

Columbia, Pa. Saturday, November 7, 1868.

Advertisements, to secure immediate in-sertion, must be handed in on or before Thurs-day evening, each week.

THE election passed off very quietly in this Borough-only one or two skirmishe THANKSCIVING day is approaching and turkeys are coming in demand.

Lost.—A brass door key was lost last evening, on Locust street, between Front and Third streets. The finder will be rewarded by leaving it at this office.

SEWING SCHOOL.—The Sewing School under the charge of the ladies of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, will be re-opened on Saturday afternoon next, at half-past one ed troops fought nobly."

THANKS .- M. M. Strickler, Esq., who has been on a gunning expedition, to the mountains of Western Pennsylvania, will accept our thanks for an excellent venison

TO CAMPAIGN SUBSCRIBERS .- The next number of the SPY will be the last issued to the campaign subscribers. If any wish to continue as regular subscribers, they will give us notice to that effect, by letter or otherwise.

PERSONAL.-Our friend, Samuel S. Strachan, Esq., was in town on Wednesday last. He holds an important Government office in Washington city, and has been visiting friends and relatives in this locality. He left for Washington last evening.

PERMANENT certificates for teaching in the public schools of this State have during the past month been issued to R. S. Gates, Manheim: David R. Brubaker Bainbridge; Abraham W. Shuman, Safe Harbor; Wm. L. Balentine, Churchtown and Wm. C. Shuman, Columbia.

VIOLET INK .- W. U. Hess has just received, at his news depot, a very fine article of violet ink. It is superior, for writing, from its ready flow from the pen. No sediment, nor is there any tendency to corrode the pen. It gives a beautiful, as well as a lasting color.

Religious .- Preaching in the "U. B. Church" on next Sunday, morning and evening, at the usual hours, by W. S. II, Keys, pastor. Morning subject: "The Kingdom of Christ an everlasting Kingdom." Evening: "The subject-and his devotion for the Kingdom's success."

THE Columbia Fire Company will have their newly furnished room open to visitors to-day (Saturday) from 1 till 9 o'clock, P. M. The public generally, and particularly the ladies, are invited to call. Children will not be admitted into the room, unless accompanied by their parents or a member of the Company.

FIRE.—Monday morning, about 94 o'clock, a frame building situated on an alley between Fourth and Fifth streets, belonging to John Dellum, and occupied by a negro family, caught fire, and was entirely consumed. Fire companies promptly on hand, but no execution done by the Vigilant, owing to the great distance which the water had to be forced.

Where to Get Them.—Nothing looks worse on a person than an old or worn out hat. The place to get new ones, and the latest styles, too, is at the great hat emporium of Jones, Temple & Co., 29 South 9th street, Philadelphia. Mr. Temple is an old Columbian, and our citizens, while in the city. the same genial, good fellow as of yore.

CHILDREN'S MEETINGS .- Rev. E. M. Long, the Child's Prencher, will commence a sories of illustrated sermons for children. on next Sabbath, at 2 o'clock, P. M. in the M. E. Church-visiting in order the Presbyterian church on Monday evening, Lutheran on Tuesday evening, and United Brethren on Wednesday evening. The public are invited to attend.

NEW DRY GOODS STORE .- Mr. A. B. Haldeman is about opening a dry goods store in Wagner's new building, on Locast street, below Third. This is a good locality, and we have no doubt but Ab. will do a large business, as there is no one in this vicinity better posted in the dry goods business than Mr. H. Some of his goods have already arrived. His opening appouncement will appear in a few days.

UNCLAIMED LETTERS -List of letters UNCLAIMED LETTERS:—List of letters remaining unclaimed, in the Columbia Post Office, up to this date. Persons calling for these letters will please mention that they are advertised in the Sey:

Ladies List.—Mary Sharpley, Muttie Mellinger, Annie S. Meyers, Catharine E. Musser, Annie M. Eisenberger, Lizzie Fox.

Geutlement's List.—Johannas Weber, (2), Geutlemen's List.—Johannas Weber, (2), David J. Wheeler, John Weber, George Thompson, Jacob Thompson, Wm. B. Stanly, Rees Roberts, James McGreer, H. F. Frirchilds, Geo. Darman, E. C. Cart-right, H. A. Bercher, Henry Armstrong.

MARRIAGE .- Every man who has sense enough to appreciate a woman's worth, and energy and industry enough to support her, and virtue and intelligence enough to bring up his children in the way they should go-every such man should marry. And every woman who is alike to comprehend the value of a good husband, and has love enough to prompt her to cheer him in his time of trial and weariness, and generosity enough to prevent him from making him the slave of her extravagance -eyery such woman, we say, should marry.

