Advertisements, to secure immediate in-ertion, must be handed in on or before Thurs-iny evening, each week.

WHEN a man takes more pleasure in earning money then in spending it, he has taken the first step towards wealth.

WE notice in different sections of our town parties clearing up, impatient for the time to come for building. This is a good sign.

WE would most respectfully announce for the benefit of our bakers that flour has declined in price. Why not reduce the price of bread?

FASHION gossips say that higher colors for gloves will be opened shortly, and much affected by young ladies in conjunction with gay Spring costumes, in contrasting colors, bright blue, green, violet and mauve, for example, to match the trimmings, or contrast of color in their dresses.

THE ladies are to wear silver, gold and diamond dust in their hair next summer. Any young woman who can't get up and dust will be ruled out of fashionable cir-cles.-Pittsburg Ev. Mail. Many a lady wears brick-dust, but we should think all the ladies who go out in the streets in Pittsburg wear soot in their hair.

GIVE US NOTICE .- Those of 'onr subscribers who intend changing their resi-dence on the coming first of April, will oblige us by sending us timely notice where they want their papers directed to. Please state where you move from as well as where you move to. A little care in this respect will prevent mistakes and save trouble.

THE FAIR .- The Ladies' Fair was well attended last evening. The Hall was pack-ed full till a late hour by the youth, beauty and innocent of our town, as well as the man of leisure, merchant, mechanic and Tazer. hard fisted laborer-all were there to see what the Hivers and their lady friends were doing. Prof. Schmeid's music onlivened the scene.

SIGNOR BLITZ .-- It will be seen by reference to our advertising columns, that the renowned Signor Blitz will soon give two of his performances in Columbia. His many friends will be glad that he is coming, so prepare for a good laugh. He will bring his canary birds with him. Never, in this wide world, was there such a man as Signor Blitz. Everybody will go and see him, of course. HEARING POSTPONED .- A. A. Bowe, who was arrested last week by the agent of the Delaware Mutual Life Insurance Company, was to have a hearing in Lancaster on Wednesday, but it was postponed, the time being extended to Saturday, March 20, in order to give him a chance to give security, or to return the money filched from said company. He remains in prison at Lancaster.

VERDANT CUSTOMER.—The man who doesn't take a paper was in Columbia last week. He set his time piece by Spering's watch sign, wiped his nose on a piece of carpet hanging out at Fondersmith's store, aid how-do-you-do to Capt. Jinks, struck the little fat punch at Mrs. Booth's tobacco store, because, as he said, it was laughing at him, wanted to take the segurs from the fist of the big Indian at Fondrich's, stopped at the National Bank to find out the price of coal, called at this office to get his picture taken, and paid twenty-five cents to Fred Williams for a Jayne's almanac.

UNIQUE .--- One of the novelties at the Vigilant Steam Fire Company's Fair, now in progress in Odd z'ellows' Hall, is a cane naturally crooked and knotty, finished up a man votec very nicely, to be pro "'the most contrary," in Columbia. It was presented to the fair committee by Mr. David McFalls, through Messrs. U. Findley and J. C. Bucher. We hear there are several married ladies connected with the fair, who are very much excited lest their husbands "fall heir to the stick," and thus be known as the "most contrary man in Columbia." The affair creates much merriment. Vote for your favorile contrary COLUMBIA BUILDING ASSOCIATON .---A meeting of the Stockholders of the Columbia Building Association, was held in the Town Hall, on Saturday evening last. Mr. E. CALICO.-In consequence of the an-nouncement by the "Hivers" of their intention of giving a novel and first class calico ball,-our dry goods merchants are having a rush just now for that meterial. Many pretty and neat designs of calico will no doubt, grace Odd Fellows' Hall, on March

17th. PASSENGER TRAINS OVER THE BRIDGE. -Passenger trains commenced running over the Columbia bridge, making connections with trains on the Northern Central Railway at York, for Bal-timore and Washington, on Tuesday. The trains will leave this station directly after the arrival of all trains on the P. R. R., including the Marietta morning accommodation. Trains will also connect at York, for Columbia.

UNCLAIMED LETTERS .- List of letters remaining unclaimed in the Columbia Post Office, up to this date. Persons calling for these letters will please mention that they are advertised in the Spy :

that they are advertised in the SPY: Ladics' List.-Fannie B. Willis, Miss Kale Staunton, Mrs. K. Musser, Hannah McCarty, Sadie Treacus, Lillie Ludwig, 2, Annie Hosteter. ROBBING IN CHESTER COUNTY .--- In the neighborhood of Penningtonville and Parkesburg, Chester county, daring rob-where. The people show activity, enterberies are committed almost every night, of late. N. P. Boyer, of the American Stock Journal, Parkesburg, was robbed on Saturday night last, of $1700. They took the money from a pocket-book under his pillow, on Saturday night. No clue to the daring theft has yet been ascertained. A the visitor. short time since, the robbers entered a dwelling, and actually cooked and ate their supper. At another place breakfast was cooked, and the inmates of the house were ordered down stairs to eat, and when the man of the house came down stairs, he was knocked down by one of the robbers. The people of Chester county should be on the look-out for the rogues, and give them a reception of buckshot when they enter your dwellings.

