Business.—The Spring trade is about opening, and our business men are receiving new supplies of goods. Now is the time to look carefully at advertisements. THE WHEAT CROP.—In consultation with a number of farmers, we find that the wheat prospects were never better than they are now. A much greater breadth of land was sown last Fall than for a number of years, and the good weather made it firm root and the grain looks exceedingly well. If no unforseen disaster should occur, the wheat crop of this country this season will greatly exceed any crop of two or three

Some Chestnut Tree.-C. Waltz, a short time since, cut down a chestnut tree on the farm of C. S. Shuman, in Manor township, which takes down anything of the kind we have yet heard of. It was a little over seven feet across the stump; and made ten cords of wood, ninety very large posts and three wagon loads of chips. It is said that the tree was about one hundred and fifty years old. Mr. Shuman has two similar trees, one of them he thinks is a little larger than the one above described.

CULTIVATE FLOWERS, LADIES .-- If our young ladies could but acquire a foudness for the cultivation of flowers and practice it, we would have less ill health, more blooming cheeks, and handsome flowers in doors as well as out. > THE RIVER .- The river is still in firstclass rafting order, and raftsmen continue to arrive in large numbers, and contribute largely to the prosperity of railroad corporations and business men. Extra cars are attached to western-bound trains on the Penn'a R. R. at this place daily, for the accommodation of the hardy sons.

FALSE ALARMS .- Our citizens com plain of the frequency of false alarms of fire. So do we complain of the nuisance. The apparatus is brought out, the fuel con sumed and the community rendered listless and careless when a destructive con flagration does occur. Those persons who gather up the refuse about their premises and keep it until nightfall before setting it on fire, do wrong.

TOOK THE HINT .- We are glad to know that the street commissioners have taken heed of the numerous gentle hints thrown out in these columns at various times of late, with regard to the abominable nuisances of pumps standing in the middle of pavements in different parts of our borough. They have set to work "uprooting" these dangerous obstructions to free pedestrianism; the wells to be securely covered. The movement is eminently proper on the part of the commissioners and we hope they may not shrink from their purpose, but compel the removal of the last one of these nuisances. Columbia is fast becoming a city, and the things and customs of years ago must give way before the giant arm of progress and enterprise.

COUNTY ITEMS .- FIRE-RUNAWAY .-Our correspondent at Salunga sends the llowing news:

Mr. Steinwager's dwelling and washhouse, near Mechanicsville, in East Hemp-field township, were destroyed by fire on Tuesday night last. It is supposed the fire was communicated through some neglect. They were washing on Tuesday, and left flames were not discovered until the bed in which the servant girl sleeps was on fire, the heat and smoke awakening her, when the alarm was given. The buildings, with all their contents, are a total loss-several articles of furniture only being saved. No insurance.

Narrow Escape.-On Wednesday a horse attached to a buggy (driven by Mr. Martin Fry) took fright when turning the corner at J. Weidman's shoe store, and dashing off at full speed suddenly turned a corner at A. Strickler's, in Salunga, threw Mr. Fry out by upsetting the wagon, making it a total wreck. Fortunately Mr. Fry had his life insured, and therefore escaped injury.

Our Advertising Columns.—Do not failto read the advertising columns. The person who takes a newspaper now-a-days and neglects to read over the advertisements, is apt to loose much valuable information. The advertising patronage of a

the town where it is published, but is also infallible proof that the business men are possessed of vim and go-a-headativeness.

ROWELL'S NEWSPAPER DIRECTORY .-ROWELL'S NEWSPAPER DIRECTORY.—
We are in receipt of George P. Rowell's Newspaper Directory. It is a handsome, well bound and well printed book. It tells you all about every newspaper and periodical published in the United States and Camadas. Hence it is a work of great value to every man of business, traveler or showman. The book should occupy a place in every library, as it gives a person some idea of the great literary character of the American people.

BOLD SWINDLE.—One day last week, BOLD SWINDLE.—One day last week, Mr. Joseph Rambo, drover; of this city, was badly victimized by a Philadelphia sharper. It seems that Mr. Rambo had about forty mules which the sharper purchased, giving a draft on a firm in Philadelphia for about four thousand dollars. The transfer of the mules was made and Mr. R. though it time to look after the money, and, to his great surprise, soon learned that no such firm existed, and that he had been made the victim of a huge swindle. The detectives were immediately put on the track of the swindler, and he was found, minus the mules however. The man was arrested and held at Philadelphia in default of bail.—Reading Dispatch. of bail .- Reading Dispatch.

annusement in the United States, as well as the most fashionable. "School" is now being played there. It is a charmingly natural story of a period of girlhood, full of precious associations, the foundation of lifeiong affections and friendships. The author of this play has taken these days of budding womanhood as the time, and the school-grounds as the scene, and from them has managed to weave a drama full of interest in its development and elegance in its construction. There is a quiet vein of seniment throughout mingled with a certain amount of comicality in the examination scene, and a good deal of billing and cooing
in the third act, all of which, taken together,