THE GRECIAN BEND .- Comic singers may try to sing it down; paragraphists to write it down; little boys to laugh it down; servant girls to imitate it down; medical men to frighten it down; clerical satirists to preach it down; but it won't go down, the Grecian bend won't! No, sir! Go to New York, and on any fine day you will see it upon the promenade, greet it at the Park, brush against it at the theatre, in fact, see it "sticking right out" everywhere. It is like the oak; it is a bender, but there's no break to it. The harder you throw it down, the higher it bounces up, like an India rubber ball. All women have got to bend before long, or they will be counted out of the pale of society. If "lovely woman" will thus "stoop to folly," why, let her stoop.

WE know it to be very largely habit to postpone the purchase of our Fall or Winter clothing just as long as we possibly can, and those of us who buy in Philadelphia, often delay until the season is far advanced before we think of furnishing ourselves with clothing suitable to it. Some of us do this through thoughtlesness; others because we suppose that we can then purchase, at lower prices, and others because we think a matter of econom: to wear our summer clothes as long as possible. We are fully persuaded that this is a mistake and that it is really our interest. to make our purchase at the very opening of the season. It stands to reason that those who take the "first pick." fare best and we are assured by the proprietors, of the largest clothing house in Philadelphia, (Wanamaker & Brown's) that neither in price or may other respect is there any advantage to be gained by wa ting.

APPOINTED .- Harrison Hipple has been appointed by the Internal Revenue Department, Storekeeper for this (Ninth Pennsylvania) District.

DON'T GET CHEATED, LOOK OUT .-Get pint bottles, $1, in white wrappers— Wolcott's Annihilator, for it cures Catarrh, Wolcott's Pain Paint cures pain, all kinds, and heals all sores without stain or smart. Business .- Our merchants are now ecciving their Fall and Winter stocks, and are consequently full of "biz," our mechanare "skeerce" unless they can get "three prices" for what they do. Take it all in li, Columbia is a live town. GOOD FOR THE HATTERS .- Not less

In Columbia nearly the same state of feeling existed, both at this and the October elections. Hats and coats were rent asunder. A HINT TO BUSINESS MEN .-- Now is the time to advertise. The Presidential election is over, and the people will settle down to practical business. Housekeepers will be providing for family wants, and merchants laying in stock of fresh goods to meet the demands which are sure to be made upon them. Those who have merchandize to dispose of should take advantage of this favorable state of affairs, and do as the politicians have been doing-keep themselves before the people. The columns of the SPY are open to all such. We cordially invite business men and business women to avail themselves of the opportunity promptly, and to as great an extent as their purses will allow or their business will justify. No money is so well invested as that expended in judicious advertising.

CHILDREN AND CRIME.-We have often thought if society would contribute as much to prevent crime as it does to punish it, society would be much better off in the end. On every hand we see the incipient criminal come slowly to maturity; neglected, unrecognized, until the stern unyielding hand of the law is stretched out to punish. From statistics compiled in England, it has been attained that on an average there were born every day in London seven children, who, from their residence in morally infected districts, must inevitably lead a life of crime. It is the same here. Every arge city has its morally infected districwhere crime is engendered and the mind of the young tainted and ruined. It is a sad hought, but society looks calmly on, sees he thief and the prostitute developing day by day, but never thinks of putting forth a and to save. There is no thought but to punish. Let us try to redeem, and there will be less work to do in the way of reform.

Errection Over -The election is over and all Democrats and Republicans experience a sense of relief, for the contest has been an earnest one to an extraordinary degree, and there are few men, interested in the welfare of their country, who have not telt their minds worked up in the conroversy which has been going on, to a tension very unusual. Business will now receive more attention than has been given to it for the past two or three months. Men will now settle down to their ordinary avocations, feeling that they have done their duty in settling at the ballot-box the administration of this government for the next four years, according to the best judgment they can form.

Editorial heat will now have an opportunity to cool off, and political opponents. will shake hands with each other, and bind themselves over to keep the peace untill the next elections calls them to the hustings again. For our own part we beg the opposition candidates, for all we have should by all means call upon him. He is said giving offerce, and promise not to be similarly wicked in the future-till the next time.