TRAINS FOR YORK, BALTIMORE AND WASHINGTON.-Passenger trains now leave this station regularly, on arrival of trains on the Pennsylvania Central Railroad, for York; there connecting with trains for Baltimore and Washington. Making the

THERE is no question but that some people are exceedingly hard to fit with eady made clothing. They are peculiarly shaped; they are too long or too short, too proad or too thin. But no such person need lespair. Wanamaker & Brown undertake of all uses, and have outlers and tailors. BE sure to go to the Rair to-night. "MEET me at the Post-office" is the despair. THE importation of rags from the Med-iterranean, hides from Brazil, and other commodities from the tropics, is known to bring the germs of disease, chiefly fevers, which are sometimes very afflicting and fatal. Ayer's Ague cure stimulates the Liver to excrete these germs from the sys-tem as effectually us it does the minsmatic poison of our Ague districts. Consequent-ly it affords invaluable protection to steve-dores and others whose occupations expose them to these dangerous infections; and we hope to render them a valuable service in giving them this information. prices.

PUBLIC SCHOOL LIBRARY .--- The Shoch Library, of the Public Schools, will be open on Tuesday evening, March 16th, from 7 to STORE LOAFERS.—Some of our places of business and stores are cursed with loaf-ers or hangers-on-persons who "drop in" under the guise of friendship, but really they are enemies to the proprietor. They will sit around, talk politics, fill the room with the tumes of bad tobacco, and conse-quently many a lady or gentleman that would buy at such a place are kept away. One of these places we may name is the store of I. O. Bruner, Front street. Mr. B. keeps on hand a very fine assortment of la-dies shoes, and he says this loafing busi-ness is a great (detriment to him, as ladies: no not care to visit his store when filled with hangers-on. The call of the meeting was stated by the chairman, after which the following resolutions were offered and accepted.

Resolved, That Article 6th of by-laws be so amended as to read "that stockholders putting up new buildings, or building, have preference of the loans, in place of giving it to the first ap-plicant for the loan. plicant for the loan. Readed, That Section 3d of Article 5th of the by-laws be so numerical as to leave it discretion-ary with the Board of Directors to fix a price for stuck when holders desire to dispose of it to the best futeresis of the association. Readed. That the Directors redeem no stock until the questions proposed are disposed of.

On motion, the meeting adjourned to meet at the Town Hall on Saturday evening, March 13th, at 71 o'clock, to take action on the above resolutions.

N. Y. HEBALD'S PERSONALS .- The personal column of the New York Herald is the subject of much comment and condemnation by many on account of the few line advertisements it contains daily, styled personals. The wording of these personals are sometimes very brief but contain a life time, perhaps, and are readily understood by those for whom they are intended. We clip, as a fair sample, the following:

THE FAIR .- The fair now being held in Odd Fellows' Hall for the benefit of the Vigilant Steam Fire Company has passed off very pleasantly thus far. Last night the attendance was large, and we have seldom seen a more happy and satisfied set of people assembled together than graced the occusion. The display of articles of needlework, prepared by the ladies, and offered for sale, are universally admired. Everything is arranged in excellent taste, and the whole af-fair is managed in a style to ufford universal satisfaction. Our advice to all the readers of the SPY is to go to the fair; there will be a grand good time for all who attend. There will be music and song. and the fair will wind up with a grand flourish-a calico dress party in the hall on the evening of St. Patrick's day.

INFAMOUS OUTRAGE .--- On Tuesday fternoon about four o'clock, when Bridget Harvey, an aged woman who lives on Fifth street, was crossing the bridge over the river at this place, and when near half way across coming cust, she met a miscreant named Henry Snow, who caught her by he throat, and robbed her of ten dollars. then threw her violently upon the floor and attempted to commit a nameless crime upon her person. The complainent strugnents that pertain to the public good. gled with her assailant and called for assistnce, when the wretch, finding himself balked, endeavored to throw her off the bridge into the river, she begging piteously for her life. Benjamin Gontner, a watchman upon the bridge, seeing the struggle and hearing her cries for help, ran to her assistance. The defendant tried to make his escape to Wrightsville, but was headed off by the watchman at that end of the bridge, when he turned and concealed himself upon a burthen train coming east. He was followed and arrested on Front street, and taken before Samuel Evans, Esq., who committed him to jail to answer at April sessions. The defendant when sober, is an industrious and peaceable man. He has been working with the repair gang on the P. R. R., and has a family. He lives in Kline's

Row at the basin. This is a terrible warning to young men, against indulging too freely with intoxicating drinks.
