INDEPENDENT, FEARLESS & FREE

Fashions Old and New.

As each generation mourns the degenerate times it has fallen upon, and sights' for the good old days of their grandfathers, so each new fashion is pronounced more ridiculous than its predecessor; but if we look through the old records and cuts of the glorious bygone days, we will find that dame fashion was just as ridiculous in all ages as she knew how to be, and that her followers were just as abject slaves three centuries ago as now. A picture before us, says a contemporary, represents a fashionable English belle of 1610, who has her face dotted over with black patches stuck on with guin, and representing various objects, this fashion was then borrowed from the Roman dames of the last days of the Empire. One patch represents a coach and four, stuck on just above the right eye. On either cheek the form of a crescent and a large star appears, while the chin is set off by a round black patch representing a lozenge. It seems these ornaments were adopted by male fops as well as female. The custom prevailed for a long time One writer of the time says: "If it be a lover's part you act, take a black spot or two; 'twill make your face more loving, and appear more gracicus in your mistress' eyes." This absurd custom was said to have originated in attempting to imitate BLANK BOOKS OF EVERY DESCRIPTION ON a mole which Venus is represented to have displayed on her face. The account says: of all manner of shapes." One of the fond husbands of that time boasts of the beauty of his wife's appearance when he first gave her leave (they would not ask it now) to wear a black patch, and adds "with three patches, she is far handsomer than the Princess Henrietta" In times of political excitement, the patches were made to represent the emblems of the favorite party. The mania raged furiously in England in 1754, and for several years thereafter, and for a lady to appear without a patched face, was to be pointed at as our style. While that was less dangerous to health, it was quite as ridiculous as the Grecian bend. We allude to it to show that fashiou and folly was just as absurd centuries ago, as now, notwithstanding the constant reference to the virtues and the good sense of past gener-

READY-MADE CLOTHING In the City of Lancaster.

TT IS A FACT! Capable of ocular demonstration, that the prices of Gloths, Castineres, Ready-Made Clothing and Furnishing Goods, are less than one-half what they were during the war, at the Morehant Tailoring establishment of

S. S. RATHVON, Corner North Queen and Orange Streets, opposite Shober's Hotel, Lancaster, Pa.

This is the oldest establishment in this line of trade in Lancaster county, and is selling, at this time, fine Moscow, Esquimaux, and common Beaver Overeats from $15 to $20; Common Union Beavers from $16 to $15; Common Union Beavers from $16 to $20, and fine qualities from $25 to $33, A few suits from hand as low as $10. Cloths, Classimeres and Trimmings as low as they can be obtained anywhere cise, and sold by the yard to those who may wish to have them made at home, or elsewhere.

Overcoats, Dress Coats and Business Suits made to order with dispatch, and in the best and most fashlomable manner, as the customer may desire. All kinds of cutting and repairing done at reasonable prices. An entire new stock got up for the Fall and Winter trade of 1898 and 1898, and manufactured in the city of Lancaster. It would be to the interest of the public to call and realize that "IT 18 A FACT."