KILLED BY A FALL.-The Harrisburg State Guard gives the following account of an accident that befel a citizen of this county while at Harrisburg. On Monday morning, a man named George Hannan, belonging to Mount Joy, Lancaster county, called at the Executive Chamber, requesting an interview with the Governor. The Governor being engaged at the time, and it being evident that the man was strongly under the influence of liquor, Major Armor told him to retire, and that in his condition it was utterly impossible for an interview to be granted. Mr. Hannan withdrew, going over to the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, but again returned and was a second time refused an audience. He then left, returning a short time after, and in ascending the stairs leading to the reception room of the Governor, lost his equilibrium when near the top of the stairs, falling over the banister and striking the murble tiles composing the floor with the back part of his head with such force and concussion as to crush his skull, and sustaining other injuries, causing his death in about an hour after the accident.

FLOWERING BULBS-A FEW SEASON-AMLE HINTS.—As this is the season for starting all kinds of flowering bulbs, a few words as to their cultivation may not be inappropriate, and the following remarks are condensed from one of the best authori-

Hyacinths should be planted in pots from the first of October to the first of November. The soil used should be one-third each of white or river sand, vegetable mould and rich loam. The pots should be six inches across the top, and when the bulbs are planted should be lightly filled with earth. the bulb placed in the centre and pressed into the earth so as to be about half covered. After this the earth should be made solid all around the sides of the pot to socure the bulb in place. When thus potted they should be removed to a cool, somewhat dark place, that they may be well rooted before the tops shoot up. Little water is required, and if the place they are kept in be tolerably damp, once watering immediately after potting is all that is required. When well rooted they may be introduced into the room either on the mantel-piece or in the window. Light is essential when the top begins to grow. If it is wished to raise them in gasses, the glass should be tilled with water, but not so high as to come in contact with the bulb, otherwise the bulb is apt to decay. The glasses may be put into a light but cool place until the roots have grown half the length of the glass at least. The longer the roots are before being forced into flowers, the finer the bloom will be. When and at the same time pretend to be the once rooted they may be kept in a warm or cool place, as the flowers are required in Their black and nauseous pills of malicious succession-as the flowers will not put forth even when the glass is filled with professions of love. THE following is the result of the election in Columbia. The Cops made superhuman efforts to reduce the Republican majority and gained seven votes:

CHESTER COUNTY ITEMS .- We clir he following items from the West Chester

Record, of Tuesday : Mr. J. Williams Thorne, of Sadsbury, has avored us with a bottle of sorghum molas-ses, of his own manufacture and raising. It is grown from seed from Liberia, which he considers the best and surest variety fo the farmer. The stalk is more robust. The the farmer. The stalk is more robust. The specimen before us has a fine color, flavor and taste. The raising of sorghum in Chester county has been small the last season—many of the mills are idle. Mr. John Coates, near Cochranville, has perhaps manufactured more than any other one this season—some 1500 gallons, it is said. Oliver Gailey, Wm. Rupert, Wm. Paxson, Barchy Mercer, and other farmers in Sadsbury have raised sorghum this year of the Liberian variety, which Mr. Thorne thinks will not mix, and the leaves strip easier.

Israel Powell of Uwchlan township, lost Israel Powell of Dwellan township, lost a very valuable mare on Friday morating last. He was engaged in hauling wood from the woods of H. E. Gray at Oakland Station, on Thursday afternoon, when the animal slipped, and fell reross a stump, severely injuring her internally, from the effects of which she died the following morning. She was insured in the Chester County Livestock Insurance Company. A reward of $275 is offered by the Mutual Live Stock Insurance Company of Chester County, for the recovery of a horse belong-ing to Thes. S. White, of Middletown, Delware county. It was at first supposed the horse had escaped from the pasture field and strayed away, but after a diligent search of the neighborhood, it is now thoulgt be has been stolen. He was first

On the 17th inst., Messrs. Huston & Penrose had occasion to send a check on the National Bank of Chester Valley for $2,000 to E. Sheetz, 119 South Sixth street, Reading, in payment for iron. By mustake, the envelope containing the letter and check was directed to Philadelphia instead of Reading, but there being no such number in Philadelphia, the letter regained in the Post Office until cailed for. In The meantime, the party in Reading for Whom the check was miended, informed Messrs. Huston & Penrose of its non-arrival. Another check was sent them, and notice given our Bank not to honor the missing check. Last week a man called at the Philadelphia post office, and asked for letters for Eli Sheetz, whereupon the letter from Messrs. Huston & Penrose was handed him. He, determined to receive the money, endorsed the check, and on last Monday presented it Ituston & Penrose was handed him. He, determined to receive the money, endorsed the cheek, and on last Monday presented it at our Bank. Upon being questioned about it, he stated the manner in which he received it, and exhibited the letter which accompanied it, which set forth the purpose for which the cheek was given, and plainty showed that it was not intended for the person who held it. He was arrested and lodged in jail, where he is now awaiting a trial on the charge of endeavoring to receive money under false proteness.

