphy has arrived. It represents the Goddess of Liberty, stands twelve feet high and weighs 14,000 pounds. It was modeled and cast in Italy by Randolph Rogers.

Known hematite iron ore has been discovered in the mountain ridge extending from Reading to the Lehigh Valley. It is thought it will yield 50 per cent. of pure iron.

The Stock-Breaking Business.
The New York correspondent of the Hartford Courant writes: "After discussing the matter for some time, the regular stock board has decided to raise the price of admission hereafter to ten thousand dollars. I am told by the members that the open board will soon follow suit. This is but another of a series of steps undertaken by the two boards to retain all the brokerage business in their own hands. You will remember that some two months since they enacted a joint measure, punishing with expulsion any member who should enter the 'Long Room.' The 'Long Room' was made up of outside independent brokers who did not belong to either board. They had come to do some business, however, that the boards decided that they must be crushed. So the 'Long Room' as such ceased to exist and became a lobby for the board members. This increasing the price from twenty-five hundred to ten thousand dollars, will surely result in the establishment of a third board, composed of members who will attempt to compete with the old boards, by doing business at a much less rate of commission. Had the regular board been less severe and rigorous in the admission of members, the open board would never have been established. The same cause which led to the establishment of the latter, will not bring forth a third board."

A Wife Shoots Her Husband and Shoots His Head off.
On Tuesday morning, the citizens of Greenacres about a mile from Dayton, Ohio, were startled by the news of a shocking tragedy in their midst. A family named Warwick, consisting of husband, wife and six children, moved into the village a year or so ago, from Warren county. They were regarded as good citizens by their neighbors, although the husband and wife did not live on the most affectionate terms. It was not suspected, however, that their disagreement was of a very serious nature, until Tuesday morning, when the startling word came that Elliot Warwick had been murdered by his wife.

The Crops.
The October report of the Department of Agriculture states that the increase of the wheat harvest is scarcely more than three per cent. over last year. This result has been occasioned by the diminution in the old States of the yield per acre, which neutralizes the increase of the area of population. The oat harvest is light, except in the Western States, in Nebraska the increase being 21 per cent. over last year. The corn crop is reported as having been injured by the wet weather, and later by the frost. The total product will be less than is needed for the country, but will be larger in quantity than it was in 1867, which was a very unfavorable season. Buckwheat is generally deficient in its return. Potatoes are reported as yielding a full average crop, with a deficiency of 10 per cent. in New York and Pennsylvania, and 20 per cent. in Illinois. The cotton crop, it is stated, will be less than last year by 15 to 20 per cent., owing to the deprivations of the army worm, and to the heavy rains in the Southwest.

Gov. Geary's Thanksgiving Proclamation.
HARRISBURG, October 29th.—Governor Geary has issued the following proclamation:
"Unto God, our Creator, we are indebted for His and all His blessings. It is therefore, because we at all times render unto Him the tribute of grateful hearts; and in the performance of our sacred duties, to set apart special periods to 'enter into His courts with thanksgiving and praise.' For this purpose, and in accordance with an established custom, I have designated Thursday, the 29th of November next, and I recommend that the people of this Commonwealth on that day express their gratitude to God for His mercies, and assemble at their chosen places of worship, to 'praise the name of our Lord and our Heavenly Father, and devoutly to acknowledge their dependence, and lay upon His altars the cheerful offerings of their hearts.'
Let us thank Him with Christian humility for health and prosperity; abundant harvests of grain, fruit, and wool; and the advancement of scientific, mechanical and manufacturing interests; our progress in the arts of peace, and the construction of war; for having blessed us as a people and a nation, and opened before us the bright prospect of the future; and for all our other blessings, both temporal and spiritual.
With sure reliance upon Divine favor let us pray for the forgiveness of our sins, making public confession of our dependence, that may contribute to the welfare of our civil and religious liberties, and that we may be enabled to maintain with vigor and courage the rights which we justly prize as a free people.
Let us remember with gratitude our country's brave defenders, and our orphan children, and that our paths through life may be illumined by the example of the Redeemer, who died that we might enjoy the blessings which temporarily afflict our human, and eternal life in the world to come."
JOHN W. GEARY.

SPECIAL NOTICES.
WOMAN.
The peculiarities of woman's mind and her special organization, which distinguish her from the male, are many and striking. Freedom from the influence of the passions, and the ability to perform the duties of a wife and mother, are the chief characteristics of her nature. It is not only the duty of a man to love and cherish his wife, but also to protect her from the influence of the passions, and to provide for her the means of support and education. The education of a woman should be such as to fit her for the duties of a wife and mother, and to enable her to manage her household with economy and skill. The education of a woman should also be such as to enable her to perform the duties of a citizen, and to be able to vote intelligently at the polls. The education of a woman should be such as to enable her to be a helpmeet to her husband, and to be able to manage her household with economy and skill. The education of a woman should also be such as to enable her to perform the duties of a citizen, and to be able to vote intelligently at the polls.