THE CONTEMPLATED PARADE.—The success of the firemen's parade on the 26th of May, depends entirely upon the liberality of our citizens, and unless they evince a proper spirit and manifest their support in a substantial manner, the movement will necessarily have to be abandoned. Its success or failure will be due to them. The firemen are cordial, enthusiastic and earnest in the mater, and require only alacrity and generosity to be displayed by our citizens to originate one of the most imposing and largest parades ever witnessed in the State. Every merchant, saloon keeper, landlord and businesss man is interested in the project and will be benefited hundred fold for his contribution to its success. With them it rests to say whether we shall have a parade on that day or not.—State Guard, 15th inst. THE CONTEMPLATED PARADE.—The

You don't like the idea of receiving no benefit personally from insuring your life. You are glad enough to make some provision for your family. But you would be more enthusiastic about it if you could reap some of the benefits during your own life. Well, you can do just that very thing. Take out an "Endowment Policy," it is payable at the end of a certain term of years—five, ten, inteen or twenty—according to the amount of premium you pay. Like all other polices, it is payable at death, if you die inside of the specified time; but, if you live beyond that period, the whole amount is paid to you, giving you back your own, with heavy interest. QUICK WORK.—The three-story brick house, which Mr. Mishler is orecting in Middle street, which was to have been completed foundation to roof, inside and out, in thirty hours, it is expected will be finished this evening, making the time twenty hours instead of thirty. At 11 o'clock this morning the roof was on, and the way things were progressing at that time there was every indication that the whole thing would be completed at the hour for stopping work to-day and the house ready for occupancy to-morrow. The bricklayers completed their work in twelve hours, including one hour lost in waiting for brick. Thirty-nine thousand brick were used, and the ten bricklayers averaged four thousand in that time. The plasterers and carpenters are away ahead of time, and Mr. W. H. Pool, the painter, is confident that he can put on the finishing touches before sundown. A large number of persons visited the scene to-day.—Express, 14th inst. QUICK WORK .- The three-story brick

THE HOUSE WE LIVE IN .- Space for THE HOUSE WE LIVE IN.—Space forbids our speaking of the bones, muscles, lungs, brain, nerves, skin, etc. But consider for a moment that the average amount of blood in an adult is thirty pounds, or about one-fifth of the body's weight. At each beat of the heart two and a-half ounces of blood are thrown out of it; one hundred and seventy-five ounces per minute; six hundred and fifty-six pounds per bour; seven and three-fourth tons per day. All the the blood in the body passes through the heart in three minutes and distributes the nutritive principle to every texture and the heart in three minutes and distributes the nutritive principle to every texture and the source of every secretion. Now, if the blood is weak and impure the danger of incurring disease is eminent. This is certain to be its condition, more or less, at this period of the year. And just here we are admonished of the superior advantages of Mishler's Herb Bitters for cleansing and renovating the blood. This it will always do, and also prevent any disease arising from impure blood, because it removes the cause. Begin at once to purify your blood with this great tonic, and thus ward off disease before it entrenches itself in your system.

TERRIBLE RIOT IN MARIETTA.—From passengers who arrived in the accommodation train from Marieta last evening we have gathered particulars of a terrible riot which occurred in that borough yesterday afternoon, though the accounts are meaning and conflicting, and we shall be compelled to rely on later information for fulter details. It appears a party of pilots and rufts men, infamed by liquor, come in contact with a number of the noted roughs of that place about two of clock, and a general fight was the result, in which axes and other weapons were freely used. The fight was continued the entire afternoon, up to the departure of the train, and a large number of citizens and ruftsmen were severely, if not dangerously wounded that death is regarded as a certain. Crawford County System. Mr. Rambo:—I am pleased with your remarks about our present mode of nominating candidates for office, by holding primary elections. Two years experience has shown the Crawford County System all primary elections. Two years experience has shown the Crawford County System all that is desirable, provided, the elections are fairly held, votes honestly given and no frauds or stuffing of ballot-boxes permitted. The question is, however, how are frauds to be prevented, or detected and exposed? Some men will in spite of every decent restraint endeavor to carry a majority for a favorite, right or wrong, and even glory in the most disgraceful fraud if it be successful. If the primary elections were held and restricted by law as the October elections are, we might hope that they would be as honestly conducted—and even these as we see by recent exposures in our Legislative and Congressional investigations are often controlled by the basest frauds; but the difference is that the frauds can be and are investigated and denied of all effect. You and I know, that the ballot-box in Columbia has been stuffed to aid a favorite, and there is nothing to prevent it being done again, unless politicians shall become more honest, or some restriction improved, or regulation made by our County Conmittee to cure the evil. Of what use is it, Mr. Editor, for voters to go to our election when they know that some dishonest men will by trick, or manavive, introduce into the boxes fraudulent votes enough to counterthey know that some dishonest men will by trick, or manauvre, introduce into the boxes fraudulent votes enough to counterbalance all those honestly given. If there be no remedy, then the people must either refuse to vote the theket at all, ser-up another instead, or adopt some other mode of nomination. This matter is worthy of the earliest consideration, for as this is the year when all the county offices are to be filled, the anxiety for success will be greatest, and active partisans less scrupulous. So let all look out for the most shameful frauds ever practiced in this County.