The report of the Wilmington & Reading R. R. Co., for 1867, states that the contract for the clearing, grubbing, grading, hridging and masoury of the entire line from Wilmington to Birdsbore', (exclusive of the bridge over the Schuylkiil,) was awarded to Wm. M. Wylle & Co., of Lancaster, Pa., for $506,610.26, and that the graduation and masoury are to be finished on the 10th of December, 1868. The length of the road is 63.74 miles, and the President chaims that the contract price is 'less per mile in greenbacks, than any similar work has heretofore been contracted for in gold. He foopes that in the Spring of 1860 the road will be nore even contracted for in gold. He hopes that in the Spring of 1850 the road will be opened. The road, however, will not be graded by the time specified, owing to the scarcity of laborers, but it will not be delayed more than three months, and during the Spring of 1859 can be completed.

TATELERS .- Every community is cursed by the presence of a class of people who make it their concern to attend to everybody's business but their own. These peo ple are the meanest specimens of humanity which Providence permits to live. It is known that a large class of persons are disposed to speak ill of others, and tattling is a sin from which few can claim to be entirely exempt, but there is a distinct class of tattlers, who make tale-bearing the constant aim of their lives. They pry into the private affairs of every family in the neighborhood; they know the exact state of one neighbor's feelings towards another; they understand everybody's faults, and no blunder or impropriety ever escapes their vigilant watchfulness. They are particularly posted up in everything connected with courtship and matrimony-know who are to marry, and can guess the exact time when it will take place. They watch every movement of parties suspected of matrinonial intentions, and if there is the slightest chance to create a disturbance, excite jealousy, or break up a match, they take immediate advantage of it, and do all in their power to keep people in constant vexation. They go from gentleman to lady, from mother to daughter, from father to son, and in the ears of all they pour dark and bitter whispers of slander and abuse, most sincere friend of those they talk to. slander are coated with smiles and the poor-the "upper ten" and "lower milthan in water, and the bulbs grown in | lion"-in church and out of it. OFF FOR A VISIT TO THE OLD WORLD. -Mr. G. C. Francicuss, General Agent of the Pennsylvania Railroad, left Philadelphia on Thursday last week, with his family, for New York, and sailed on Saturday morning, in the French steamer Periore for Havre. From this place they will go direct to Paris, where they will remain some months, before visiting Germany, Italy and other places. Mr. Franciscus was formerly a resident of this borough, where he has many warm friends and near relatives, who join in wishing him a prosperous voyage and a safe return.

Burial of Seymour, Nov. 4. 1868. BY A SEYMOURNER.

AIR-" Burial of Sir John Moore." Not a sigh was heard nor a funeral note, As up Salt River we hurried, But we longed to depart from the weary boat, And wished our leader was buried. He was killed so dead on election day, By Grant and Colfax legions, That naught was feit for his friends but to pra

His soul from the "infernal regions." And thus in the dark and gloomy night, Of defeat and despair we were hurried With his clay-cold corpse concealed from sight To the place where our dead are buried. The coilin was ready, ('twas Belmont's best,) And in rebel gray as we found him, He lay like a traitor taking his rest,

With the "stars and bars" around him. By the side of McCiellan we made his grave, With our torches dimly burning, And the same old "spades" of that gallant bra Were used for the salt turf turning. Fow and short were the prayers we said— We finished our work and left him-His New York "friends" still pray for the dead

On the bank of that lonely river; No stone was erected the tale to unfold, Our dead are forgotton forever. And now in the bottle we seek relief, The "offices" all have departed; With Seymour and Blair we have come to grief And hence are all broken-hearted.

And there he lies in the moonlight cold.

"The Dungeous."

George young, Jr., has a homily upon what he is pleased to term the "dungeons" now being erected under the new market house. The way is being prepared to make an onslaught upon the Council, in order to make some political capital for the approaching borough election. Demagogueism is, however, about played out. When the question of erecting a market house and lock-up came before the Council, the matter was fully discussed. Some of the Republican members opposed the erection of the lock-up under ground. The late Democratic candidate for Congress took a different view, and said that any place was good enough for those persons likely to be confined in them. He carried his point, and the lock-up is under ground. Whether it is right or wrong, humane or otherwise, let the responsibility of the crection of the 'dungeou' be placed to the credit of the proper persons. proper persons.
