

ENVELOPES furnished and printed at the rate of $2.50 per thousand and upwards.

NEW TYPE.—We have just received a new lot of job type for printing cards, checks, blank checks, circulars, &c. Call and see specimens.

ABOUT PRAYERS.—A Western paper announces the illness of its editor, piously adding: "All good praying subscribers are requested to mention him in their prayers."

HAND THEM IN.—If ministers of the different Churches in this town will furnish us with notices for the Sabbath services, we shall be pleased to publish them.

TESTING KEROSENE.—The Scientific American gives the following mode of testing kerosene: Fill a cup with water, the temperature of which is to be brought to 100 degrees Fahrenheit; pour the oil on the water, and observe the result.

KEEP A RECORD OF FIRES.—We would suggest to our Chief Burgess and Town Council, that the clerk be directed to keep a record book and record all fires, their cause, name of property owner, location, &c.

NOT VERY PLEASANT.—Travellers some of the ailments does not excite the pleasant feelings, but forcibly suggest distinctions and decisions. Would it not be well to put them under careful inspection?

ANOTHER ROAD.—A party of engineers have been locating a railroad to connect the Columbia & Port Deposit Railroad with Delaware City. The route which they have been examining is a line from Delaware City running north to Elkton through the land of H. J. McCullough, and near Hanover's Rolling Mills, to a point somewhere on the above-named road.

THE CHILDREN'S FAIR.—Some time ago some little children of this place held a fair in the Vigilant Engine House. Cooper Hogenotter managed for them. The articles sold were the gifts of their parents and other articles were purchased and given up or donated by humane and liberal friends.

WANTED.—An opinion on rats. The rats in Dubuque, Iowa, have raised an important internal revenue question. Some two hundred dollars' worth of stamps were destroyed by the rats.

ATTEND TO YOUR CLOTHING.—The present settled winter weather should caution us to be very careful in the selection of our clothing.

FIRE IN KITCHEN-TOWN.—About two o'clock on Monday afternoon, a fire broke out in Kitchen-Town. The alarm was soon sounded through town, and its steam repaired to the spot with their steam engines. It proved to be a stable belonging to Henry Rupp, which had been used as a carpenter shop.

TO THE LADY OF THE HOUSE.—MY DEAR MADAM.—Your husband is not insured. Some of these fine mornings you will be thinking of your dear little children, and nothing to do with that. That would be a very sad thing for you to have to do.

OPENS THE ALLEY.—The subject of opening the alley between Walnut street, and in the rear of Milfin's property, was brought before Council long ago and favorably acted upon. The borough regulator was ordered to make a survey, but we are told it has never been done.

ATTEMPT TO BREAK JAIL.—Henry Coleman, who pleaded guilty to breaking into the dwelling of James McAnall, in the night time, and sentenced to serve a term of six months in the county prison, at 10 o'clock, attempted to break out of jail a few days ago by tearing up the floor of his cell.

BROUGHT SUIT FOR PEDDLING.—F. S. Bletz, a merchant of this place, who seems to have a great distaste for "drummers," as he calls them, Thursday brought suit against Frank M. Lovejoy for peddling goods. The suit was brought before Justice Beams, who dismissed the case for want of sufficient evidence.

CELEBRATION OF TAMMANY'S DAY.—Tammamy's Day (May 13th) during the early history of our country was kept as an anniversary day. At the institution of the Improved Order of Red Men, in 1813, they adopted this day as an annual holiday.

LITERARY SOCIETY.—This society met its usual minutes of the last meeting read and approved. Roll called and absentees noted. The referred questions all answered.
